Travellers Return to Capital

 Autumn travelers are being welcomed back to the capital after trips in the south and east.
 Mrs. Harry V. Collins arrived in Salem Saturday after a fortnight's stay in San Francisco at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bradford C. Collins.

While in the bay city Mrs. Collins attended the opening of the opera season and visited other cities in the bay area. Her daughter-in-law entertained informally at tea one day in her honor, with a group of former Salem residents, now living in San Francisco, making up the guest list. Mrs. Ronald Gemmell presided at the tea urn. Mrs. Gemmell was also a tea hostess in honor of Mrs. Collins

Mrs. Randle Reelected President

The Salem Council of Church Women observed the annual World Community Day Friday at the First Christian church, with the president, Mrs. L. H.

Randle, presiding. The principle address was given by Dr. William G. Everson, of Portland, speaking on "The World Church in the World Community." Dr., Everson told of his experiences visiting service camps and talking with service men who have returned from the war fronts and spoke of their reactions to race and religious prejudice. In closing he said; there is no other way to settle world problems and improve world conditions until sane thinking is tied to the church of Jesus Christ. Man alone can never bring about enduring peace."

Preceding the address, the Rev. George H. Swift told of his visit to the United Nations conference held in San Francisco and related many interesting and instructive events that brought about the formation of the United Nations charter. He told the audience that the United Nations charter is indispensable since the atomic bomb and it is our duty to make it live.

During the day reports were given by the chairmen of all standing committees, election of officers and installation by the Rev. Dudley Strain. Pending amendments to the Oregon State constitution were discussed and special guests were introduced.

The morning devotions were led by Mrs. Dudley Strain and the afternoon devotions were led by Mrs. Laura Trachsel. Special music during the day consisted of a vocal solo by Mrs. Arthur Linerode, duet by the Rev. and Mrs. Wilmer Brown and a solo by Miss Frances Dulancy. Mrs. John Schmidt presided at the organ

Election of officers resulted in the following: president, Mrs. L. H. Randle, reelected; 1st vice president, Mrs. W. A. Gueffroy; 2nd vice president, Mrs. B. F. Shoemaker; recording secretary, Mrs. L. W. Wise, corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. O. Welling; treasurer, Mrs. Stanley Morris; auditor, Mrs. Mason Bishop; financial secretary, Mrs. W. L.
