By Mossler Argument Ends Airways. On Proposed Airline Routes

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26-(AP)-Final arguments on applications for new airlines on the west coast and Pacific northwest were concluded today before the civil aeronauties board.

All applications for both trunk and local airlines in the region were consolidated into one case by the board for the hearing which opened Monday. With the hearing's end today, the board food. took them under advisement for a decision.

Robert Hankins, attorney employed by the board to represent the public's interest, appeared today in support of a CAB examiner's recommendations for local airlines to be operated on the coast by Southwest Airways and
