THE CANARY SPECIALIZES IN THE ART OF SINGING

"To sing successfully," trilled the canary, "you must specialize in vocalizing." The success of Hills Bros. in producing coffee is because they specialize only in buying, blending, roasting, and packing of the finest coffees obtainable. No wonder every pound has the same matchless flavor. No wonder drinkers of Hills Bros. Coffee say—"Now that's what I call good coffee!"

Willamette Sororities To Rush

Open houses at the chapters of Willamette university's four sororities Friday afternoon will inaugurate Panhellenic rush weekend on the campus. The four houses are Alpha Chi Omega, Chi Omega, Delta Phi and Pi Beta Phi. The Delta Phi chapter will be formally installed as Delta Gamma on November 10, making all four sororities on the campus members of the national organization.

Officers of Panhellenic are Dorothy Egan, president; Pat Ann Sly, treasurer; Dorothy McDrow, secretary; Carolyn Brady, rush chairman, and Dean Olive M. Dahl, advisor.

The remainder of Friday's rush program will be two evening firesides at each of the sororities, the first beginning at 7:30 p. m. and the second at 9:30 p. m.

An indoor picnic at each house is scheduled from 12:30 until 3 Saturday afternoon with a repetition of Friday night's firesides planned for Saturday evening at the same hours. Sunday events will feature teas at the sororities from 3 until 4 o'clock in the afternoon and formal dinners in the evening beginning at 7:30.

Rites Read in Fireplace Room

The wedding of Thedamary Lee, daughter of Mrs. Elsie Richey, and Mr. Pomanodas Housseas was solemnized Saturday afternoon, October 20, at 3 o'clock in the fireplace room of the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. Chester Hamblin officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a soldier blue crepe dressmaker suit with black hat and accessories. Her flowers were gardenias and red rosebuds. Mrs. Elsie Richey was her daughter's matron of honor. She wore a blue velvet dress with matching hat and accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Mr. William Richey attended the groom.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother. The couple will make their home in California.

Halloween Party For Children

On Saturday afternoon the young children of St. Paul's Episcopal Sunday school will be honored at a gala Halloween party at the parish house from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock. The guests will come in costume and refreshments will be served during the afternoon.

— NEW WINTER POLICY —
NOW IN EFFECT

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF MARION COUNTY

Dear Friends:
We wish to thank you for your past patronage. The confidence you have placed in us by your overwhelming attendance during the past nine months leaves us no alternative as to our future policy. We feel all of you should share in some measure our wonderful success. Your cooperation makes all this possible. So, we are inaugurating our new winter policy by reducing our prices on food, admissions and beverages. We shall continue, though, to maintain the same high quality, service and standard of our dinners and floor show entertainment. We shall continue to conduct our establishment in good taste and refinement. We never have and never will tolerate rowdism. We find our greatest pleasure in knowing you and serving you honestly.
