Previously a miscellaneous shower was given for Miss Scheidel at the home of Mrs. Fred Broer, jr.

William Fawk

Interesting Concert Sunday

What promises to be one of the nicest of concerts scheduled in Salem for this fall is the organ-piano-voice recital to be given at the First Evangelical church at 3:30 on Sunday afternoon.

William Fawk, organist for the church, will be featured at the recital. He will play several groups on the newly re-built organ, declared now to be one of the best instruments in Salem. Assisting Mr. Fawk will be Josephine Albert Spaulding, mezzo soprano, and Elizabeth Lewis Jepson, pianist.

The concert is free, and the public is invited.

The following program will be given:

- Choral—"Come Lord Jesus"—Bach
- Meditation—William Fawk
- Aria—"Oh Lord, Correct Me"—Handel
- But The Lord is Mindful of His Own—Mendelssohn
- Agnes Dei—Bisot
- Josephine Albert Spaulding
- Freddie Sketch Ho. 1—Cokery
- Memento Gothicque (Gothique Suite)—Boellman
- Jagged Peaks in the Starlight—Cokery
- William Fawk
- Duo—Kamennoi—Ostrow—Rubinstein
- Elizabeth Lewis Jepson—piano
- William Fawk—organ
- So Near To God Am I—Evells
- The Lord's Prayer—Mallets
- Josephine Albert Spaulding
- The Walk to Jerusalem—Bach
- Marche Triumphant—Karp-Bert
- William Fawk

Major and Mrs. Wilmer McDowell (Myra Madsen) and their children, Rupert Arthur and Sandra Maureen, are being welcomed back to the capital. They have been living in Greenville, South Carolina where he was stationed at the army air base. Major McDowell is now on inactive status. They are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Madsen and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McDowell until they are located.

Will Fly to Meeting

Mrs. William G. Stacey will leave by plane Sunday for Seattle. From there she will go to Renton to attend the Pacific Northwest Boxer meeting on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Stacey is treasurer of the newly organized group made up of those interested in the breeding of Boxer dogs. Mrs. Stacey will join her wife in Renton and they will return to Salem on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harland entertained members of the Knight Memorial church choir at an informal gathering Thursday night at their State street home. Refreshments were served later in the evening to twenty guests.

Immediate Sunday school students of St. Paul's Episcopal church were entertained at a Halloween party Friday night at the parish house. Miss Janice Patterson was in charge of arrangements.

Valdez-Coon Rites Today

The wedding of Miss Norma Coon to Mr. Benny Valdez, seamstress first class, USN, son of Mrs. Edith Valdez, will take place tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Salvation Army citadel. Captain R. B. Leshner will officiate. The groom is a former Salem high school athlete.
