Court Hears Arguments In Fehl Suit

H. Fehl, to recover $11,000, alleged to be due from Jackson county for period January 1, 1933, to December 31, 1938.

The suit was appealed from Hanna held for the county.

Records show that in August 1933, Fehl was convicted of ballot theft in Jackson county and later served a term in the state penitentiary. He subsequently was declared insane in Jackson county and received treatments at the Oregon state hospital.

Following his release Fehl said he demanded possession of the office but was refused. Fehl charges that he was not removed from the office nor did he resign.
