Officials to Fight Western Plant Pests

Several resolutions of interest to Oregon horticulturalists were passed at the recent meeting of the western plant board in Boise, Idaho, according to Frank McKennon, chief of the division of plant industry of the state department of agriculture.

McKennon was elected chairman of the board for the new year. Other officers are George Knight of Montana, vice-chairman; George Schweiss, Nevada, secretary-treasurer; and Herbert Gates, Colorado, retiring president, representative on the national plant board. Members are the 11 western states, Mexico, British Columbia and Hawaii.

Two resolutions urged continuation of the cooperative suppressive program against pear psylla as the best known method to delay spread of this insect to important pear-growing areas and continuation of the present surveys to determine distribution of the oriental fruit moth. Both projects are being carried on by the federal bureau of entomology and plant quarantine in cooperation with the various states.

Another resolution favored initiation of a $250,000 program by the federal department of agriculture to acquire information and knowledge of newly introduced and of potential insect and plant disease pests of limited distribution. A fourth asked the postmaster general to continue the rejection of plant materials offered for mailing in violation of interstate plant quarantines.

Wheat, Rye, Most Grains Close Higher

CHICAGO, June 29—(AP)—Wheat and rye rallied more than a cent a bushel during the final hour of futures trading today and most other markets finished on the up side.

Price trends changed frequently during the session and analysts attributed the late upturn to the strength of wheat which was supported by purchases of flour millers.

Quotations dipped sharply before noon when the buying paused and sentiment was affected by the lower stock market. The break uncovered resting orders and during the late trade little grain was for sale.

Hedge selling was apparent in the wheat market but it was more than offset by milling purchases, made to lift hedges following flour sales.

At the finish wheat was 1/2 to 1 1/2 higher than yesterday's close, July 1.66 1/2. Corn was unchanged to 1/4 higher, December 1.17 1/2. Oats were up 3/4 to 1, July 66 1/2-67. Rye was 3/4 to 1 1/2 higher, July 1.53 1/2-1.54. Barley was unchanged to down 1/4, July 1.12 1/2.

90-Day Halt In Rationing Lambs Is Asked

PORTLAND, June 29—(AP)—Oregon's senators have appealed to the OPA and the war food administration for a 90-day suspension of lamb rationing in the state, the Oregon Journal said today.

The move is backed by stockmen, who warned that only a 60- to 90-day point-free period on lambs will prevent catastrophe in the slaughtering season.

R. A. Ward, vice-president and general manager of Pacific Wool Growers, said regional adjustment of slaughter quotas would not help the marketing situation.

Allowing lamb to go to northwest markets point-free will permit shipping of beef grown here to other regions of the country, Ward said. Washington, Oregon and northern California "soft" lamb cannot be shipped great distances after slaughtering.

The Associated Press 60-stock average was off .6 of a point at 66 and had wiped out virtually all of its advance of the preceding two weeks.

OPA Declares 'Tie-in' Sales Are Not Legal

Requiring a customer to buy a couple of pairs of "foot protectors" before she can purchase a pair of hose is another type of "tie-in" sale reported to the district OPA price division which is definitely illegal, Hosea R. Evans, price executive, announced today in Portland.

Evans said that this type of transaction has been reportedly occurring in several Oregon towns in the wake of acute shortage of hosiery. Customers should report this type of sale to the price panels of their local boards, he said.
