

Visitors Are Welcomed In Capital

Summertime is always the occasion for the welcoming of many visitors in the capital.

Here for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roseborough are her nephew and family, Lt. and Mrs. John Fellows Coffey and young son, John, of Portland. Mrs. Coffey is the former Elizabeth Warner of Churchland, West Virginia. Lt. Coffey has been with the marine corps in the south Pacific since before Pearl Harbor. He is also a nephew of Major Robert Coffey of Salem.

Summer visitors of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Laws at their Morningside home are Mrs. A. S. Roberts, her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Binford, and sons, John and Joe of Independence, Kansas. Captain Binford is now in Italy. Mrs. Roberts, who for many years has made her home in Texas, has often visited at the Laws home. The visitors plan to spend the summer here.

Arrive From East
Expected to arrive in the capital today is Mrs. Hugh William McElhinny (Marjorie Hill), who has been in Fayetteville, North Carolina with Corporal McElhinny. He expects to join his wife here next month. Mrs. McElhinny will be at the home of her mother and her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. McElhinny.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sprague and 18 months old daughter, Kathryn, were visitors in the capital this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sprague. The Spragues resided in Salem before he entered the army transport service. Mrs. Sprague went south to Los Angeles in May to meet her husband, who returned from active duty. They spent a week in Long Beach and Los Angeles before coming north to visit their families in Portland and Seattle. Mr. Sprague left by plane Wednesday for Los Angeles. Mrs. Sprague and their daughter will go on to Seattle, where they make their home.

Former Residents Here
Mrs. O. D. Adams and daughter, Nancy, of Bremerton, formerly of Salem, are the house guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson, sr. Commander Adams is stationed in Bremerton with the navy. Mrs. Jack Lampton (Mary Jane Adams), eldest daughter of Commander and Mrs. Adams, accompanied her mother and sister to Salem. She is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeArmond. Mrs. Lampton is enroute Friday for her home in Los Angeles. Her army sergeant husband, who has been in Europe, is expected home this summer. Mrs. Lampton has been in Bremerton visiting her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Arens have had as their guests for several days, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bentley and Miss Barbara Bentley of Tule Lake, Calif. The Bentleys came north for the graduation of their daughter from the University of Oregon last Sunday. Miss Bentley plans to return to Salem in the fall, as she has accepted a teaching position at Parrish junior high school.

Gamma Phi Betas Sell Bonds

Gamma Phi Betas alumnae and active members all over the United States are participating in their third national war loan campaign this month. During the seventh war loan drive the Gamma Phi is working for a three million dollar hospital ship. In the other two drives the Gamma Phi Betas have sold enough bonds to purchase hospital planes and raised four million dollars for rehabilitation hospital work.

A state-wide campaign is being carried on in Oregon with the Portland and Salem alumnae and the two active chapters at the University of Oregon and Oregon State college taking part. Mrs. Carlos Close of Portland is chairman for the state of Oregon and Mrs. C. C. Higgins is chairman for the Salem Gamma Phi Beta alumnae.
