Summer Travelers . . .

By Jermye English
Statesman Society Editor

Summer travelers take the social spotlight these days. Miss Elsie Schroeder and Miss Grace Bottler left Saturday morning for a fortnight's trip to Alaska. After a stop in Seattle they will go on to Victoria, B.C. where they will take the Princess Elizabeth to Skagway. From there they go by train up the White Pass to White Horse. They plan to return to Victoria the same route. Accompanying Miss Schroeder and Miss Bottler to Victoria will be Miss Jean Spaulding and Miss Loretta Matthis. They will visit in British Columbia a few days before returning to Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Lightner and daughter, Callie Jean, are leaving Monday for a two weeks stay in British Columbia and other Canadian points.

Mrs. Everett O. Terrell and sons, Keith, Jimmy and Bobby, returned to Salem Friday morning from a six weeks stay in Billings, Montana. They were guests of Mrs. Terrell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kitchli, and her husband's family, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Terrell.

Mrs. Ralph A. Glover is entraining Tuesday night for San Francisco where she will be the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Colonel and Mrs. William H. Hammond, and their daughter, Constance, at the Presidio. She expects to be gone a month.

Southward Bound

Mrs. Russell Beardsley (Betty Wirth) left Wednesday for Monterey, to join Lt. Beardsley, who is stationed at Fort Ord. After a stay in the south Mrs. Beardsley expects to return to Salem to be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wirth.

Mrs. Roy S. Keene left Saturday for her home in San Francisco after a several weeks stay in the capital. Her daughters, Madeleine and Geraldine, will remain in Salem for the summer. Mrs. Keene expects to return in the fall when her daughters enter school.

Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee, Mrs. Abner K. Kilne and Mrs. Vi Shaffer returned to the capital Thursday night from San Francisco where they enjoyed a ten day stay. Mrs. Woodmansee visited her sister, Mrs. K. A. Anderson there.

Mrs. Zane Russell (Shirley Sohr) arrived in Salem this week from Monterey, where she has been with her husband, before he left for overseas duty with the army. He has been stationed at Fort Ord. Mrs. Russell and daughter, Elaine, will live in Salem with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sohr.

Sojourn at the Beach . . .

The Oregon beaches and mountains are attracting many vacationists this summer.

Mrs. Robert Barnett and son, Robert, and Mrs. James Henry and daughter, Shelia, are leaving today for a two weeks sojourn at Taft.

Mrs. C. E. Young and son, Ross, are leaving today for Pacific City to spend a week as guests of Mrs. Lee Crawford and her children, who are there for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Needham and daughter, Beth, are leaving for Neskowin today to spend a fortnight. Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Needham, who have been there for the past two weeks, will return to Salem while their son and family are there. They plan to return to Neskowin in August.

Going to Nelscott today will be Mrs. Glenn Woodry and son, Jimmy, and Mrs. Robert Ramsden and children, Gary and Carol, who will be at the Nelscott apartments for several weeks. Their husbands will join them weekends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harland and daughters, Marilyn and Carol, plan to leave today for their summer home on the Melolius river for a two weeks' stay. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harland, who have already been there for several weeks, will remain for the month.

IN THE SWIM—are Dorothy Bergsvik, Madeleine Keene and Suzanne Small, while Jane Carson and Peggy Sears are getting up courage for the plunge.

Visitors . . .

Each week brings new visitors for a week or months stay with relatives and friends.

Mrs. U. Scott Page has had as her guests the past week her son and family, Captain and Mrs. Kimball Page and children, Stephen, Kathleen and Jimmy. They came north from Arizona. Captain Page leaves Sunday for Kearns, Utah, where he will await further orders. The Pages are spending the weekend in Portland.

Mrs. J. R. Justice of Seattle returned by plane earlier in the week to her home after a visit in the capital with her sister, Mrs. Homer Goulet, sr. Mrs. Justice came for the annual reunion of the Norwood family which was held last Sunday at Champeog. Several informal affairs were given in honor of the visitor during her stay here. Mrs. Goulet entertained at luncheon for her sister and Mrs. Charles H. Robertson was also a luncheon hostess. Mrs. J. C. Singleton entertained at dinner in honor of the visitor.

Mrs. William Reinhart and son, Bill, arrived this last week from Washington, D.C. for a visit in Salem with her brother-in-law and sister, Senator and Mrs. John H. Carson, and at Marquam with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Allbright. Lt. Cmdr. Reinhart, who is stationed in San Francisco, went east to accompany his family west. He drove with them as far as Salt Lake City and then went by plane to San Francisco. The Reinharts expect to be here a month before going to San Francisco.

TAKING IT EASY—between swims are Mariann Croisan, Pat Agee, Barbara Sundet and Harriet Huston. (Statesman photos).

ON THE SPRINGBOARD—though not planning to dive, are Patsy Nickens, Cathy Moran, Barbara McClintock, Midge Newton and Gloria McClintock.
