"THE YOUNG IDEA" By Mossler

"They say she can't even carry on an intelligent conversation!"

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Brumfield of Carson City, Nevada, formerly of Salem, are visiting in the capital a few days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooley. Mr. Brumfield formerly was with the state vocational education department here. The Brumfields are in Corvallis for the summer to attend the summer session at Oregon State college.

Dorothy Berning Is Married

MT. ANGEL — Miss Dorothy M. Berning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Berning, and Mr. George A. Bernards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bernards of St. Paul, plighted their troth at a beautiful wedding at St. Mary's Catholic church at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday. Rev. Albert Bauman, O.S.B., cousin of the bride, officiated at the nuptial high mass and received the vows. St. Mary's choir sang the mass and the Ave Maria at the offertory and Bernard Smith sang "Mary, At Thy Feet I'm Kneeling" before the services. Miss Helen Keber played the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in gown fashioned with satin waist with lace yoke and skirt of marquisette over net that terminated in a long train. She wore a fingertip tulle veil and a crown of orange blossoms and carried a white prayerbook with white orchids and satin streamers.

The bridesmaid, Miss Dorothy Bernards, sister of the bride, wore identical floor length dresses of white net with short puff sleeves and brief veils. They carried nosegays of carnations and sweetpeas.

Mr. Clarence Bernards was best man for his brother and Mr. Donald Davidson and Mrs. Robert Bernards served as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece navy blue and white dress and Mrs. Bernards also wore navy. Each wore a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Immediately after the ceremony, breakfast for the bridal party was served at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Talwin Berning at Monticello.

The wedding dinner for sixty-five guests was held at the Mt. Angel hotel. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked on either side by lighted tapers and bouquets of roses. Assisting at the tables were Miss Myra Kaiser, Miss Annela Bauman and Miss Cecelia Zollner, all cousins of the bride.

Father Albert was toastmaster and Miss Bauman and Miss Zollner sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "Always," accompanied by Miss Helen Keber at the piano.

A reception was held at the country home of the bride's parents during the afternoon. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Frances Hanning, Miss Jeanne Ertel and Miss Margaret Traeger.

A wedding dance followed in the evening, held at the St. Paul hall. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard will go to Vancouver, B.C., on their wedding trip. For going away the bride chose a brown pin stripe suit with blue accessories and white orchid corsage. They will make their home in St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Norval Edwards and son, Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Ridgley Miller and twin daughters, Kathy and Kristy, and Mrs. Ray Landon are spending several days at Nelscott at the Edwards beach house.

Younger Set Entertained Honors Smith Of Mill City

Sharon Hamilton and Barbara Johnson will be hostesses for a formal coke party in compliment to a group of their friends Friday night at the Ralph Hamilton home on Fairmount Hill.

Guests have been invited to call at 7:30 o'clock. The evening hours will be spent informally. The guest rooms will be decorated with bouquets of summer flowers.

Attending the party will be the Misses Betty Merie Rhoten, Mary Louise Lee, Alice Louise Ohling, Marjorie Rider, Sharon Hamilton and Barbara Johnson, Walter Jones, Rodney Boals, Dale Hagedorn, Bob Just, Kenneth Gibson and Joe Mapes.

From Portland comes word of the birth of a daughter, Sarah Jean, to Lt. and Mrs. Ralph Nohlgren, on Wednesday afternoon, June 27. The little girl has an older brother, Douglas. Mrs. Nohlgren is the former Jean Hollingworth. The baby's grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. Carl Hollingworth of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nohlgren of Salem. Lt. Nohlgren is now with the navy at Pellieu in the South Pacific.

Miss Nancy Wallace, who has been attending a house party on Whidby Island with a group of her Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters the past week, will arrive in Salem today to spend the summer months at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace. Miss Wallace has completed her freshman year at the University of Washington.

Miss Ola Clark, regent, Mrs. W. E. Hanson and Mrs. David Wright will be in Portland Friday to attend the state DAR board meeting at the Multnomah hotel. Mrs. B. B. Lowery, state regent, will preside.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Silke (Dorothy Leeper) are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter Wednesday, June 27 at the Salem General hospital. The little girl has an older brother, Gerry.

Ration Board Honors Smith Of Mill City

MILL CITY—Frank Smith, superintendent of schools, was awarded a personal bar decoration by the ration and price board last Monday. The award was given for "from one to three years in patriotic and efficient service." Harry J. Rowe, chairman of the Statyon board, made the awards. Smith is a member of the board. Mrs. Robert Davis and baby son of Washington are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Davis. Mrs. Al Ward and two children have returned after visiting her mother, Mrs. George Schwab, in Portland.
