SILVERTON—(Special)—Coach "Pop" DeLay's Silverton Junior Legion team seeks a clean sweep of its sub-county series with Woodburn here Friday evening when the two clubs meet on McGinnis field at 5:30 o'clock. Silverton walloped the Woodburns 15-8 Wednesday.

Southpaw DeWayne Johnson, ace of the Silverton pitching staff and a fastballer, will likely be DeLay's mound choice. If a third game is necessary it will be played Monday evening.

The winner of the series is expected to recruit the best players from the losing team to consolidate a single Legion nine to battle Salem for the Marion county championship beginning Sunday, June 24. Silverton beat Salem 7-6 in a practice game early this week.

Adams' Grand - Slam Homer, Cohen's Hurling Gain Beavers Lead-Saving Win Over Seattle

PORTLAND, Ore., June 14.—(AP)—The Portland Beavers, sparked by Eddie Adams' home run in the fourth with the bases loaded, trounced Seattle 9 to 3 here tonight, increasing Portland's lead in the Pacific Coast league to one and a half games over the second-place Rainiers. Had Seattle won it would have replaced the Beavers. Adams' clout wiped out a 1-0 lead earned by Seattle in the third frame.

Another homer—by First Baseman Larry Barton—with one man on base, gave the winners two runs in the seventh. Portland's victory gave the teams one each in the series and it was pitched by lefthander Sid Cohen. He allowed nine hits while the Beavers were collecting 13 off three Seattle relievers.

Scrapbook depts: Salem Senator ball fans of the 1940 era would have enjoyed the afternoon at Eugene's Civic stadium last Sunday, for on the Cascade league opening round menu was a "five years after" mound meeting between Bud "Cocky" Brewer and George "Duke" Windsor. . . Same fans will recall that in '40 Messrs. Windsor and Brewer were just about the 1-2 boys of Western International league pitching, the "Duke" with Spokane and El Cockey with the town Solons. . . No, they didn't hook up in a hot mound duel as they did five years ago—Brewer came in after Windsor's Hills Creek team blasted Chet Simpson, another ex-Senator, off the Miller-Lumbermen mound. . . Lots of memories refreshed by watching the two—especially the one involving a hot July night in '40 right here in our own ball yard when Windsor went the full 18 innings to beat Brewer, 6-4, after Bud had relieved Salem's starter, Joe Kravovich, in the 13th. . . 'Twas the night gents like Smead Jolley, Dwight Aden, Levi McCormack, Ned Stickle, the late Henry Martinez, Eddie Wilson, Steve Corzart, El Bucko Harris, Bunny Griffiths, Roy Helser, Charley Petersen, et al, were around, and 'twas also the same night one of the village ballgamers, who couldn't do much with the willow at the dish, got lots of help at it from Rev. George Swift and a poor misguided California lassie. . . The ceremony was delayed almost three hours because of the stubbornness of Messrs. Windsor and Brewer, but finally and thank goodness, Bud reluctantly gave in at quarter of twelve and Rev. Swift went to work. . . 'Twas quite a night, and watching Windsor oppose Brewer again last Sunday swept off quite a few cobwebs for this onlooker. . . Incidentally, the two sliamen had quite a post-game session talking over old times in the WIL. . . Duke is now punching a Portland war industry time clock after his release by the Beavers and Brewer, who dropped out of pro football in '42, is still herding chickens on his Eugene farm. . .

COACH BOB MCGUIRE

Legion Kids 'Welcomed' at OSP—And How!

Laugh-of-the-week—in fact, two of 'em: First, you'd have had to at least snicker (the onlooking inmates certainly did) had you been present Saturday when the local Legion kids were surprising even themselves by wallowing the OSP Greys "Yannigans," 32-4, at the penitentiary. And you'd have really laughed had you seen some kids react to a sudden but not unusual "local uprising" by prisoners in the institution's "solitary" who decided to blow off a little "stir" steam right in the middle of the ball game. Most of the Legion lads had never been inside the walls before and it was indeed a unusual welcome.

Capital Post had one very saucy-eyed baseball team when the bellowing began, and a couple of its members were thinking very seriously of leaving, but pronto! . . . Mebbe that'll teach 'em to be good little boys. . .

Speaking of the OSP and its ballgamers, we're told they are now convinced one Chief Specialist Bob McGuire, coach of Wilamette's nine, should be among those present at the institution come roll calls. Seems Coach Robert didn't like the "all you can make" ground rule which held that a player could touch all bases on any ball hit into the spectators which crowd around center field, so hit upon a plan. He didn't want his outfielders falling over the inmate spectators on the hard cement while pursuing the ball—injuries to V-12 trainees, you know so put a new ball, plus instructions, into the hip pockets on all three outfielders.

Stock Market Favorites Hit 8-Year Peaks

NEW YORK, June 14.—(AP)—Spurred by further investment demand for rails, utilities and assorted specialties, numerous stock market favorites today hit new peaks for the past eight years in one of the liveliest sessions of the past two months.

The principal flaw in the picture was that pivotal steels, motors, and many other industrials were hesitant from the start. Transfers of 1,850,000 shares compared with 1,590,000 Wednesday.

The Associated Press 60-stock average was up .3 of a point at 66.4 where it was only 2 under its top since 1937.

In front were M-K-T preferred, Santa Fe, Canadian Pacific, North American, United Corp., White Motors, American Woolen, Snyington-Gould Radio Corp., Standard Gas preferreds, Armour, Lockheed, United Aircraft, Goodrich, Aviation Corp., Standard Oil (NJ) and Johns-Manville.

Mac' a Crook Now

All went well until an OSP swatsman belted one far into the crowd. Floyd "Fullback" Simmons, playing center field, sifted into the crowd, crouched down, pulled the ball from his pocket, rifled it in and held the home run seeking hitter to a double!

The customers went wild, and so did the Greys. The payoff came when one of the "cons" roared at McGuire in the ensuing argument: "Why you bum you! I'm in here for 20 years, and by heck you're a bigger crook than I am!"

P. S. Coach McGuire isn't too popular with the Greys these days.

Birthday for Mrs. Knight

AURORA—At the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edna Taylor of Salem, Mrs. Angie Knight, Monday, widow John Knight, who had spent most of her married life in Salem, celebrated 90th birthday. The guests were Mrs. Martha Knight, 90, and daughters Mrs. Bertha Lee, Mrs. E. E. Braddi and Mrs. Del Clark. Mrs. Anna Knight, 85, and daughter, Mrs. Laura Bair, all of Canby; Mrs. Mary Birzheim, 80, of Independence, and daughters Mrs. Nelson and Lena Birzheim. The four older women are sisters-in-law.

Game Commission Hearing Saturday

The hearing of the Oregon state game commission in regard to the 1945 hunting regulations will start at ten o'clock, Saturday morning, July 14, at its offices in 616 Oregon building, Portland.

Seasons, bag limits and other regulations governing the taking of game birds, game animals and fur-bearing animals will come up for consideration at that time. The hearing is open to the public.

Giants Swap Off Medwick, Pyle

NEW YORK, June 14.—(AP)—Eddie Brannick, secretary of the New York Giants, announced tonight the trade of Outfielder Joe Medwick and lefthanded Pitcher Ewald Pyle to the Boston Braves for Catcher Clyde Klutts. No cash was involved.

Dumler Wins 11th

SACRAMENTO, June 14.—(AP)—Carl Dumler bested Guy Fletcher here tonight for his eleventh win of the season as the San Diego Padres beat the Sacramento Senators, 5-3, in a Coast league ball game.

Hines Sweeps To Golf Lead

Nelson Two Swings Off Pace at Philly

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.—(AP)—A four-under-par 66 by Jimmy Hines, songs by Bing Crosby and picnic lunches by thousands of spectators on the swank lay-out of the Llanerch Country club today marked the first round in the second annual Philadelphia Invitational $17,500 invitation golf tournament.

Hines, now of Chicago and a three-time metropolitan king in pre-war days, finished two strokes ahead of Byron Nelson, of Toledo, Ohio, and Johnny Bulla of Atlanta, Ga., after the first 18 holes of the 72-hole tourney being played for the benefit of the pro golfers rehabilitating fund.

Nelson's putter kept him from a phenomenal score. Eight times his ball hung on the lip and required an additional tap. On the 145-yard 12th he was 12 feet from the cup with his No. 7 iron, then needed three puts to go down.

Sam Snead, playing with his right wrist wrapped because of a sprain suffered in a handball game with a caddy, had a par 70 as did Toney Penna of Dayton; Ky Laffoon of Chicago; Willie Goggin of White Plains, NY; Bruce Coltart of Absecon, NJ, and Felix Serafin of Pittston, Pa.

Lineups Set For Preakness

BALTIMORE, June 14.—(AP)—Entries for the 55th running of the $50,800 added Preakness stakes at Pimlico Saturday will close tomorrow. The expected field with probable jockeys and track handicappers current odds are: (All horses carry 126 pounds)

Horse	Jockey	Odds

Polynesia-Wayne Wright	8-1
Darby Dunlop-Melvin Calvert	10-1
The Duke-No boy	12-1
Alexis-Ken Seaworth	15-1
Adonis-Johnny Gilbert	20-1
Sea Swallow-H. Woodhouse	20-1
Bobnet-S. Clark	25-1
Burnham-Dream-No boy	25-1

—Doubtful starter.

C-Barrick '9' Nips W-Salem

The Clough-Barrick Junior "B" ball team scored a 2-0 victory over West Salem Lions at West Salem yesterday to bring to a close second round play in the Salem Junior "B" circuit. Jim Rock hurled two-hit ball in gaining the first win of the season for the C-Bs.

The C-Bs scored in the second inning on John Taylor's single and three walks off Phillips of West Salem. Rock walked in the fifth, swiped second and scored on a single by Billy Hensel for the other tally.

Beavers Park Okeh As Is

PORTLAND, Ore., June 14.—(AP)—Portland baseball fans breathed easier today after the city council voted to renew the Portland baseball clubs permit to use a street which cuts through the Vaughn street ball park.

The ordinance will allow the Portland Beavers to use NW Wilson street, between 24th and 25th which would intersect center field, for three more years, but stipulates the city engineer must open up the street after that.

Links Tourney Ends in Tie

Three Men's clubbers, Tom Wood, J. W. McAllister and Floyd Baxter, deadlocked for first place in yesterday's Blaine Bogey tournament at the Salem course. Wood had a 40, less 6 for handicap, and McAllister and Baxter had 39s, less five. The blind bogey was 34.

Four others, Tony Fraiola, Bill Goodwin, Wren Crews and Lawrence Alley, tied for second place in the field of 22. Fraiola had 40-4, Goodwin 39-3, Crews 40-4 and Alley 39-3 in the tally.

Major Loop Clubs Could Use Base Hit Basher Like Camilli

By Whitney Martin
NEW YORK, June 14.—(AP)—We imagine some major league club in need of batting punch would do well to send someone giddapping out to the west coast to interview a gent named Dolph Camilli, currently at liberty, as actors say when they mean they are out of a job.

It would take a lot of honey talk and the promises of plenty of potatoes and living quarters for the Camilli clan, but it would be worth a try, as the most valuable player in the National league four years ago should have plenty of good baseball left in him.

We like the way the 37-year-old guy described the termination of his duties as manager of the Oakland club, "I was fired," he said bluntly. Usually under the circumstances there is a lot of polite hog-wash to the effect the manager was resigning for the good of the club or because of pressure of other business, when everyone might know he was called to the front office and told to resign, or else.

But Dolph always was a straightforward gent. When he held out, which was often, there was no doubt about it. When he announced he was quitting major league ball, he wasn't fooling. It took him a little while to get around to quitting after he said he would, but he made good his threat eventually, the final straw apparently being the deal sending him from the Dodgers to the Giants.

At that time, though, Dolph was reported to be drawing $20,000 a year from the Dodgers. That was only three years ago, and a fellow worth that kind of money then should be worth a little yet. Maybe his sour experience managing a minor league club has convinced him that his best bet is a pretty good job after all. We imagine the Giants still have first call on his services, and right now they could use a fellow who can hit. It would be worth a try, anyway.

Skidding Giants Lose, Slide to Third

Pirates Paste Bruins Twice, Take Over Lead in National

By the Associated Press

The Pittsburgh Pirates smashed into first place in the National league Thursday by taking a doubleheader from the Chicago Cubs, 5-2 and 6-5, while the New York Giants dropped another decision to Brooklyn. The wins gave the Pirates a half-game margin over the Dodgers, with New York dropping to third place a full game off the pace.

Max Butcher tossed a six-hitter to win the first game after the Pirates had blasted Bob Chipman out in the first. Rip Sewell copped the second, although he had to have help from Guy Rescigno in the seventh.

The Giants' loss at Brooklyn was their sixth in a row and the fifth for Bill Voiselle. Mel Ott's men held a 4-3 advantage going into the last of the ninth, but Brooklyn rallied for two runs. Only once before during the season when Chicago took over for 24 hours have the Giants been out of the lead.

The only other game scheduled in the league saw the Phillies rattle 13 hits and as many runs to blast the Boston Braves, 13-8. Vince DiMaggio hit two homers and Jimmy Wadell one for the winners.

Pennant Hopes Soar With Return of Vet

NEW YORK, June 14.—(AP)—Detroit's pennant hopes zoomed today as Capt. Henry (Hank) Greenberg received his honorable discharge from the army and announced his future plans "including playing baseball for the Tigers."

The slugging first baseman-outfielder who commanded a reported $55,000 salary when he went into service was mustered out at Fort Dix, NJ, under the army's demobilization program after almost four years service. He returned to his New York home last.

Last July 9 when Detroit was buried in seventh place, Dick Wakefield was returned from a navy pre-flight school and sparked the club into the pennant fight, losing out on the last day to the St. Louis Browns.

Record Crowd Views Rodeo

MONMOUTH—More than 2000 people packed the grandstand here at the fairgrounds Sunday for the rodeo. The assemblage was probably the largest ever to attend an entertainment feature here.

The grand entry parade, led by W. Ray Adams, sponsor and director of the show, was a dazzling display of handsome horses and equipment. Featured was the Oregon mounted posse of Salem of which Adams is a member. Present also were the Sheridan Riders, the Williams Saddle club and the Albany Wranglers. At the extreme end of the parade rode little Mary Ann and Tommy Slack of Dallas on their tiny midget Shetlands.

The balance of the card will be announced later.

Tough guy Antone "Ape" Leone, who mixes mayhem with his muscling in Matchmaker Elton Owen's Tuesday rascal' riots, gets another shot at Rugged Paavo Katonen, the Finnish gent who's just about as capable as they come in the lightheavy fights. Owen announced yesterday he had awarded a return session with Katonen to Leone for his win over Walt "Thy Sneeze" Achiu here last Tuesday.

The matchmaker pondered a Leone-Achiu rematch since the first meeting was such a hot mix, but it outwitted it with the present set-up. Katonen defeated Leone two weeks ago in a disputable session in which the referee fouled out the Apeish gent in the third and deciding fall. And since Junior heavy champ Georges Dusette won't take on the winner until a more decisive win is scored, the matchmaker had little else to do but sign both Antone and the lefthanded Finn.

The balance of the card will be announced later.

Record Crowd Views Rodeo

MONMOUTH—More than 2000 people packed the grandstand here at the fairgrounds Sunday for the rodeo. The assemblage was probably the largest ever to attend an entertainment feature here.

The grand entry parade, led by W. Ray Adams, sponsor and director of the show, was a dazzling display of handsome horses and equipment. Featured was the Oregon mounted posse of Salem of which Adams is a member. Present also were the Sheridan Riders, the Williams Saddle club and the Albany Wranglers. At the extreme end of the parade rode little Mary Ann and Tommy Slack of Dallas on their tiny midget Shetlands.

The balance of the card will be announced later.

Leone-Katonen Mat Brawl Set

Tough guy Antone "Ape" Leone, who mixes mayhem with his muscling in Matchmaker Elton Owen's Tuesday rascal' riots, gets another shot at Rugged Paavo Katonen, the Finnish gent who's just about as capable as they come in the lightheavy fights. Owen announced yesterday he had awarded a return session with Katonen to Leone for his win over Walt "Thy Sneeze" Achiu here last Tuesday.

The matchmaker pondered a Leone-Achiu rematch since the first meeting was such a hot mix, but it outwitted it with the present set-up. Katonen defeated Leone two weeks ago in a disputable session in which the referee fouled out the Apeish gent in the third and deciding fall. And since Junior heavy champ Georges Dusette won't take on the winner until a more decisive win is scored, the matchmaker had little else to do but sign both Antone and the lefthanded Finn.

The balance of the card will be announced later.
