

Date Is Set For Garden Ceremony

The date has been set for the coming marriage of Miss Barbara Jean Vincent, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Willis E. Vincent, to Lt. Gordon Park Keith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Lewis Keith of Wilmette, Illinois. The wedding will be Saturday, September 8 and will take place in the garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenneth Wilson on Fairmount Hill.

Lt. Keith recently returned to the states from a year of active duty at Leyte and Okinawa with the 96th infantry division. He will arrive in Salem Thursday from Illinois, where he has been visiting at the home of his parents. The couple's engagement was announced last December.

Parties for Miss Vincent
Mrs. Benjamin Whisenand and Mrs. John L. Sullivan have invited a few of Miss Vincent's intimate friends to a dessert supper and personal shower tonight at the former's apartment at the Royal Court.

The small tables will be centered with a white candle encircled with pastel summer flowers. A bridal nosegay will mark Miss Vincent's place. Cards will be in play during the evening.

Mrs. J. B. Commy will preside at a one o'clock luncheon Friday afternoon at the Marion hotel in compliment to Miss Vincent. After the luncheon the guests will go to Mrs. Commy's apartment on Division street for an informal afternoon. A bridal shower will honor the bride-to-be. Covers will be placed for twelve guests.

Visiting in Salem this week are Mrs. Ralph Nohlgren and children, Douglas and Sarah Jean of Portland, who are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nohlgren.

Two New Classes Are Started

Two new American Red Cross classes began their training on Monday. The second class of Gray Ladies started their intensive training at the naval hospital at Corvallis Monday. Ten from Marion county are enrolled in the class.

A new corps, Arts and Skills, began Monday at the naval hospital under the supervision of Miss Constance Fowler, head of the Willamette university art department. Women will be obtained to teach the servicemen arts and crafts.

Getting Smart

Household Hints Come From Readers Giving Shortcuts to Housekeeping

Readers often send in household hints far better than the typewriter-housekeeper can cook up. Today one reader telephoned in her system for utilizing one form of leftovers. She went to the fruitroom, collected all the odds and ends of leftover jams and jellies, mixed them and re-cooked them. She then put the mixture into small containers and finds that the family goes for the mixture enthusiastically. If your canning shelves are like mine, with odds and ends of jam and jelly, some slightly crystallized, you'll find that this is a good idea for saving the sweetened fruits. Some apple or peach fruit might be added to the old, thus stretching sugar from last year over some extra fruit.

Another reader tells about having fun with biscuits. She uses a regular basic recipe, but varies some of the ingredients. She sometimes adds one tea-

Recent Bride Is Honored

The home of Mrs. John C. McManus on Hazel avenue was the setting for two bridal parties on Friday afternoon and evening when Mrs. McManus entertained for the pleasure of her niece, Mrs. Charles M. Harvey (Opal Mae Hall), who was married on August 26.

The table decorations were of gladioluses, and pale blue amaryllis flanked by ivory tapers. Mrs. C. L. Lucas poured during the afternoon and Mrs. Rupert McGee presided at the serving table in the evening. Lois Hall, sister of the bride, presided at the punch bowl.

The afternoon hours were spent informally and during the evening games were in play. Bouquets of gladioluses, asters and other garden flowers were used about the rooms.

The Chemeketan picnic slated for Wednesday night at the home of Miss Virginia Wells has been cancelled.

Miss Shafer Is Honor Guest

Miss Geraldine Shafer is the incentive for much entertaining prior to her marriage to Lt. Ralph Wade, USNR, on September 1.

Miss Maxine Bach has invited guests to a linen and kitchen shower Wednesday night at her home on East Lincoln street for the pleasure of Miss Shafer. The evening hours will be spent informally and a late supper will be served by the hostess.

Bidden to honor Miss Shafer are Mrs. Sheldon Barry, Mrs. Charles Mingle, Mrs. Robert Niemeyer, Mrs. Charles Greene, Mrs. Leo Stabb, Mrs. Leonard Bilsland, Mrs. Madgie Hughes, Mrs. Albert Mason, Miss Anna Schafer, Miss Coralee Nichols, Miss Shirley Severin, and Miss Maxine Bach.

Miss Shafer is entertaining a group of her friends, who will be assisting at her wedding reception, at an informal party tonight at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Sparks, on North 14th street. A late supper will be served by the hostess.

Guests of Miss Shafer will be Miss Bernice Elgin, Miss Enid Nelson, Miss Maxine Bach, Miss Delores Nichols, Miss Betty McGee, Miss Barbara Causey, Miss Lorraine Burdick, Miss Donna Shafer, Miss Betty Jeanne Smith and Miss Clarise Busselle.

Miss Young Goes South

Friends of Miss Carol Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell Young, will be interested to learn that she is enroute for Palo Alto, Calif., Friday night where she expects to make her home.

Miss Young was accompanied south by her Gamma Phi Beta sorority sister, Miss Lorelli Stewart of Lebanon, who will also reside in Palo Alto.

Miss Young graduated from Oregon State college this year. She took her first two college years at Willamette university where she was a member of Delta Phi sorority.

Miss Hattie Bratzel is vacationing in San Francisco for several weeks. Accompanying the traveller south were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fuller, who returned to the bay city where they reside, after a visit in Salem and Portland with their parents, and Judith Page, who will return north with Miss Bratzel.

College Group Entertained

Miss Margaret Jane Emmons entertained with an informal party Saturday night at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Carl W. Emmons. Ten guests were hidden to the affair. Sunday the same group gathered for a no-host picnic at the country place of Miss Anita Hager.

The popularity of meat balls is almost universal . . . and more often than not, they're served with spaghetti. Recipes and seasonings vary from place to place, but it's still the same combination which signifies good eating in any tongue. This is a timely dish right now, because it makes the meat go so far.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert W. Roberts and son, Jimmy, spent the weekend at Pacific City as the guests of Judge and Mrs. Harry H. Belt.

Royal Neighbors will meet for a no-host picnic dinner Wednesday noon at Olinger Park.
