

President Considers London Meet No Failure, Says Allies Have Not Asked Bomb Secret

(Story also on Page 1)

TIPTONVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 8—(AP)—President Truman told reporters tonight he considered the council of foreign ministers in London in no way a failure.

He added that there was no clash of American interests with Russia and that Russia has been as badly misrepresented in this country as we have been in Russia.

Our interests, he said, do not clash. He added that understanding sometimes was made more difficult by differences in language and translations.

The president made it clear today that he intended for his speech at a Caruthersville fair yesterday to be interpreted as an appeal to management and labor to reconcile any differences regarding the reconversion program.

Great Cost Told
The president said Great Britain spent $100,000,000 on the development of atomic energy before it turned its work over to the United States which spent $2,000,000,000 before the bomb was perfected.

The president said flatly that none of our allies have asked for the secret of the atomic bomb.

A reporter said it had been reported that one of the causes of a lack of ardor of Russia toward the United States grew out of the fact that we have the industrial know-how and they have not.

Language Difference
That isn't true, the president replied, the difficulties are a matter of difference in language, principally because we don't have a common language and translations are not always exactly the same.

James F. Byrnes, the president asserted, will initiate a discussion with Great Britain and Canada looking to international agreements which the president wants with a view to outlawing the use of the atomic bomb.

Not Disturbed
The president said he was not disturbed by management-labor strife which he considers a natural outgrowth of the letdown which normally follows any war. He said he found nothing to be alarmed about.

Mrs. Sample was reported to have been making her home in Pensacola, Fla. The admiral also has a brother living in Chicago.

Bronx Woman Aids in Italian POW Escape

PORTLAND, Oct. 8—(AP)—Mary Palumbo, Bronx, N.Y., helped Domenico Conio escape from the Italian prisoner of war camp at Umatilla Sept. 4, an FBI officer said today.

Joseph E. Thornton, special agent in charge of the Portland office, said Miss Palumbo first met Conio when he was confined in New Jersey. Shortly after he was transferred to Umatilla, she checked in at a Hermiton tourist camp, he said.

The FBI agent said he believed they are traveling together now. Miss Palumbo is brunette and 28 years old. Conio is difficult to identify as an Italian because he is blond and has nordic features, Thornton said.

Wage Policies Change Made

Employers of eight or fewer persons are now subject to the same wage policies as larger firms, Dr. George Bernard Noble, chairman of the 12th regional war labor board, pointed out Saturday.

"Under the wartime wage stabilization program, most employes of eight or fewer persons were exempt from the national wage stabilization regulations but the exemption order was repealed when the new wage policy was put into effect," Dr. Noble said.

"This means that no employer, regardless of the size of his firm, may decrease wages without war labor board approval or increase wages with the intention of using such increases as a basis for price increase without securing prior approval of the board."

Doolittle Gains A New Record

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8—(AP)—Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle's B-29 landed at Bolling field today, six hours and 45 minutes after leaving Los Angeles.

This is about eight minutes faster than the time established more than a year ago by a Lockheed Constellation.

At Lodwick of Lakeland, Fla., a war department consultant, a passenger on the plane, said the big ship took off at 9:41 a.m. (eastern standard time) and landed at 4:26 p.m. The plane's ground speed at one point of the flight was 398 miles an hour, Lodwick said.

BILLINGS, Mont., Oct. 8—(AP)—City authorities today extended bans on public gatherings, virtually quarantining 23,000 people to their homes, after infantile paralysis claimed its eighth victim in less than two months last night.

The order, designed to prevent further spread of the disease, included closing of all cocktail lounges, bars, bowling alleys and other recreation centers.

Two new cases were reported today. At the same time two neighboring counties closed their borders to the residents of Yellowstone county, in which Billings is located. The disease has infected more than 40 in and about Billings since Aug. 25.

Captain Judd To Return as County Clerk

Capt. Harlan Judd, Marion county clerk, in absentia much of the time since he was first elected to that office in 1940, is to be released from the army October 9 and plans to return to his office here on or about December 1, he has notified Acting County Clerk Henry Mattson.

Judd and his family have been living at Ft. Smith, Ark., where he has been stationed during most of the war.

3 Clerks Served
During his two periods of army service since, as a reserve officer, he left shortly after the guard, late in 1940, three county clerks have served on pro tempore basis. U. G. Boyer, retiring county clerk, first held the office until Judd had returned to Salem after his first year in uniform.

Judd returned about the time of the Pearl Harbor attack and one of his deputies, Lee Ohmart, succeeded him when he returned to the army. Ohmart, resigning in 1943, was succeeded by Henry Mattson. During his absence, Judd has been re-elected.

Resignation Revealed
Arthur Roethlin, a deputy in the office since Jan. 2, 1941, submitted his resignation October 1 to become effective November 1, it was revealed Tuesday. Roethlin, a law student and a man with a family, who has carried the circuit court clerk assignment in the clerk's office, is to join Ohmart in the real estate business and will continue his law studies, he said Monday. Announcement of his resignation had been held up for word concerning Judd's plans, so that routine in the office might not be too much disturbed by interviewing and breaking in a new employe, Mattson said. Roethlin came to the clerk's office from the tax department of the sheriff's office, where he had been employed four years.

Wait Seen for Families Of Occupation Troops
VIENNA, Oct. 8—(AP)—Assistant U. S. Secretary of War John J. McCloy said today that "some equitable means" would be devised to bring the families of occupational troops to Europe, but added that there was little prospect it could be done this winter.

McCloy said the war department was conducting a survey of physical properties in Germany and Austria for billeting and feeding such families.

German Admits Killing 15 GIs
ROME, Oct. 8—(AP)—A German naval officer testified at the war crimes trial of Nazi Gen. Anton Dostler today that 15 American soldiers captured behind German lines in Italy last year were shot without trial on orders from Dostler's headquarters.

Dostler, first German general to be tried for a war crime in western Europe, and defendant in the first Allied war crimes trial in the Mediterranean area, earlier pleaded innocent to charges he ordered the execution.

Steel Down Due To Coal Strike
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 8—(AP)—Tons of steel intended for such reconversion products as new automobiles and refrigerators were lost today as the still-spreading 18-day-old coal shutdown forced the closing of more steel mills.

The Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation, biggest steel-making subsidiary of U. S. Steel, announced the death of coking coal was causing it the loss of 60,000 tons of ingot steel this week.

Mass layoffs of steel workers began as Carnegie-Illinois closed its Farrell, Pa., plant and two steel plate mills at Homestead. Some 2700 to 3000 men were furloughed today.

Return of Volcanic Activity At Crater Lake Speculated

CRATER LAKE, Oct. 8—(AP)—Reports of a gas or smoke cloud hovering over Crater Lake gave rise today to speculation on possible return of volcanic activity in the region.

Park Superintendent E. P. Leavitt said three persons, all qualified observers, have reported seeing the cloud, and their statements have eliminated many other causes which might have been responsible for the occurrence.

"The strange, dust-colored cloud first was observed by a fire-lookout," Leavitt said. "Miss Linda Newhall reported the cloud as seemingly forming on or coming from the lake waters. At that time the lake was calm, the weather clear, and there was no storm or fog. It was not a dust cloud caused by a slide of rock or pumice, as the cloud was near the center of the lake, far from the walls."

At that point the lake is about six miles wide and almost 2000 feet deep, Leavitt said, adding that "Miss Newhall reported that the cloud rose sharply, then mushroomed out and finally spread and drifted away with the wind currents."

The logbook's story later was corroborated by Dale Vincent, writer, photographer and naturalist, and by Park Ranger Kenneth Hulbert.

Vincent saw the cloud on a clear day. Hulbert, unable to believe his eyes, toured the lake rim and viewed the phenomena from many angles.

"No explanation for the strange and unusual cloud seems plausible except that a blurb of smoke or gas was released from some of the vents on the floor of the old extinct or dormant crater and passed through the water to escape to the air above," Leavitt said.

10 Apply for Veteran Loans
Ten applications for veterans' loans, World War II, had been received by the state department of veterans affairs up to last Saturday night of which two have been referred to the state land board for appraisal, Hugh Bosson, department director, announced here Monday.

All loans, for the purchase of farms and homes, based on a maximum 75 per cent of the property appraisal, must be approved by Bosson before being authorized. The loans are restricted to $3000 and must be repaid within 20 years with interest at 4 per cent.

Only Oregon residents, with other qualifications, are eligible to receive these loans. A bond issue of $1,000,000 already has been authorized to finance the loans and other bonds will be issued later.

What about me?

Life looks pretty scary from where you sit, doesn't it, son? Dad's been overseas for months. And now Mom's so sick she has to go to the hospital. So, what's to become of you?

Don't you worry. You've a lot of friends who don't know about it! Thoughtful, generous people who will make sure you're cared for while Mom's away.

You're going visting! To a fine foster home, with folks who love and understand young fellows like you. They have toys waiting... a tree to climb... maybe even a dog!

So, chin up, soldier! Everything's going to be all right!

Yes, everything will be all right for him, and the thousands of cases like his—as long as you continue to support the agencies that make this help possible.

These services were here before the war and they will be continued afterward, but their needs in wartime have been greatly multiplied. This year, more than ever, they need your contributions.

Don't let them down. Give today!
