Izaak Walton League Clubhouse Plans Set; Funds Raised, Construction to Start Soon

This is the architect's drawing of the proposed $15,000 home of the Salem Chapter, Izaak Walton league, scheduled to be erected within a few months on Bellevue street between Church and Cottage. opposite Pringle park. (Designed by R. W. Frost, Salem)

Plans for a new clubhouse, to be built at a cost of $15,000, were announced Wednesday by the Salem chapter of the Izaak Walton league of America. Officials of the chapter said the structure, to be erected on Bellevue between Church and Cottage opposite Pringle park, would be financed by the unit's 200 members and by the sale of non-interest bearing building certificates of various denominations, to be retired by use of half of each membership's $10 annual dues. A membership of 500 was declared expectable by the end of this year.

Construction is scheduled to start as soon as plans are completed and materials available probably within a few months, The building is to be of rustic

ST. The victory moved the Browns to within four games of the first place Tigers and cut Detroit's margin over second place Washington to one full game.

Vic Johnson got the nod over Bill Zuber as the Boston Red Sox nosed out the New York Yankees 1 to 0 with both pitchers hurling four-hit ball.

Catcher Greek George's twin error in the eighth inning gave the Washington Senators two runs and a 3-2 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics in the opener of a twi-light doubleheader, but the A's capitalized on Phil Marchildon's 4-hit hurling to cop the night cap, 2-1. With old favorites Bill Nichol-sweeping a series of two with a 3-1 victory behind Vern Kennedy's eight-hit hurling. Two unearned runs, the last scored in the eighth inning, gave the Brooklyn dodgers a 2 to 1 decision over the Phillies as Curt Davis nosed out Kewpie Barrett in a pitching duel.
