"Thanksgiving," Name Given Loan by Speaker

The Eighth or "Victory" War Loan scheduled for November might well be called a "Thanksgiving" loan, Mrs. Pat O'Brien, charming wife of the screen star, believes.

This is only a portion of the message she brought to Salem women war bond workers Tuesday afternoon. Women, she said, should be unusually good merchandisers of the bonds they sell during the next campaign.

for they can wholeheartedly support any movement designed to bring home the men from battle fronts, to provide the best in hospitalization, rehabilitation and education for veterans and to supply men who must remain with armies of occupation.

One of the government's great needs for immediate financial assistance rises from the fact that with the termination of war, contacts all war contractors must be paid, she pointed out.

Mrs. O'Brien, former actress of the legitimate stage, was accompanied to Salem by Mrs. Mary Lee Willis and Mrs. Ellen MacVeach, chairman of the women's division for the state war finance committee.

The three were guests at a luncheon at the Lions Den, with approximately 40 women war fund workers of Marion and Polk counties in attendance.

Mrs. Henry Kayser, active in the Marion county women's division, presided at the U-shaped table on which bronze dahlias, fall leaves and gold Victory V's were used in profusion.

Mrs. Medora Hyett accompanied the group for the singing of America preceding the luncheon. Following Mrs. O'Brien's informal address, Mrs. James E. Bunnell showed an army signal corps picture distributed by the treasury department's war finance division.

Mrs. Frieda Petersen, Polk county women's chairman, and Mrs. E. J. Enstad, both of Dallas, were guests of the Marion group.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeArmond have had as their house guests Mr. DeArmond's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. DeArmond of Bend, who are en route to the Oregon Bar association conference at Gearhart. Lt. and Mrs. W. R. Nance, Mr. DeArmond's brother-in-law and sister, have also been here. Lt. Nance is with the navy and now on leave.

Lt. Wilson Siegmund, USNR, has been discharged and with Mrs. Siegmund and their young son have moved to 374 North 18th street. He will be with the department of audits, secretary of state's office.

Sounds like a telephone number—and it's true that telephone traffic is heavy when a shipload of servicemen arrive from overseas. But, in this case, MAIN-3995 designates a railroad train.

All special troop trains which carry servicemen from Atlantic or Pacific ports to a redeployment (or separation) center are given a number by military authorities, and all numbers carry the MAIN prefix.

These trains, operating day and night, require a great deal of available railroad equipment. On top of that, it is the job of Union Pacific, and other railroads, to further transport the servicemen from the redeployment centers to their homes.

There are still hundreds of thousands of men to be transported from East and West. Union Pacific, a transcontinental railroad, will be called upon to carry a large share of the load.

Civilian travel conditions are much improved and greater improvement is in sight. But if you still find it difficult to obtain transportation when required, you'll know there's a very important reason. We all want to get those boys home as quickly as possible.
