9 Recaptured | British Fleet Of 12 Involved In Singapore In Jail Break

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 3-(P)-With the capture of Robert J. Boyce, 24, at Hood River, police today had back in custody nine of 12 men who made a daring break from the city jail yester-

Overpowering Jailer Wallace Henderson as they returned to cells after mass, they dashed from the building. Four men disappeared into crowds. Three of them are still free.

The other eight raced to a bus depot, where they commandeered a taxi. Police chased them to the waterfront, where they caught five. Three raced to a tug and steamed to Ross Island in the Willamette river. Two were caught swimming ashore later and the third flushed from the island's underbrush.

Officials said 23-year-old Virgil Lewis, who had served time in San Quentin, was ringleader.
