

Betrothal of Miss Luella Nichols

The engagement of Miss Luella Nichols, daughter of Mrs. Cass A. Nichols, to Mr. Donald Gene Wilson, son of Mrs. Harvey O. Wilson of Santa Barbara, Calif., and Mr. Wilfred Wilson of Bremerton, was revealed at a smartly arranged buffet supper Tuesday night at the country home of the bride-elect's mother. No date has been set for the wedding.

The buffet table was centered with an arrangement of pastel garden flowers. Dinner was served in the garden. Records were played during the evening and one, in the form of a letter to the groom-to-be, told of the couple's engagement.

Bidden to the announcement party were Miss Wanda Ringland, Miss Betty Hill, Miss Marcella Wolfe, Miss Betty Lou Kayser, Miss Lillian Kayser, Miss Pauline Riensche, Miss Goldie Hagil, Miss Marilyn and Miss Coralee Nibhols, Miss Joyce Armstrong, Mrs. Henry Kayser, Mrs. F. Ringland, Mrs. Edwin Armstrong, Mrs. J. A. Hain, and Mrs. Cass A. Nichols.

Miss Nichols and her fiancé graduated from Salem high school in May. She is now employed at Bonesteele Sales and Service Inc. Mr. Wilson left for the army last week.

Miss Nichols just returned from a two weeks trip to California where she visited her fiancé's mother in Santa Barbara, and with her uncle and aunt, Commander and Mrs. Madison Nichols, in Alameda. Miss Nichols also visited in Hollywood and Los Angeles.

Miss Smith Takes Office

Rev. Dudley Strain, pastor of the First Christian church, president of the Ministerial association was the speaker at the regular monthly dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club at the Golden Pheasant Tuesday night. For his topic Mr. Strain chose "An Option on Tomorrow." He emphasized the fact that we as individuals have little importance except when allied to an ideal in sufficient numbers we become all-powerful. With this idea in mind he went on to say that plans for world peace are practical and workable if we cling to the central theme and do not allow ourselves to be swayed from our purpose by small pressure groups, intolerances or prejudices.

Mr. Strain's topic was particularly well chosen since it was applicable not only to world peace plans but to BPW's own club plans for the coming year. New officers were installed at an impressive candlelight ceremony in which each incoming officer lit her candle from "the club flame" and recognized her obligation to work for the unity and harmony of the group. Miss Ida Mae Smith, newly installed president of the club, assured Mr. Strain, that the group is anxious to secure the ideal of world peace in the option on post-war tomorrow.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Carmalite Weddle, first vice-president; Mrs. Marlon Wooden, second vice-president; Miss Mildred Yetter, recording secretary; Miss Martha Fischer, corresponding secretary; Miss Cecilia Woodruff, treasurer, Mrs. Anna Morgan and Miss Elda Dodrill, directors.

Music was furnished by Donna Jane MacKlin and her violin accompanied by Frances Baum. Both were dinner guests of the club. Other dinner guests were Rev. and Mrs. Dudley Strain and Mrs. Dorothy Taylor.

Three new members were admitted, Mrs. Helen Richards, Mrs. Erna Horn Bywater and Mrs. Mabel Hayes.

The business meeting included reports of retiring officers and recommendations for the future conduct.

Society . . . Clubs Music . . . The Home

Maxine Buren Women's Editor

Jerome English Society Editor

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Weir pictured after their marriage on Sunday, June 24 at the Court Street Christian church. The bride is the former Verda Olmsted, daughter of Mrs. James N. Olmsted. After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Salem. (Jøsten-Miller).

Wedding at Harvard Chapel

The wedding of Miss Marjorie Watkins, daughter of Mrs. John Wagner of Route 2 and Mr. W. P. Watkins, Portland, and Ensign Thayne W. Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Martin Cole, Tacoma, was solemnized in Cambridge, Mass., on May 19. The ceremony was read by the navy chaplain in the chapel on the Harvard campus.

The bride wore a princess style street length dress of white, and a corsage of white orchids. Mrs. and Miss Sheldon Coon attended the couple. Mrs. Coon wore a blue and white dress, and a gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Wagner, who went east for her daughter's marriage, and navy friends of the groom, were the only ones present at the ceremony.

The bride attended Salem high school and graduated from Laurelwood academy. She was employed at the state highway department before going east for her wedding.

The groom attended Walla Walla college and Gonzaga, graduated from Cornell university and is now attending Harvard university. He is in radio work with the navy.

Mrs. and Mr. Cole will live in Cambridge until he is reassigned.

Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, daughters, Sally and Margie, and Mrs. H. H. Brooks are spending several days at Neakowin.

Couple Will Be Honored At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston will be hosts at dinner tonight at their home on the North River Road in compliment to their daughter, Miss Jane Huston, and her fiancé, Mr. Maurice Craig Fitzsimmons, United States coast guard. The affair will precede the wedding rehearsal. The marriage of the couple will be an event of Friday night at 8 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church.

An arrangement of pastel summer flowers will provide the decorative note on the dinner table.

Covers will be placed for Miss Huston, Mr. Fitzsimmons, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Challoner, Joan and Russell, and Mrs. W. L. Challoner, all of Victoria, B. C., Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fitzsimmons, Miss Patricia Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Eric Fitzsimmons, Miss Mary Elizabeth Kells, Miss Shirley Rabeneau, Miss Virginia Covert, Mr. Robert Dallas, United States army, Lt. Roy Burns, army air corps, the Misses Anne, Harriet and Virginia Huston and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY ON PAGE 9

Miss Stupfel Weds in Texas

Miss Carole Stupfel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Stupfel of Salem, became the bride of Sergeant Harold Fullwood, son of Mrs. Maude Fullwood of Oregon, Calif., on May 29 at the post chapel at Camp Howze, Texas. Father E. Clark, post chaplain, performed the double ring ceremony at 7:15 o'clock.

Mrs. Claude H. Murphy is spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Cecil Crafts, in Portland. Mrs. Crafts, the former Doris Murphy, received a telephone call Sunday from her husband, Lt. Crafts, that he has arrived in the states after two years in the India-Burma theatre.

The bride is a graduate of Winlock, Wash., high school. The groom is a graduate of Salem high school and is a torpedoman second class. He recently returned home after 20 months on a destroyer in the south Pacific.

Following a honeymoon at the beaches, the couple will live in San Diego while Mr. Roseman is taking a special training course in advanced torpedo school.

Miss Carns Married to Salem Man

The marriage of Miss Shirley Carnes of Chehalis, Wash., and Mr. Edward Roseman, US navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Roseman of Route 1, Salem, was solemnized in Chehalis. The double ring ceremony was performed Saturday night, June 23, at the parsonage of the First Christian church.

The bride was given in marriage by Colonel E. Dawley, who was commander of the groom's battalion with the 41st division. For her wedding the bride chose a watermelon red suit with brown accessories and a corsage of sweetpeas. She wore a cross and chain which belonged to her grandmother and carried her mother's white prayer book.

Miss Irene Stupfel, who accompanied her sister south, was the maid of honor. She wore a brown suit with gold accessories and a sweet pea corsage. Mr. Paul Wohlbruck was best man. Twelve soldiers made up the honor guard for the couple to walk under as they left the chapel. A wedding reception from 9 to 12 o'clock was held at the home of Pfc and Mrs. Stonewall McGuire in honor of the newlyweds. The couple spent several weeks in Texas before he received his discharge under the point system.

Miss Stupfel Weds in Texas

Mr. and Mrs. Fullwood are now in Salem at the home of her parents. He has accepted a position with the Dairy Cooperative association. Mr. Fullwood was with the 41st division in the South Pacific for 34 months, returning to the states last winter.

This will be the last social meeting of the year for the group. After the dinner hour bridge and croquet will be in play. Those wishing transportation are asked to call Mrs. Howard Conkle, 7044.

Miss Maria Dare is chairman of the affair. Assisting are Miss Emelyn Fraser, Mrs. Wendell Ewing, Mrs. Charles Isom, Mrs. Daniel Olin and Mrs. Howard Conkle.

Grundens Here From East

Private and Mrs. Daryl Grundens are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mathis on the Portland Road. The young couple have just returned from a stay of eight months at Scott Field, Illinois. Private Grundens has completed AAF courses in the radio operator mechanic and the army airways communication system radio schools.

Mrs. Grundens has been employed as a stenographer by the civilian personnel division at the army air base at Scott Field.

S-T-R-E-T-C-H-I

S-T-R-E-T-C-H-I your supply of this home-grown sugar as far as possible. It's a materiel of war. Don't waste it.

SPRECKEL'S SUGAR

NEW!

Wedding at Harvard Chapel

The wedding of Miss Marjorie Watkins, daughter of Mrs. John Wagner of Route 2 and Mr. W. P. Watkins, Portland, and Ensign Thayne W. Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Martin Cole, Tacoma, was solemnized in Cambridge, Mass., on May 19. The ceremony was read by the navy chaplain in the chapel on the Harvard campus.

The bride wore a princess style street length dress of white, and a corsage of white orchids. Mrs. and Miss Sheldon Coon attended the couple. Mrs. Coon wore a blue and white dress, and a gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Wagner, who went east for her daughter's marriage, and navy friends of the groom, were the only ones present at the ceremony.

The bride attended Salem high school and graduated from Laurelwood academy. She was employed at the state highway department before going east for her wedding.

The groom attended Walla Walla college and Gonzaga, graduated from Cornell university and is now attending Harvard university. He is in radio work with the navy.

Mrs. and Mr. Cole will live in Cambridge until he is reassigned.

Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, daughters, Sally and Margie, and Mrs. H. H. Brooks are spending several days at Neakowin.

Mrs. DePew Club Hostess Tuesday

Mrs. William DePew entertained members of her club at a dessert supper followed by several hours of contract bridge Tuesday night. Special guests were Mrs. Ridgely Miller and Mrs. Emmett Kleinke. Members are Mrs. Ralph Mapes, Mrs. A. C. Newell, Mrs. Irving DeFranco, Mrs. George Kelley, Mrs. Kenneth McLeod, Mrs. Donald Ream, Miss Anna Peters and Mrs. DePew.

Ration-Free Play Shoes

Plymodes
Beige, Red or Tan $3.45

Flirts
White, Tan or Brown $3.98

Children's Sandals
Or Ties $2.98

Arbuckle-King
Buster Brown Shoe Store

at Sally's

Junior Fashion Parade

"Junior Miss" fashions have always been a favorite subject with us. We think that's the reason why juniors, teen-agers and their sisters of all ages make this store their very first stop for clothes that are right . . . that are practical . . . and of which mother too, can rightly approve.

Sally's SALEM

to bring out the best in every salad

Heinz Vinegar

mellowed in wood sparkling clear
delightfully aromatic
uniform in strength

57

so full-flavored a little goes a long way