

Beavers Upset Webfoots 19-6

Stevens, Reiman, Stiner Line Shine

In the initial quarter. After stopping three Duck series' cold the OSC's opened up with six minutes left. Taking over one of two very poor Leicht punts during the game on the Oregon 48, the Beavers drove to touchdown in 12 plays. Stevens ramming over Austin's right tackle spot for the final eight yards on a fourth down play. A 13 yard end around play, with Dick Lorenz going off the short side, was a big help en route. Lorenz' attempted conversion was blocked.

The Beavers came right back again in the second period after Leicht's second bad punt and drove to the 16 from the 49. But there, just as it appeared the Beavers were going to score again, Stevens fumbled and Gene Gillis of Bend recovered for the Ducks to end the threat. The teams were exchanging midfield drives at the half.

Oregon, up to now unable to get out of her own back yard because of that sterling Beaver line play finally made it three plays into the second half. Stevens fumbled and Dan Neuman of Albany recovered for Oregon on the OSC 42. That was the igniting spark the Ducks had been trying to find. With Leicht and Walt Donovan teaming to take advantage of the big break, the Ducks rolled to score in 10 plays. Leicht sparkless of 12, 8, 8 and finally 14 yards paying off. That final 14 was a beauty as Leicht outsped the OSC left flank and ballet danced by three Beaver tacklers on the five to drive over. Abbey's attempted placekick, very important at the time, was soundly and conclusively blocked by Austin.

Oregon got to the Beaver 42 and Oregon State got as far as the Duck 36 later on in the period, but both drives were halted. The Ducks were playing more inspired football now. The Beavers were still on the hot side, however, and picked up a great break with 12 minutes left to play.

Negro Bobby Reynolds, trying from his own 45, fumbled and Hal Puddy recovered for OSC. On the first play Dick Gray galloped to his right on a pet Stiner pass-run optional, stopped, whirled and tossed 28 yards to Reiman on the Oregon 22. Reiman had sneaked in behind Leicht and Donovan. Three plays gained nothing, but on the fourth the Beavers pulled one out of the bag. Strictly hocus-pocus with what seemed like four guys carrying the ball all at once, Rouse suddenly flipped a pass to Gray, behind Donovan, on the Oregon three and over he went with 12.6. Specialist Stan McGuire placekicked the 13th point.

Still fizzling, the Beavers two plays later intercepted a now desperate heave on their own 32. Gray glomming and galloping back to the Duck 11! Silvertown's DeWayne Johnson, rushed by the Beaver forwards, made the ill-fated heave. But OSC couldn't make it pay off and Stevens was one yard short of a first down on the Oregon three on fourth down.

Leicht kicked out to the OSC 37 and this time the amazing Beavers weren't to be denied. Reiman for 10 on a churning drive, Hamblin for 13 on another, Reiman for nine again—this one injuring Leicht and sending him from the game with Oregon's last hope—and Rouse for five. Then with third and goal to go on the eight, Stevens turned sprinter, out-

State Prep Football Picture Shaping Up

By the Associated Press
Several Oregon district title contenders emerged from Friday's prep school grid games, and a few teams were bumped from the undefeated list. In district three's northern division two unbeaten teams met, and Hillsboro's title hopes were smashed by McMinnville's Grizzlies, 14-7. The Grizzlies, over the toughest hurdle on their schedule, now top the dope sheet for division honors.

Portland's Central Catholic, previously unbeaten in the same division, dropped a notch when steamrollered by Corvallis, 28-0. Columbia prep of Portland easily beat Parkrose, 37-0. In Portland, Jefferson upset Washington, 21-0; and Grant downed Lincoln 47-6 to become the only unbeaten city squad.

With the powerful Medford Tornados walloping Eureka, Cal., 38-0, and gaining a four-game aggregate score of 198—other district champs moved ahead. Corvallis and Eugene jumped aboard the victory train in district three's southern division. The Axemen's 7-0 defeat of Albany moved them into a tie with Corvallis and Salem at the top of the no-name league.

A Springfield eleven with a mediocre record bashed Roseburg from the unbeaten ranks, 13-12, while Grants Pass won its first tilt of the season by edging Klamath Falls, 13-12. At Camas, Wash., a thrice-beaten St. Helens squad overpowered a team which has downed several rugged Oregon elevens, 14-13. The Dalles did not live up to predictions in its 20-0 win over Prineville. Hood River trumped the same team by more than double that score last week, then went on to beat Gresham this week 25-12.

In eastern Oregon Pendleton, regarded as a title-threat, failed to improve its position when held at a 12-12 tie by La Grande.

'Down River' Swim for 'Y'

Mayor I. M. Doughton will fire the starting gun for the Salem Y swimmers in the annual "Down the Mississippi" Endurance Swim Contest beginning Monday.

The unique race is sponsored by the Lawson YMCA of Chicago. Last year 57 associations from the U.S. and Canada took part. The swimming is done in the local pools, over a map course down the Mississippi River from Minneapolis and St. Paul to New Orleans, a distance of 2400 miles. Advancement in the race is according to the proportion of physical department users who swim at least a length of the pool and the average distance they swim. Last year the local association finished well in the upper third.

"Y" members including men, women, boys and girls have been invited to get in at the start Monday at 4:30.

raced the Oregon left flank and scored standing up. There was exactly one second left in the game when he hit the end zone with OSC's 19th point. McGuire had two tries at the conversion but missed both.

That was it, this 48th meeting, and it was an Oregon State ball game despite what the pre-game odds tried to say. Back in 1942 the Beavers again displayed the "you-never-know" proverb with a shocking 39-2 victory in the last prewar game played. What happened today only proved the two rivals aren't going to let a little thing like odds enter into their footballing.

Huskies Upset Cougars, 6-0

the whole show when he intercepted a bullet-like pass by Bill Lippincott, Cougar halfback, on the Washington 43 and a moment later broke through the middle of the WSC defense, shook off a couple of tacklers, and raced a zig-zag path to victory. It made no difference that Wally Dash's placekick missed the mark.

It was a stunning upset for the warriors of Coach Phil Sorboe, and if you spell "stun" backwards you will get the reaction of the Cougars who had been riding undefeated in the Pacific Coast conference race.

Some 34,000 fans watched a battle of pass interceptions, fumbles and goaline stands before the Huskies broke through for the long tally.

full-fledged effort to revive the sport in the village is already under way, and under the direction of none other than Harry Plant, the gent who promoted both boxing and wrestling for nine years in Salem during the 1930s.

"The fight game is coming back," assures Harry in a post-war tone, "and I'm going to do my best to see that it doesn't miss Salem. No reason in the world why we can't have more of those great fights of old—the kind that drew two and three thousand dollar houses—and have them regularly," offers the likeable mister who at one time stabled such remembered worthies as Bill Beys, Teddy Fox, Buddy and Bobby Ambrose, "Fireman" Bill Hunt, Jackie Waterberger and Jackie Woods.

"My talent will not be the so kind, not at all. I'm going to use local corners from Salem, Woodburn, Stayton, Dallas, Mill City, etc., and they'll be paid well for their fights. None of this seven-dollar-a-fight stuff for me. Any one interested in fighting can get in touch with me starting right now by calling me at 8215 or writing me at Route 4, Box 8, Salem. "There won't be any fights until we have good fighters and in good condition. That will be up to me and I'd like to get in touch with anyone interested."

Plant, who does to stray where others have lost their shirts in the past five years, will work hand in hand with the Veterans of Foreign Wars, holders of the boxing permit in our town. The once popular promoter, dead serious about his comeback, has been working on the Lakebrook Hop Ranch north of town the past few years. We hope he makes it.

Uclans Smack Cal Bear 13-0

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 13—(AP)—Led by their hard driving half-back, Cal Rossi, who personally accounted for both touchdowns, the speedy UCLA Bruins today tamed their big brothers from Berkeley, the California Bears, 13 to 0.

Rossi, running up 101 yards from scrimmage—more than the entire California backfield—scored on a ten yard swing around left end in the second quarter, and duplicated on the identical play from the Cal 11 yard line in the third quarter. Quarterback Ernie Case place kicked the 13th point.

The Bruins' first touchdown culminated a 40-yard march in six plays with Case's recovery of a wild Bear lateral, setting up the drive. Rossi's touchdown run was made possible by devastating blocking by Halfback Skip Rowland and Guard Al Sparlis.

SALES INCREASE NOTED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13—(AP)—Oregon independent retailers reported a 7 per cent sales increase for August over the same month last year, the census bureau said today. This was a 5 per cent gain over July, 1945.
