Today's Menu

Actually we haven't tried today's featured dish, but frankly we think it sounds good. The dessert takes no sugar, and utilizes dark corn syrup, which is more available than the light.

Spiced beefs
Tomatoes stuffed with Crabmeat
Buttered corn
Potatoes with chives
Honey cake

COFFEE HONEY CAKE
1/4 cup shortening
1/2 cup honey
1/2 cup dark corn syrup
1 egg
1/2 cup coffee
2 cups sifted all purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon ginger
1/2 teaspoon allspice

Cream shortening, honey and corn syrup together. Add egg and beat well. Stir in coffee, salt, and spices and add all at once to first mixture. Beat about two minutes until batter is smooth. Pour into greased pan 6x10 or 8x8 and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 40 to 45 minutes. Cool and cover with:

JELLY FROSTING
1/4 cup jelly
Dash of allspice
Dash of salt
1 egg white, unbeaten

Measure all ingredients into top of double boiler and set over boiling water. Beat with rotary beater until jelly is free of lumps. Remove from hot water and continue beating until mixture is stiff enough to stand in peaks. Add drop of red coloring, if necessary for color. Frost cake. Serve with a fork, because this frosting never becomes entirely hard.

Miss Gladys Edgar was the accompanist and played the wedding marches. Rev. George H. Swift performed the rites at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Maurer escorted his attractive daughter down the aisle and gave her in marriage. For her wedding she chose a becoming white dressmaker suit with a white half hat trimmed in veiling. Her accessories were also white. She carried a white prayer book marked with a white orchid.

Reception Follows
For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Maurer selected a pastel blue silk frock with navy accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. L. E. Poe, who arrived several weeks ago from Omaha, Nebraska, for her granddaughter's wedding, wore a navy blue dress and gardenias. Mrs. Bogardus chose a grey suit with grey accessories for her son's marriage. Her flowers were gardenias.

The newlyweds received their guests at a reception at the country home of her parents immediately after the service. The bride's table was centered with a bouquet of chiffon daisies flanked by white candles in silver holders. Mrs. M. B. Senger presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. H. E. Maurer served the punch. Mrs. Harry Wiedmer cut the bride's cake.

Discontinuance of Short Over-Night Pullman Service Affects...

But It Means More Sleeping Cars for Veterans

Operation of over-night sleeping cars from Portland to southern Oregon points and to Coos Bay points will be discontinued with the last trip from Portland, Friday, July 13th and from destination points, Saturday, July 14th, by order No. 52 of the United States Office of Defense Transportation.

The new regulations eliminate all Pullman sleeping cars operating for distances of 450 miles or less.

The reason for this order is that additional sleeping cars must be obtained to provide accommodations for the returning veterans from Europe, who are reaching Atlantic ports in large numbers. These veterans are coming home for discharge, or for furlough before going on to fight again in the Pacific. They deserve the most comfortable transportation service we can give them.

No new sleeping cars have been built since Pearl Harbor. Over half of the sleeping cars have been in exclusive use by the military. But they were not enough for this new task. The O. D. T. order resulted.

While discontinuance of short distance sleeping car operations will cause inconveniences to many people, we feel sure that the citizens of Oregon will approve this effort to better serve the men from overseas to whom we owe so much. We know the families of these Oregon boys who are coming home will have no question as to the merit of this new regulation.

As far as Southern Pacific is concerned, our guiding principle has been "the military comes first," and we are cooperating 100 per cent in carrying out the provisions of the above O. D. T. order. With nearly 20,000 Southern Pacific men and women in the armed forces, we, too, have a real and personal interest in the welfare and comfort of service men and women.

So you may know how this order applies to Southern Pacific service generally, we show below the Pullman sleeping car service on our lines which will be discontinued after the last trip, from Portland, July 13th, and from destination points July 14th. Coach service will still be available between these points.
