Club Hears Dr. Millar

The Salem Junior Woman's etub met at the clubhouse Monday night with Mrs. Fred C. Gast, president, presiding. Dr. James Millar of the University of Oregon extension service addressed the group on "Youth Conservation." Dr. Millar was presented under the auspices of the E. C. Brown trust fund. Dr. Millar indicated that we now live in a totally different world and that we must reckon with it. He said that there are four things with which we have to deal: attitudes, appreciations, atmosphere and adjustments. The home must recognize attitudes. "One of the greatest needs today is for a person to do a humble job well and with the right attitude," said Dr. Millar. He continued that we need a philosophy of success. "Do the things you can be happy in doing, regardless of the money in it," said Dr. Millar. Our boys will come home with a new appreciation of America, according to Dr. Millar, and he feels that we shall need to have an appreciation for other countries and their contribution.

Following the address, refreshments were served. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of vari-colored tuberous begonias arranged in a low glass bowl. Mrs. Charles Rateliff and Mrs. Estill L. Brunk

Mrs. Delbert Schwabbauer was chairman of the affair, and was assisted by members of the youth conservation and membership committees including Mrs. Howard Conkle, Mrs. Joseph Felton, Mrs. Donald Parker, Mrs. Daniel Olin, Mrs. Paul Silke, Mrs. R. E. Laughlin, Miss Clarice Satter, Mrs. William Metzger and Mrs. Carleton Roth.

A large clipping sheet stresses the need for saving fats and oils. Additional points, it says, will be given for cooking fats saved from the kitchen. One special source is from the frying pan when cooking ordinary meats. Often the fat from steak can be cooked a little extra, after it has been served and discarded at the meal. The additional red points offered should be inspiration for the saving of more fat from cooking. The fat will now bring four points per pound.
