

Bride-Elect Feted at Shower

Mrs. Victor Collins was hostess for a surprise bridal shower in honor of Miss Barbara Jean Vincent, bride-elect of Lt. Gordon Park Keith, Wednesday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Reinhold.

The evening was spent informally and later a dessert supper was served by the hostess. The serving table was centered with a bridal bouquet in pastel shades with ribbon streamers extending to the gifts. A kitchen shower feted the popular bride-to-be.

Honoring Miss Vincent were Mrs. Willis E. Vincent, Mrs. Marion Krebs, Mrs. George LaVatta, Mrs. Russell Beardsley, Mrs. Zane Russell, Mrs. Lloyd Reinhold, Miss Rosemary Bell, Miss Patty Wilson, Miss Marjorie Reeves and Mrs. Victor Collins.

Mrs. James Is Home

Mrs. Warren James and her daughter, Diane, arrived in Salem Wednesday from Oakland, Calif., where they have been making their home while Mr. James was stationed at Treasure Island. Mr. James, a radio technician first class, is assigned to the USS Princeton and left Monday to board his ship at Philadelphia.

Mrs. James and her little girl will make their home in Salem while he is on active duty. Mrs. James is the former Joan Durette, a Willamette university student and member of Delta Phi sorority. Her husband is a graduate of Willamette and is the son of Mrs. Frank James.

Barbara Lange, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lange, left Monday for Glendale, Calif., where she will spend a week or ten days at the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hawkins.

Friday night, at 8 o'clock Miss Phebe McDams will meet at her home with the committee of the Business and Professional Women's club to make plans for the annual Business Women's Week which is scheduled for October.

Gold Rush

Choose Early Hours for Shopping In Busy Stores; Stocks Not Big

By Maxine Buren

There must be some sparsely populated areas in the United States—because the Salem country certainly has its share of residents. And they are all shopping these fine days.

Was a time when we were admonished each late fall, to shop early and avoid the Christmas rush, but the tune has changed a bit, and the time of it's singing, too. Right now the advice to prospective shoppers for school clothes, winter outfits, groceries and just every-day necessities, is to shop early in the day.

While there's promise of much more stock for all merchants' shelves and it is constantly arriving, the supplies are still limited and can't meet the demand.

Trying to shop for a small item of clothing for a niece on Wednesday, we tried all the likely-looking places, stood in line at every shop but found not one.

We resorted to the boys' department of a men's clothing store and found a suitable garment, but not until we had made our own selection and

Today's Menu

A little bit of canned prepared ham will go a long way in the menu today.

- Tomato slices
- Stuffed squash
- Whipped potatoes
- Buttered green beans
- Macaroni

- 2 squash (summer)
- 1 cup medium white sauce
- Salt and pepper
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1/2 pound chopped ham
- 1/2 cup buttered bread crumbs
- 1 teaspoon onion juice
- Cut squash in halves, crosswise, and remove seeds. Cook halves in boiling water for 10 minutes and drain. Add chopped pepper, ham, seasonings and onion juice to cream sauce and mix lightly. Fill squash halves with this mixture, top with buttered bread crumbs and bake at 350 degrees 20-25 minutes.

Guests at BPW Picnic Tuesday

Tuesday night a large group of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club enjoyed the last picnic of the summer at the Chemawa Indian school with the Misses Peggy Wehunt and Eida Dodrill as hostesses. Miss Ina Maye Toland of the hospitality committee was in charge of arrangements, and Mrs. Margaret Jorgensen, the musical program.

Special guests of the members were Mrs. Marian Lowry Fischer of the Eugene club, Miss Betty Goodrich of the McMinnville club, both of whom are at present making their homes in Salem. Other guests were Mrs. Violet Easton, the Misses Mary Iyall, Barbara Faught, Anne C. Amick, Tillie Albers and Mrs. Ruth E. Rhoten, also Messrs. Beudello Chavez, Benedicto Campos, Onesimo Campos and Honorio Gonzales of Mexico. The musical program consisted of several numbers by an instrumental trio of violin, horn and saxophone played by Benedicto and Onesimo Campos and Honorio Gonzales. The last number was "Buenas Noches Mi Amore" to which the club responded with "Aloha."

Newcomers from El Paso, Texas are Mrs. Hubert duBois Lewis and children Marie and Herman duBois, who will make their home in Salem while Lt. Col. Lewis is serving in the Pacific theatre. They have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hager, and have now taken a home on Nob Hill. Marie will enter Salem high school this fall as a sophomore.

MONMOUTH—With closing of the summer session at Oregon College of Education, on August 24, many faculty folk are on vacation. Students have gone to their homes, and the town is settling into the annual between-term quiet of late summer.

Mrs. Pearl Heath, head of the college art department, is taking possibly the longest trip among the faculty group. She left Friday by automobile for Baton Rouge, La., where she will spend a month at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Martin Erickson, and will make the acquaintance of their baby daughter, Marie Kathryn, born last November.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Erickson have been staff instructors at OCE, he in the English department, and Mrs. Erickson (Marie Ring) on the art staff. Dr. Erickson is now head of the department of romance languages at Louisiana State university.

Miss Hall Bride of Sunday

The marriage of Miss Opal Mae Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Hall, to Sergeant Charles M. Harvey, son of Mrs. Elmer Conn of Albany, took place on Sunday afternoon, August 26, at the home of the bride's parents on Maple avenue at 2 o'clock.

Rev. Herman H. Macy, pastor of the Highland Friends church, performed the ceremony in the garden before a setting of summer flowers and shrubs. Seventy-five relatives and friends attended the rites.

For her wedding the bride chose a powder blue afternoon frock with hat to match and a corsage of gardenias.

Miss Lola Rutherford was the bride's only attendant. Lois Hall, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dusty pink dress and carried a basket of pastel garden flowers.

Mr. Joseph M. Howard stood with Sergeant Harvey as best man.

The wedding reception in honor of the newlyweds was held in the home immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. John McManus, aunt of the bride, presided at the serving table and Miss Lois Hall was at the punch bowl.

Sergeant and Mrs. Harvey are spending their honeymoon at Crater Lake and the Oregon coast. At the end of his 30-day furlough Sergeant Harvey will report at Fort Meade, Maryland, where he expects to be discharged. He will return to Salem to reside.

The bride is a graduate of Salem high school and has been employed at the J. C. Penney Company since her graduation. Sergeant Harvey also attended Salem schools and recently returned from three years service in Africa, Italy, France and Germany with the army.
