

Returns Home From Trip to Middle West

The Rev. J. M. Goodheart, pastor of Englewood United Brethren church, will occupy the pulpit Sunday after an absence of almost a month during which time he visited relatives in Illinois and California and preached in various United Brethren churches enroute.

In an Armistice day message at the 11 o'clock service, Mr. Goodheart will have as his subject, "History and Four Familiar Proverbs." Sunday at 7:30 p. m. he will begin a series of fireside sermons on the general subject, "Life Can Be Better."

The first sermon is "Getting the Best of the Worst." Later the youth of the church will remain and go to the social rooms for the first of the fall and winter Sunday night "youth round-up" meetings, a youth fellowship with Mrs. Pero, youth director and Miss Westphal, assistant youth director in charge.

Next Monday Mr. Goodheart will begin a tour of the districts of Oregon and Washington and Idaho, to hold fall youth district rallies throughout this area. As youth director for these three states for the second year, he will organize the United Brethren young people into "fishermen band" units throughout the churches in a denominational Christian Youth crusade. He will be out of the city all week on this mission.

Dr. John MacArthur To Speak at Jason Lee

Dr. John F. MacArthur, who is speaking each night at the United Revival meeting at the First Baptist church will preach Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Jason Lee Methodist church.

Rev. Clayton Booth of the Evangelistic party will sing two numbers. Dr. MacArthur has recently closed an evangelistic campaign in the Portland auditorium. The public is invited to hear these guests Sunday.
