HOME PROBLEMS

The increasing number of servicemen that are being discharged each month calls far more and more homes and the biggest problem of all in this connection is the financing. The GIs who have had only about $50 per month have naturally not had opportunity to save up much far a down payment. They should have an opportunity to set up homes for themselves and their families instead of moving in with their in-laws where their families have in many cases been liv-

If you have money idle in the bank and have a serviceman friend who do a home, why not buy one and let him buy it from you on a contract with a down payments as he can make?

SPECIAL PROBLEM

We have a family that needs immediately a 2 or 3 bedroom he seres at around $5000. Will consider south of town.
