

WOMEN'S

Society * Clubs * Music

The Oregon Statesman

SECTION

Go South . . .

Commander and Mrs. Edward Pace (Kay Taylor) and son, David, left Friday for Mare Island, San Francisco where he will report to his ship. Commander Pace, who received his promotion from lieutenant commander earlier in the week, has been home on leave after serving in the South Pacific. Mrs. Pace and their son have been residing with her mother, Mrs. Leona Taylor.

Mrs. Prescott Keyes and son, Larry, who have come north from their home in Alhambra, Calif., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Engel, for several weeks. Mrs. Keyes who will be remembered as Helen Engel, has resided in the south since her marriage and this is her first visit home in two years. (Kennell-Ellis).

Mrs. Donnell Sanders who left with Mr. Sanders this week for Coos Bay where they will make their home. Mr. Sanders will serve as principal of the grade school in Coos Bay this year. Mrs. Sanders will be remembered as Cynthia Delano. The couple resided in Bremerton until last fall when Mr. Sanders received his discharge from the United States marine corps reserve. (Kennell-Ellis).

Summer Entertaining . . .

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Entertaining in the late summer centers around informal dinner and supper parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keeler were hosts for a buffet supper Saturday night at their South Liberty street home for a group of friends. Guests were seated at small tables where bridge was in play during the evening. Bouquets of late summer flowers were arranged on the buffet table and about the rooms.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Claude Murphy, Mayor and Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Houck, Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Gragg and Mr. and Mrs. Keeler.

Mr. and Mrs. George Aiken entertained informally at dinner Saturday night at their North Summer street residence. After the dinner hour contract bridge was in play.

Guests of the Aikens were Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones.

The home of Judge and Mrs. George Rossman was the setting for an informal no-host dinner party Friday night. Dinner was served in the garden and later bridge was in play.

Making up the party were Mr. and Mrs. David Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Yocom, Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague and Judge and Mrs. Rossman.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Poorman entertained informally at supper Thursday night at the Kirk's cabin in Morningside for the pleasure of the seven couples who garden on the place. Mr. Kirk's birthday was also observed during the evening.

Supper was served on the terrace at a large table centered with an arrangement of vegetables from the garden. Cards were in play during the evening.

Newcomers in the capital are Mrs. Lewis C. Beissig and twin daughters, Carolyn and Marilyn, who have taken a house on Fairmount Hill. Lieutenant Colonel Beissig is depot chaplain at Camp Adair. The Beissigs, whose home is in New York, came west from Fort Meade, Maryland, where he had been stationed. The twins expect to enter Oregon State college in the fall. (Kennell-Ellis).

Tidbits of News

Mrs. Edward A. Lebold and sons, Robert and Frank, and Mrs. Richard Kriesel and daughter, Patsy, are spending the weekend at the Dorchester House at Oceanlake.

Mrs. Harold Olinger and daughter, Susan, are at Neskowin for a week at the H. H. Olinger summer home.

Mrs. Claybourne W. Dyer is at Neskowin for the weekend as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stevens.

Dr. and Mrs. Irvin Hill and sons, Bobby, Dick and Douglas, are spending several weeks at Florence.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huggins the past week have been her sister, Mrs. Laird Theiring, and her sons, Jim and Bill, and Mrs. Ruth Balcom, all of Coos Bay.

Mrs. William H. Dashney and son, John, of McMinnville have been spending several days in the capital at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Braden. Mr. Dashney joined his family here for the weekend.

Rush Tea . . .

Delta Phi sorority members of Willamette university, who will be installed as members of Delta Gamma, national fraternity for women in the fall, will be hostesses for a formal rush tea this afternoon at the State street residence of Dr. Frank Brown.

Seventy-five prospective Willamette university co-eds have been invited to call between 3 and 5 o'clock. Miss Betty Randall will greet the guests at the door.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. E. E. Bragg, house mother, Mrs. Frank James, Miss Virginia Case and Miss Leona Tingelstad, Salem rush chairman.

Presiding at the tea urns will be Dean Olive M. Dahl, Mrs. Cass Nichols, Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert and Mrs. Arthur A. Rogers. Serving will be Miss Janice Patterson, Miss Coralee Nichols and Miss Ruth Saffron.

The tea table will be centered with an all white arrangement of late summer flowers flanked by tall white tapers in silver holders. Miss Leona Tingelstad is heading the directorate for the affair.

To Marry . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brassfield of Monmouth are announcing the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Evelyn Brassfield, to Dr. H. E. Gilbert of Salem, on September 1.

The couple will leave immediately after the ceremony for an extended trip to Lake Tahoe and southern California. They will return to Salem where Dr. Gilbert is practicing.

Welcomed back to Salem after a three year absence are Mrs. Richard H. Jones, the former Barbara Lamb, and her children, Cheryl Ann and Patricia Lynn, who are at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lamb. Chief Warrant Officer Jones, who has been at Hoff General hospital, Santa Barbara, Calif., is now awaiting orders for duty in the South Pacific. (Kennell-Ellis).

Visiting in Salem this summer have been Mrs. Joseph E. Harvey, jr. and her children, Joey and Joyce, of Portland, who have been guests at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ellen Fisher. Joey celebrated his third birthday last week and Joyce is five months old. Mrs. Harvey is the former Jane Fisher. (Jesten-Miller).

Travel Notes . . .

The coming and going of visitors and vacationists highlight the summer social news.

Expected in the capital on September 1 are Lt. Comdr. and Mrs. Roy S. Keene of San Francisco. Commander Keene will be here on a ten day leave, but his wife plans to remain during the school year while their daughters, Madeleine and Geraldine, are in school. The girls have been here during the summer months, at the homes of Mrs. Prince W. Byrd and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Maple. Mrs. Keene and her daughters plan to take up their residence at their Lefelle street home.

Mr. Harlan Boals of New York City, formerly of Salem, has been in the capital the past week as the guest of his mother, Mrs. R. T. Boals.

Tech. Sgt. and Mrs. Amedeo M. Smith, III and their daughters, Sidney Ann and Stacie, are sojourning at the J. A. Fehler summer home on the Alpea river. Sergeant Smith arrived in Portland last Sunday from Italy and reports to Fort Lewis after his 30-day furlough. Mrs. Smith and their daughters have been making their home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fehler.

Pfc. Margaret Lovell, United States marine corps, is home on furlough from Quantico, Virginia as the guest of her mother, Mrs. G. L. Lovell, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Karl G. Becke. She will be here a week.

Captain and Mrs. William Sisson and son, Billy, are leaving today for a fortnight's stay on the Oregon coast near Waldport. Captain Sisson, who was wounded in Italy, is home on leave. His wife and son have been residing with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Sisson.