

Milwaukie Looms as Best Team Salem Club Has Met

With Lefty Les Palmer, ace Milwaukie high school pitcher, pacing the outfit, Milwaukie's Junior Legion team that takes on the Salem club at George E. Waters park Sunday at 2:30 looks as far the best outfit the Capital Posters have run up against all season. Having converted in Portland semi-pro ranks all summer, the Milwaukie nine, which really is an all-star outfit with players from seven different high schools in Multnomah county, is quite confident of earning a place in the state meet. The winner of this series gets the state tourney ticket.

The game should develop into quite a hurling duel between Palmer and Salem's "Cowboy" Carroll. The Salem kids are quite confident they can hit Palmer, too, despite the fact that he shut out the high school team with but two hits last spring. The remainder of the local lineup will probably be the same as started against Forest Grove last week.

The game Sunday is definitely set for 2:30 p. m. after an earlier announcement had forecast a change in starting time. The second tilt will be arranged Sunday afternoon between the two coaches.

SPORTS NOTES

The column "Sports-Lighter," written by Statesman sports editor Al Lightner, will be missing from this page for the next two weeks. Lightner is out of the city on his annual vacation. The column and its timely and colorful sports coverage will return to the Statesman, Tuesday, July 31.

Mixup department—
Oh, no... Whitney Martin the Associated Press correspondent didn't write the column appearing on this page yesterday dealing with the local junior baseball league. It was just Al Lightner's substitute trying to give a few of our baseballing kids a little publicity. We'll ask the makeup man in the back room to look twice before he sticks Whitney's sig on one of our efforts again... we gotta hunch Whitney wouldn't be too pleased!

It is pretty difficult to keep up with the pitching records of Portland's "Big Three," Ad Liska, Roy Helser and Don Pulford. They admit the trio is handling most of the mound duties for the pastesters this year and have been rolling up the wins at a merry clip. Maybe that explains the varying wire stories relating to their pitching records. Correct tabulation shows that Liska won his 14th game Tuesday night as he beat Hollywood 12 to 3. Helser won his 15th game Wednesday night as he topped the Twinks 12 to 4, and Pulford made it 16 wins for the year by dropping the Hollies 8 to 6 Wednesday night. They all have 7 losses. And just to get the records straight, Bob Joyce, San Francisco's big righthander, has won 21 games now, the 21st one coming against Seattle Tuesday night.

Overlooked... The three veterans of World War II who participated in the flag-raising ceremonies at Waters Park last Sunday were PFC Ernest Page, who received the Purple Heart in the European theatre, PFC Vernon Greenlee, who served in New Guinea, and Lt. Harlan Bones, who saw action in Europe. Before Old Glory could be raised, however, it was necessary for someone to climb to the top of the 50 foot flagpole to replace the ropes that have been cut three different times. The task was performed by George Singer, and it is hoped the vandals will desist from further use of the knife.

We didn't intentionally pass up the "B" leaguers yesterday in our glance at the junior loop's star performers. Just not enough room. However, there are a number of prospective stars coming up, in the circuit that you'll be reading or hearing about one of these days. Particularly outstanding to date have been Catcher Richard Howard, third baseman Deb Davis, and first sacker Don Goertzen of Yeaters; pitcher Dick Norton, who is just about the whole team for Elstrom's; pitcher Jim Rock, ditto for Clough-Barrick, and Heavy Haulers' keystone combination of Daryl Girod and Buddy DuVal.

John Greco Winner
NEW YORK, July 20 (AP)—Johnny Greco of Montreal, the 8 to 5 favorite, won a unanimous eight-round decision over Tony Janiro of Youngtown in a close, furious fight at Madison Square Garden tonight. It was Janiro's second defeat in 41 professional bouts.

SYRACUSE, N.Y., July 20 (AP)—George Fallon, St. Louis Cardinals utility infielder, appeared for induction here today, but whether he would enter military service was uncertain tonight.

Bevos Annex 4th Straight Win Over Hollywood Stars

PORTLAND, July 20 (AP)—The Portland Beavers squeezed past the Hollywood Stars, 2 to 1, in their Pacific Coast league game here tonight—Portland's fourth straight win of the series.

Wandel Mosser, winning pitcher, allowed seven hits—same as Ronnie Smith of the Stars. The Hollies' lone run came in the fourth inning, while Portland scored in both the first and fourth.

Portland's league lead, thanks to Seattle's defeat by San Francisco, now stands at six games. The game was the Beavers' ninth straight victory.

Dodson Paces St. Paul Play

CHICAGO, July 20 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers, paced by Dixie Walker's five runs-batted-in today led the first-place Chicago Cubs 10-4, in a game suspended at the end of the eighth to permit the Brooks to catch a day-coach train for St. Louis. The game will be finished Sept. 15 when the Dodgers make their next Wrigley field appearance.

The frozen contest left the National league standings unchanged with the idle St. Louis Cardinals still three and a half games behind the Cubs in second spot and the Dodgers third, four and a half games off the pace.

Pittsburgh moved back into fourth place by defeating the Giants 13-5, showing the New Yorkers into fifth place. The Pirates had to come from behind, after spotting the Giants a five-run lead in the first three innings.

Pro Gridders To Use Boats

WASHINGTON, July 20 (AP)—Professional football may do some traveling by water next season in order to help relieve the burden on transportation. The possibility of water travel on a limited number of trips was discussed today in a conference between Elmer Layden, National Professional league commissioner, and ODT officials.

Good Fly Fishing in East. Oregon Streams

PORTLAND, July 20 (AP)—Fly fishing should be excellent in Lake county this week end, especially on Paisley and Silver lakes and Big Honey, Little Mud and Deep creeks, the state game commission said today. In Crook county, Ochoco, Marks and Mill creeks are yielding limit catches.

Silverton Nines Set Sunday Tilts

SILVERTON, July 20 — Both the Silverton baseball clubs will see action next Sunday. The Townies will take on the Gervais town team at 3:30 on McGinnis field, while the Legion Juniors journey to Beaverton to take on the Hillsboro Junior nine.

The local Legion team defeated the Gervais Townies 11 to 5 in a twilight game Thursday at Silverton. Triples by Gaul and Hatteberg featured the Silverton win.

Army's Top Sports Class

WEST POINT, N.Y., July 20 (AP)—Of all the class plaques adorning the gymnasium walls of the U.S. Military academy, officers, cadets, enlisted men, and even civilians on the reservation consider the 1915 bronze tablet the most interesting.

It contains 20 names of army men who won their "A" in sports, and includes Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Gen. Omar N. Bradley. Both received letters for their football activity as cadets, while Bradley is still regarded as the greatest baseball hitter West Point ever saw.

The football team of 1914, incidentally, won all nine games, scoring 219 points while limiting the opposition to 20. Army beat Navy 20-0, and Notre Dame 20-7, that year.

Eisenhower put in two seasons of football with Army. A "bright" future on the football field was what they predicted for "The" until he broke his leg playing against Tufts. He broke the limb a second time while horseback riding, and later turned to fencing, gymnastics and track.

He loved football so much that he coached the Plebes. Bradley played four seasons of baseball and two of football. He played center field for the cadets, had a great throwing arm and compiled an academy record with a four-year batting average of .383. In 1915 his play paced the cadets. They won 17 games out of 24, including the Eastern Intercollegiate championship.

Demonstration Ends Campaign

With over 500 spectators looking on, the boys and girls who have participated in the Salem Playgrounds-American Red Cross swim campaign during the past two weeks, put on an exhibition program at the Leslie pool Friday night from 8 to 9:30. The affair was under the direction of Mrs. Dorothea Thorpe, field representative from the Red Cross, who has supervised the program.

Events included demonstrations by boy and girl beginners, swimming races, life saving tests, a paddle board rescue, a paddle board-canoer race, canoe handling demonstrations, functional swimming skills, and a canoe race. Assisting Mrs. Thorpe were Jean Barham and Janet Rogers, local lifeguards who hold instructors' certificates.

Hager Returns To Meet Finn

Absent from the Salem ring for some time, Tex Hager, the lightning-fast little Frenchman, returns to the armory Tuesday night to take on tough Paavo Katonen, the durable Finn, in the 30-minute opening bout on the Antone Leone-Jack Lipscomb rematch card. Matchmaker Elton Owen announced the contestants for the opener yesterday and promised to land an equally attractive semi-final bout which will be announced later.

Owen states that both Leone and Lipscomb are red-hot to get at each other again, Lipscomb figuring he got a raw deal in their wild brawl last week, and Leone because he figures he can do an even better job on his ruffian opponent this time. By Tuesday night there may be no stopping the pair in the "anything goes" bout.

Transporting Nags by Sea and Air May Beat ODT Ban

By Whitney Martin
NEW YORK, July 20 (AP)—Caught short: Maryland race track plan to move in horses by barge to counteract the ODT ban on travel by rail and truck, and a Pacific coast track visions air travel for the nags, at least after the war, thus giving horse fields a new meaning. It's tough enough picking winners without wondering whether your choice is seaisick or airsick. Some of them seem to be landsick, though, so it doesn't make much difference.

A baseball player being scouted usually has a terrible day, but Al Mele, slugging Syracuse outfielder, is a recent exception. With Bob Quinn of the Boston Braves in the stands to look him over, Mele connected for a single, double and a grand slam home. See what happens when you eat your spinach, kiddies? * * *

The St. Louis Cardinals seem to be getting a little panicky as the Chicago Cubs continue to make themselves at home in first place. The Cards brought up a young pitcher from Rochester, and there are rumors they might acquire the venerable Charley Root.

The Brooklyn Dodgers have found a new way to win games. They just outnumber 'em. A Dodger pitcher seldom finishes, but skipper Leo Durocher just keeps pouring new men out there on the mound until the batters are dizzy. When a guy bats against right handers, left handers, knuckleballers and screwballers in one afternoon, he gets a liberal education.

lace Wade has decided to forsake football coaching to devote his time to directing sports and physical education. He'd become part of the American football scene, with his teams annually right up there in the blueblood class. His decision breaks up one of the keenest friendly rivalries. The Duke-Tennessee game was as much a battle between Wade and Bob Neyland as Carl Snavely returning to that sector a three-way battle between three of the better veteran coaches was in prospect. However, you can't blame Wade much. The strain on a football coach is terrific. The alumni doesn't demand that a physical education director be fired because the boys couldn't do their chin-ups.

The New York Yankees, as expected when Larry MacPhail took over, have moved into new offices, and from what we hear they really are something. What effect that will have on the team is problematical. The Yankees have turned out some pretty fair teams the last couple of decades from the drab, crowdy headquarters on 42nd st., where you could walk in and sit for an hour on a frayed old leather lounge with the only sounds the clicking of a ticker and the muffled clatter of traffic, and not see anyone but Ed Barrow's barber hurrying to a washstand to mix a lather for the boss' daily shave. Anyway, when the team doesn't do so well in the future MacPhail can say: "I know, I know. But you ought to see our offices." That'll hold 'em.

Senators Gain Two on Tigers

Wolff and Leonard Hurl Pair of Wins

WASHINGTON, July 20 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers executed a triple play tonight, but they lost a double-header to Washington's Senators, 4-3 and 3-1.

Dutch Leonard and Roger Wolff knuckleballed the Senators back into the first place contention, the twin victory cutting Detroit's lead to three games over the second place Senators.

With George Case on second and George Myatt on first in Washington's half of the seventh inning of the second game, Gil Torres smashed a liner toward right field off Pitcher Walter Wilson.

Eddie Mayo made a leaping catch of the drive, threw to Skeeter Webb, doubling Case off second, and Webb's quick peg to Rudy York beat Myatt back to first for the third out.

Although out-hit in both games, the St. Louis Browns took both ends of a double-header from the New York Yankees by one run margins, 4-3 and 3-2.

Bobo Newsom and Jess Flores racked up their third successive victories as the Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Cleveland Indians in both ends of a twilight twin bill, 8-3 and 3-2.

The Chicago White Sox took advantage of Clem Hausmann's wildness in the third inning to start a five-run rally and go on to a 6 to 3 victory over the Boston Red Sox.
