Oregon Swine Growers Make Plans for Fair

By Lillian L. Madsen
Farm Editor, The Statesman
Election of officers, arrangement for a bred gilt sale, appointment of committees and plans for 1946 showings at the Oregon State fair as well as the Pacific International occupied Tuesday afternoon for the Oregon Swine Growers association in the first meeting held since October 1, 1940. Minutes showed that the last meeting was held to promote the use of pork and lard.

Elmer Ridder of Sherwood was re-elected president of the group. His assisting officers will be vice president, F. L. Zielinski of St. Paul; secretary-treasurer, Al Oliver of Corvallis, and directors, Elmer Stangle of Wilsonville and Roy Frankie of Salem.

Plan Sale
The group voted to hold an annual bred gilt sale before the middle of February, the sale to be held at the state fair grounds and to be open to members of the association only. Appointed to serve as the sales' committee for 1946 were Charles Evans, Salem, chairman; Warren Kreech, Salem; H. D. Barnes, Silverton, and Ben Newell, assistant county agent. Oliver, Ridder and a member of the state veterinarian department will serve as the sifting committee. The Marion County Livestock association will be asked to assist in the sponsorship of the 1946 sale. The association also voted to ask the state fair board to have the swine building vacated and put in order as soon as possible. Approximately 40 gilts will be consigned for the sale, members indicated.

Speaker
Harry Lindgren, Oregon State college, spoke briefly on the outlook of the swine industry in Oregon, pointing out that this outlook is bright on basis of an increase of from 75,000 to 100,000 in the state. Unless such an increase is made, the future will be dark in Oregon, Lindgren believed.

"We do not have enough hogs now to utilize the farm waste. There are now only 194,000 hogs in the state and the waste could carry about 275,000," Lindgren said. He admitted, however, that it took about 100 pounds in pork to equal 650 in grain if the raiser was to break even.

Salem and West Salem Open 7:30 A. M. to 9 P. M. Closed Thanksgiving

"In this envelope, a 6-room house — no fooling!"

"Yep. That's what I said. A 6-room house... And a nice, quiet garden, with a hammock slung between two trees. The kind of place we've always dreamed of: a place that's ours, a place that's a part of us, a place for the kids to grow up in, away from the city streets and the noise. For this envelope is full of Victory Bonds. 'E' Bonds that we're going to keep until maturity, when they'll pay us back four dollars for every three we invested. And we're going to go on buying more all the time. It's surprising how quickly the money mounts up, if you've just got a little resolution and stick-to-it-iveness. We could ease off on our Bond buying, of course; but don't worry—we're not going to! That's why, about ten years from now, a lot of folks are going to call us lucky! Folks that may not have made out so well. But, shucks—it won't be luck. It's just common sense. And the little bit of gumption it takes to resist the small temptations to spend money instead of saving it—in Bonds!"
