Tigers, Yanks, Nats,
All Lose Close Ones

NEW YORK, July 23.—(AP)—Pitchers had their innings today in the American league, the three games witnessing but five runs collectively. The Yankees lost to Chicago in 11 innings, with a walk to Johnny Dickshot, two wild pitches by pitcher Bill Zuber, and then an error by the Yankee hurler giving the Pale Hose their run.

Washington's bid for top spot in the loop got another setback when Cleveland's Ed Klieeman gave only five hits to best Johnny Niggeling 2-1.

Bobo Newsom pitched and batted the Philadelphia Athletics to a 1 to 0 victory over the Detroit Tigers before 10,703 Shibe park fans.

The big right-hander allowed only four hits as he hung up his fourth straight victory. He also drove in the winning run in the second inning with a single to left that scored George Kell with two out. It was Detroit's eighth defeat in the last 12 games.

In the only National league tilt on the schedule the Pittsburgh Pirates rapped three Boston pitchers for 17 hits, including three home runs, to defeat the Braves 3 to 5, for their fourth straight win of the series. Jimmy Russell got four hits, including a homer and a double.

'Cooch' Clings To Bat Lead

CHICAGO, July 23.—(AP)—The rail-birds said hot water would slow him down, but surprising Tony Cucinello, Chicago White Sox third baseman, still heads the American league hit parade with .325.

The 36-year-old veteran slumped four points during the past week, but so did runner-up George Case of Washington, who lags by five points with .320.

A surprise contender in the batting race was Boston's Ed Lake, who zoomed into third place with .315, displacing Vern Stephens of St. Louis, who dropped a notch to fourth with .312.

Other leaders through Sunday's games: Bob Estelle, Philadelphia, .310; George Strinewiss, New York, .303; Bob Johnson, Boston, Wyatt Moses, Chicago, and George Wally, Washington, .293 each; and Nick Etten, New York, .290.

Thirty-Nine Entered
SEATTLE, July 23.—(AP)—Thirty-nine throughbreds will vie for the $20,000-added Longacres Mile, top feature of the season, August 26, Washington State Jockey club announced today. They include horses from Canada, Mexico and tracks throughout the United States.

Bill Salkeld

Salkeld Nominated for "Rookie of Year" Honors

By CHIP ROYAL

NEW YORK—When the National League rookies were being touted, Bill Salkeld of the Pittsburgh Pirates didn't get much of a tumble. But he's one of the fellows to watch when they start balloting for the outstanding youngster of the year.

The five foot ten catcher has been making himself known around the National League. Any time a receiver is good enough to keep the veteran Al Lopez on the bench almost every other game, he bears watching, especially when he can clutch them like Bill. Salkeld is 28 now and he's been in pro ball since Sacramento gave him a contract to play with the Pacific Coast league team in 1934.

He was purchased last fall by Pittsburgh from the San Diego club after several big time scouts pronounced him the best catching prospect in the far west. While with the Padres, Bill proved himself one of the most capable and durable 100 league players for five consecutive seasons.

Manager Frankie Frisch has been sold on the rookie as a hitter ever since he inserted Bill in a game as a pinch hitter and he clouted a home run to win the game.

The record show the Idahoan hit five circuit clouts during the first half of the season and held a .308 average as the National Leaguers squared off for the run to the wire.

Local Legionnaires are planning an excursion to Thursday's game to provide support for the Capital post nine. Anyone interested in attending the game or providing transportation should get in touch with Don Madison, Kelly Owens, Rex Kimmel, Ralph Campbell, Bud Noffsinger or Ike Bacon.

Owens also has tickets for the state meet in Portland for persons wishing to see the three-day affair or a single day's play.

Joe Carroll Allows Just 3 Hits

Salem Juniors Whitewash Milwaukie Club in Opener

Handing Milwaukie's ace lefthander, Les Palmer, his first defeat of the season, Salem's American Legion Juniors advanced to within one victory of entry into the state tournament Sunday afternoon at Waters Park, when they won the first of a best-two-out-of-three series from Ray Thompson's crew, 5 to 0. Joe "Cowboy" Carroll, in trouble only twice, hurled a masterful 3-hit game for Al Lightner's outfit, and after a three run spurge in the fourth inning, the Capital Post nine was "in" as far as the crucial series-opener was concerned.

Loop Leaders Meet, Seattle

COAST LEAGUE STANDINGS
W L Pct. W L Pct.
Portland 72 41 .537 Oakland 55 29 .462
Seattle 58 48 .378 Los Ang 52 61 .460
Sacramnt 57 57 .500 San Diego 53 63 .457
San Fran 57 56 .496 Hollywd 45 69 .393
Sunday's results: At Portland 8-5, Hollywood 6-3; at Seattle 5-3, San Francisco 0-9; at Oakland 4-3, San Diego 5-4 (first game 10 innings); at Los Angeles 10-4, Sacramento 1-7.

Although some of the gloss has been taken off due to Portland's 11-game winning streak that has built up their lead to seven games, the feature series of the Pacific Coast league race to date opens in Seattle tonight, when the Rainiers take on Marv Owen's Beavers. A week ago the series would have been to decide the loop lead, but now the red-hot Beavers can hold the top spot if they win but one game of the set. On the other hand, a clear-cut series win for the Bevos would just about sew up the pennant for them.

While the northern clubs fight for the top spot in Seattle, Oakland and San Francisco will clash at Seals stadium, Los Angeles meet Hollywood, and San Diego invades Sacramento. Ten weeks of the season remain.

Joe McCarthy Resigns Post

NEW YORK, July 23.—(AP)—Joe McCarthy today asked President Larry McPhail to accept his resignation as manager of the New York Yankees but agreed to reconsider his decision while taking a brief rest at his Buffalo home.

Junior Legion Tilt Thursday

The second game of the Salem-Milwaukie Junior Legion baseball series for 8:45 p.m. Thursday night at Westminster park in Portland. If Salem wins that one the local kids will have earned a ticket into the state finals, a four-team double elimination affair set for August 1-2-3 at Vaughn street park. If a third game is necessary it will probably be played here next Sunday, although no definite action will be taken until after Thursday's clash.

Local Legionnaires are planning an excursion to Thursday's game to provide support for the Capital post nine. Anyone interested in attending the game or providing transportation should get in touch with Don Madison, Kelly Owens, Rex Kimmel, Ralph Campbell, Bud Noffsinger or Ike Bacon.

Majors Reject Proposal To Increase Draft Price

CHICAGO, July 23.—(AP)—The major leagues today flatly rejected a demand by minor leagues that the draft price of class AA players be doubled from the present fixed $7,500 tag.

Debate on the subject monopolized a joint meeting of major and minor league committees to study proposed revisions in the major-minor league agreement.

"The majors absolutely refused to consider any increase in the draft price," said Thomas H. Richardson, Williamsport, Pa., chairman of the minor league committee following a six-hour session.

"It was their contention, he continued, 'that any player worth $15,000 would be sold into the big leagues in the normal course of events and that a higher draft price would retard the progress of a player on whom a major league club would be willing to gamble $7,500, but no more."

Clarence (Pants) Rowland, president of the Pacific coast league and a committee member, led the minor league argument for a bigger draft price and asserted the matter was not yet closed.

Dutch Harrison
St. Paul Winner
ST. PAUL, Minn., July 22.—(AP)—Sgt. E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, lanky soldier from Dayton, O., who "didn't think I could win," put on a sizzling finish Sunday to win the St. Paul open golf tournament with a score of 273.

In his final round Harrison disregarded par ratings on the Keller course and blasted out a 64, eight strokes under regulation figures. Along with the title he won $2000 in war bonds.

Lipscomb, Leone Tangle To Decide Meanie Title

Who is the worst meanie of them all? Patrons of Elton Owen's wrestling cards at the armory are going to sit in on a match that could easily determine the answer to that question tonight, when Jack Lipscomb, just about as rough as they come in the mat game, and Antonio Leone, the big Oyster Bay, N. Y., Italian, clash in a rematch of their brawl last week which went to Leone after 10 minutes of the wildest fisticuffs and mayhem ever seen in Salem.

Lipscomb, boiling mad after the last clash, since Referee George Dusette laid on the telling blow in the final fall, has vowed to more than square accounts with Leone. The latter, who has beaten the best of them in the local arena, won the first one after dropping the opening fall via the haymaker route, however, and figures he can take care of himself in this one.

It all adds up to what promoter is to be a Donnybrook.
