Grain Futures Sustain Rise

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.-(AP)-Grain futures today sustained an advance that began Saturday, with all grains except corn climbing more than a cent a bushel under stimulation of government demand for cash wheat and reports the government would entertain offers of oats at Duluth.

Cash wheat and oats also were strong. Part of the wheat futures buying apparently was lifting of hedges against sale of 1,775,000 bushels of wheat to the government in the northwest Saturday, including 1,525,000 bushels of spring wheat and 250,000 bushels of winter grain. The government now has bought about 12,000,000 bushels for export since Oct. 10.

Trade was restricted somewhat due to uncertainty over legislative developments. Traders had expected President Truman might issue a statement on wages and prices today, and that it might give some clue on farm prices, but it was announced the statement would be issued later.

Wheat closed 1/2 to 11/2 cents higher than the previous finish, 1/4 to 1/2, December $1.181/4, oats were ahead % to 11/4 cent, December 63%-%, rye was. % up to 1/2 down, December $1.59-$1.58 36, and barley was 34 to 11/2 cent. higher, December $1.161/2.
