Many Social Events on Campus

One of the busiest weekends for social activities at Willamette university of begun Friday night with an all-school "kiddies' party" sponsored by the junior class, the spring inter-formal Saturday night, and a junior-senior class picnic at Silver Creek falls Sunday.

The junior sponsored party was held in the gymnasium Friday night at 7 o'clock. Prizes were awarded to the two most originally dressed "kiddies," and refreshments of cakes and hot dogs were served. A talent show was presented by Dick Mallett with the aid of Walt Skronrad and Brad Young. The evening ended with a sock dance on the gym floor.

The semi-formal spring dance to be held tonight from 9 to 12 o'clock in Chesto cottage will complete the social calendar for the women's halls this year.

"Crossroads" will be the theme of the dance, carried out by signs familiar to highway scenes. A sign post with the names of the four halls will be in the room. Spring flowers and greenery will complete the setting.

Verna Stocks, Alpha Psi hall, is in charge of the affair, as assisted by Saralee Ferguson, Kappa; Eileen Lytle, Frederickson, and Kaye Dick, the "Y."

A junior sponsored picnic honoring the senior class will wind up the weekend of activity today. A picnic lunch and a hike around the falls has been planned. Stanley Buch, junior class president, is in charge of the outing, assisted by Von Kauffman and Melvin Gilson, transportation, and Betty Randall, food.

Three Freezing Demonstrations Scheduled in County Next Week

The outstanding event of the coming week is a display and discussion on freezing foods by Thomas Onsdorff of Oregon State college at the Salem Chamber of Commerce Tuesday at 8 p. m. Onsdorff is associate professor in the foods industries department, is remembered for his discussion on frozen foods at the Salem senior high school three years ago and returns by popular request. The meeting has been arranged by Doris Woodburn, war food assistant of Marion county home demonstration agent's office.

Many and varied frozen products will be on display and the public is invited to bring to the meeting products for analysis. Sugar saving methods will be featured as well as a discussion on home lockers of the future. Freezing demonstrations will be given during the week by Mrs. Woodburn in the communities of Pratum-Macleay, Union Hill, and Aumsville as follows:

Tuesday, June 5, the Pratum-Macleay Home Extension Unit will have a demonstration at the Macleay grange hall at 1:30.

Wednesday, June 6, the Union Hill Unit will meet with Mrs. A. T. Savage at 1:30 for the freezing demonstration.

Friday, June 8, a demonstration will be given at the Aumsville city hall at 1:30.

All the meetings, including the one by Onsdorff Tuesday night in Salem are open to all interested.

Mrs. Woodburn is arranging a number of garden meetings with 4-H clubs over the county during the month of June.

Dallas Motion Picture House Resumes Shows

DALLAS—The Majestic theatre resumed its run of motion pictures, Wednesday night after several weeks closure. The building was damaged during the Irish Warner grocery store fire. The interior has been completely repaired and redecorated. Shows were held in the Rio theatre while the work was underway. Witnesses said the load of logs catapulted over the train and was scattered on the other side of the railroad right of way by the force of the impact. Only the fact that there were a number of men nearby who immediately set to work to extricate the driver, several burning their hands in doing so, saved the man's life.

Skeleton, Pistol Found Near Kamela Thursday

COVE, June 1 (AP)—A human skeleton and a .38 calibre pistol found near Kamela Tuesday puzzled authorities, who estimated the man died at least two decades ago. Coroner L. L. Snodgrass said the man was unidentified.
