

Hitch Hiker Repays Kindness By Taking Priest's Automobile

GERVAIS, Oct. 24.—A man in an army uniform, who accepted a ride and later an invitation to spend the night, repaid the Rev. Martin Doherty, pastor of Sacred Heart church here, by taking the priest's automobile. The car was recovered by the insurance company at Olympia, Wash., and was undamaged.

Father Doherty, who is a former police reporter on a Chicago newspaper, was returning from a speaking trip when he met and offered the man a ride. Arriving at the rectory in Gervais he suggested the man might like to spend the night. When the man who wore an army uniform was late in arising the next morning Father Doherty investigated only to find the man gone as also his 1940 sedan.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—(AP)—

A bill approving retirement protection for all Bonneville Power Administration construction, operation and maintenance workers has been signed into law by President Truman.

RUBBER MILLS PLANNED

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 24—(AP)—Work on a new $200,000 Griffith Rubber Mills factory here should be completed early in 1946, Manager Z. A. Wise said today. The plant would employ 180 men.

Japan is one of the most completely forested nations, rivaling even Finland and Sweden.

Navy Text Used By Silverton Man Wins Jap Cigarettes

MT. ANGEL.—Japanese words learned from a text book used by the U. S. navy and which he found after the surrender of Corregidor, won a package of cigarettes for Sgt. Marion Hoblitt when he tried the new knowledge on a Japanese prison guard. This was the story the Silverton marine, recently released from a prisoner of war camp, told members of the Mt. Angel Business Men's club this week. When the marines were ordered out of Shanghai in November, 1941, they considered it a virtual "clear the decks for war," Hoblitt told the group. The first Japanese words were increased until the Oregon man was used as an interpreter.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 24—(AP)—Mrs. Henry J. Kaiser, wife of the shipbuilder, will sponsor the Bent's Fort Saturday last ship to be launched at Swan Island yard. Kaiser will be the launching speaker.

Stevenson to Head College at Ashland

PORTLAND, Oct. 24—(AP)—New president of Southern Oregon College of Education, named today by the state board of higher education, is Dr. Elmo N. Stevenson, 41, head of the Oregon State college science education department. He succeeds Walter Redford, who will retire Jan. 1, after holding the position 14 years. The board granted Redford a sabbatical leave on half salary from Jan. 1, 1946, to Dec. 31, 1946. Dr. Stevenson, who joined the OSC faculty in 1940, has also been personnel coordinator and director of student teaching.

CHILD LABOR CHARGED

PORTLAND, Oct. 24—(AP)—The U. S. department of labor today brought suit charging the Oregon Fibre Flax Growers association with violating child labor laws. Federal court issued an injunction for the association to stop employing youngsters under 16. The flax company did not contest the charge.

The number of telephones in Argonia doubled between 1929 and 1943.

Dentists Lack Place to Practice

PORTLAND, Oct. 24—(AP)—Lack of office space brought complaints today from a number of dentists back from service who said they had equipment and plenty of patients—but no place to set up practice. "Even a little room over a drug store" would do temporarily, said Dr. Samuel A. Brandon, president of the Portland district dental society. The society appealed to dentists here to share their offices and named a committee to find vacant rooms.
