CHIN UPERS ENJOY PARTY

The Chin Up club of Oregon had a thoroughly successful Halloween party Saturday night in Portland at Carlin hall, members here said Thursday. Members attended in costume and staged a comical program, dotted with big laughs; and numerous prizes were given. Friends provided their private automobiles to help with the transportation and Floyd Hamman of Salem provided a private bus for Salem and Woodburn members. Gov. Earl Snell and Floyd J. Cook assisted with other expenses of the bus. Fred Camp of Stayton and Albert Roisum of Portland were hosts for the party. One hundred fifty persons attended.
