Profit Cashing Drops Leaders In Stock Mart

NEW YORK, Nov. 2-(A)-Air transports and specialties posted new peaks for more than eight years in today's stock market, but many leaders were thrown for losses by profit cashing on the lengthy swing.

Dealings were fast after the opening with the ticker tape, for the first time since last July 17, falling a minute behind. The pace soon slowed. Transfers of 1,840,-000 shares compared with 2,210,-000 Thursday, best volume since June 28.

Inflation psychology, imminence of tax relief, earnings and dividends remained as buying factors. Insistence of OPA and the commerce department that industry generally could absorb proposed wage boosts without increasing prices, chilled sentiment a bit. Mainly, accounts were trimmed on the belief the recent lively bulge called for a technical cor-
