The army sent out a call for an expert to look over the crater chant marine a few months ago. and in six days, Dr. Howell Williams of the University of California showed up. Dr. Williams made several trips to the area of activity, daring the molten lava and the flashes of fire that illuminate the sky at night.

Finally, he pronounced the crater safe for the time being. He said 30 to 40 feet a minute of hot Anne Baxter, in the title role of "Guest in the House," drives lava is flowing in the active cone, but that it showed no evidence of overflowing the eight mile crater bowl.

"But," he added, "There is no possible way to determine the length of time the present flow will continue." So the army is taking no chances. An emergency evacuation plan has been laid out to remove speedily the men stationed 16 miles from this, the socalled second largest crater in the world, if a violent eruption should

Strike Cause Gives Views

PORTLAND, July 30-(A)-Kenneth R. Smith, whose dismissal caused the Libby, McNeill and Libby cannery strike which continues despite two war labor board back-to-work orders, told his story to an NLRB investigating board today.

Smith, president of the CIO cannery and Food Process Workers union, said employes voted past weekend from the Deaconess M. E. Pettit, Newport; Mrs. R.
