

Mrs. Maurice Craig Fitzsimmons, the former Jane Oliver Huston, pictured with the attendants at her marriage on Friday night at the First Presbyterian church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bruce Huston and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fitzsimmons. From left to right are Miss Patricia Fitzsimmons, the groom's sister, Miss Anne Huston, the honor attendant, the bride, Miss Harriet and Miss Virginia Huston, bridesmaids. The couple will reside in Longview, Wash., where he is stationed with the coast guard. (Jesten-Miller).

Celebrating their silver wedding anniversary on June 24 were, left to right, Colonel and Mrs. Elmer Vance Wooton and Mr. and Mrs. Beldon Earl Owens. The couples were hosts at an open house at the Wooton residence with several hundred calling during the afternoon and evening. (Jesten-Miller).

Wedding Plans Are Told . . .

July brides-elect are announcing plans for their weddings. Miss Gretchen Thielsen and Mr. Kenneth E. Baird of Seattle, first officer in the army transport service, will be married on Thursday, July 5 in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church. Rev. George H. Swift will perform the 2 o'clock ceremony.

The bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. William Thielsen, will be given in marriage by her father. The couple will be unattended. After the ceremony the couple will greet guests in the foyer of the chapel. A reception for the immediate family will be held at the Thielsen's suburban home.

Steinke-Harrington

Miss Doris Harrington and Lt. Raymond M. Steinke have chosen Sunday, July 8 for their wedding. The ceremony will take place at St. Paul's Episcopal church with Rev. George H. Swift officiating at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. William Bush will sing and Miss Ruth Bedford will be the organist.

Mr. John Hendrickson, family friend, will give the bride in marriage. She has asked her future sister-in-law, Mrs. Clayton Steinke, to be her matron of honor. A reception will be held in the parish house.

Lt. Steinke, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Steinke, returned from Germany on June 10 where he had been a prisoner of war.

Bogardus-Maurer

St. Paul's Episcopal chapel will be the setting for another wedding on July 12 when Miss Patty Jean Maurer, daughter of the George Maurers, becomes the bride of Master Sergeant Hubert Earl Bogardus, son of Mrs. Hubert E. Bogardus of Grand Island, Neb. Rev. Swift will read the 8 o'clock service.

Miss Donna Unruh will sing and Miss Gladys Edgar will be the organist. The bride-to-be has asked Miss Anita Jarman to be her maid of honor. Her brother, Staff Sergeant Warren E. Maurer of Walla Walla, will be best man. The wedding reception will be held at the Maurer home.

Travellers

Mrs. C. S. Hamilton is expected to return to the capital on July 16 following a winter's stay in Scarsdale, N.Y., where she has been with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hamilton.

Miss L. A. DeBeck, who is now residing at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley, is leaving Monday for Vancouver, B.C., to visit her sister, Mrs. George McCrossan, and with her brother's family, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. DeBeck, in Victoria. She will be away a month.

Mrs. Samuel Harbison and daughter, Joan Grey, are entraining Monday for San Francisco, Burbank and Los Angeles, where they will visit relatives and friends for three weeks.

Mrs. William A. Skewis and year old twin daughters, Nancy Mae and Mina Rae, have left for Hueneme, Calif., to be with Mr. Skewis, chief petty officer with the Seabees. From California the travelers will go on to Lewistown, Montana, to visit her parents, before returning to Salem.

WOMEN'S

Society * Clubs * Music

The Oregon Statesman

SECTION

At the Beach . . .

Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee and daughter, Anne, Mrs. Margaret Callahan and children, Helen and Dan, and Bill Heinlein have returned from a stay at the Woodmansee beach house at Neskowin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Claggett and daughter, Patty, are leaving today to spend two weeks at Nelscott. They will be joined over the Fourth of July holiday by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Woody and son, Jimmy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crawford and children, Stanley, Stephen and Tommy, are leaving today for Pacific City to spend July and August at their beach house. Mrs. Alan Siewert and daughter, Carolyn, are already over at the Crawford house and will remain for another week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Needham have taken a house at Neskowin for the ensuing six weeks. Their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Needham and daughter, Beth, will join for the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin F. Smith are going to Road's End today to spend a week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shubert at their summer place.

Lt. and Mrs. William B. Crary (Miriam Jensen) photographed as they left Holt Trinity chapel at West Point following their marriage on June 6. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luhr Jensen of Hood River and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Burton Crary of Salem. Directly behind the groom is his brother, Captain Nathan Morrell Crary now stationed in Dayton, Ohio, who was best man. Crossing the swords are two of the groom's classmates, Lt. Joe Mac Cadden and Lt. Robert Ridenur. The couple came west on their honeymoon. They left Friday for his new station at Fort Benning, Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gibson (Virginia Glover) on the steps of St. Paul's Episcopal church after their marriage on Sunday, June 24. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glover and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Gibson. The couple will leave this week for Omaha, Nebraska, where he is attending Creighton university medical school. (Kennell-Elise).

Air Cadet and Mrs. Franklin Fredericks (Betty Burroughs) snapped at the reception which followed their wedding on Sunday, June 24 at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Ira J. Fitts. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Della Burroughs. The newlyweds will leave in mid-July for Hunter field, Savannah, Georgia, where he is stationed. (Jesten-Miller).