

Spring Show Of Flowers Well Attended

Lebanon Garden Club
Displays Blooms to
Many Enthusiasts

LEBANON — The Garden club held the annual spring flower show Saturday in the IOOF hall with all flower growers except professionals invited to exhibit. Judging was done by vote of visitors. Ninety-two ballots were cast though more came to see the flowers.

Awards were as follows: white roses, Mrs. Don Strode, Mrs. J. Pierce and Mrs. T. J. Vogel. Red roses, Fred Van Loh, Mrs. Charles Anderson and Mrs. Strode. Pink roses, Mr. Van Loh and Mrs. Anderson, first; Mrs. Floyd Connett and Mrs. Claude Cox, second; Mrs. John Summers, third. Yellow roses, Mrs. O. M. Stevenson, Mrs. Strode and Mrs. Viola Fallner. Salmon and orange roses, George Cheese, Frances Rice, first; Fred Van Loh and John Taber. Two tones or multicolored roses, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. John Summers with Mrs. Olive Birch and Mrs. Carlton Mary. Single roses, all three prizes went to Mrs. Mary. Climbing roses, Mr. Van Loh, first; Mrs. Mary, second and third. Bearded iris, Mrs. E. R. Liggett, first; Mrs. Thomas Dillard, second. Beardless iris, Mrs. Dillard, Mrs. Liggett and Mrs. Iva Cruson. Horticultural exhibits not in arrangement class, delphinium, three or more stalks, Mrs. Liggett, Mrs. Vogel and Mrs. Lanstrom. Flowering shrubs, Mrs. Dillard won the only award. Any well grown flower, Mrs. Dillard, Mrs. Cruson and Mrs. Liggett. Large displays suitable for church or hall, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Dillard and Mrs. Liggett. Corsages, Judith Gunderson, Juanita Gunderson and Doris Gunderson. Dish gardens, Karen Gunderson and Jim Gunderson. Arrangement with line dominant, Mrs. Oliver Gunderson. Arrangement with color dominant, Mrs. Dillard, Mrs. Mary and Juanita Gunderson.

The Lebanon Garden club was invited to assist with the displays at the flower show to be held in Brownsville during the 58th annual pioneer picnic and reunion, June 14-16. After considerable discussion the Lebanon club voted not to take any entries to Brownsville because of the shortage of gas. Nor will members of the Lebanon club attend the Brownsville show in a group.
