

Hansons Visit In Washington

Four Corners Couple On Holiday Trip To Seattle

FOUR CORNERS — Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hanson of Monroe avenue spent the holiday with his brother and family in Vancouver. Mrs. August Mahrt returned to her home in Seattle after spending several days with her husband's mother, Mrs. Iva Mahrt. Evangelist Duff completed a very successful week of revival meetings at the Four Corners Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. J. Adelhart returned to St. Helens after visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Morris, on LaBranche avenue. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Walker and family entertained at dinner on Thursday. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Walker and Bonita, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Cable, Orville Schell, Ray Walker, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bradford who recently returned from Port Chicago after his discharge from the navy.

Valley Briefs

Mission Bottom Festival — The Mission Bottom Community club will hold its annual festival Friday night, November 30. Hobbies of members will be featured and a program presented. Farm produce will be displayed and a "hot dog" will be held.

Pie Social Planned — A pie social and box supper will be held Saturday night, December 1, at 7:30 at the Bridgeport Farmers Union hall. The 4-H canning and sewing club is sponsoring the social. Motion pictures will be shown by Russell Daulton, assistant county agent and Polk club leader.

Community Club Meets — The Pioneer Community club will meet November 30 at John Calavans. A program is planned and cookies and sandwiches will be served.

Logging Camps Down — Weather conditions are still keeping logging camps in the Mill City area down and the Mill City Manufacturing Co. mill closed a week ago because of shortage of logs.

Friday Party Planned — The Evangelical youth fellowship of Jefferson will entertain at a no-host turkey dinner Friday night at the church parlors. A program will be presented.

Stoy Injured — J. E. Stoy of Silverton injured his leg while unloading freight and is confined to his home.

Auxiliary Bazaar Planned — The Aurora auxiliary of the American Legion will hold a bazaar Saturday night, December 1, in the Legion hall.

White Elephant Sale — The Lincoln community club is sponsoring a white elephant sale and pie social at the school house Friday night.

Mid-Willamette Valley News

From The Statesman's Community Correspondents

Returning Mt. Angel Veterans To Be Honored by Community

MT. ANGEL—Father Hildebrand outlined plans for a banquet for the returned servicemen at the Business Men's club Monday and suggested the club sponsor it as a community affair. The club volunteered to give the executive committee full authority to offer whatever contribution it deemed necessary. Father Hildebrand's tentative plans are for a banquet at the auditorium during Christmas week, the hall to be festively decorated and with due recognition to those boys who will never return, band music to give it a real civic air and possibly a parade. It was also suggested to invite the veterans of World War I.

Sublimity KC Council Takes In 20 Members

STAYTON—A large gathering of Knights of Columbus of the valley was present here Sunday afternoon, November 25, to witness exemplification of the three degrees of the order on 20 new members for the local Sublimity council of the order. The first and second degrees were conferred by the officers of Mt. Angel council with the major degree being conferred by John R. Murphy, past grand knight of Portland council, assisted by Sylvester Smith, jr., of Salem.

Following the conferring of the degrees, a buffet luncheon was served in the council chambers by the lecturer's committee, headed by Raymond Kerber and Sam Bridges.

Among prominent Knights of Columbus of the state who attended were: State Deputy Clarence Brown; special insurance representative of the supreme office, Dr. A. L. Elvin; State Secretary W. D. Harris, Mt. Angel; State Treasurer Sylvester Smith, sr., St. Paul; Grand Knights Fred Rupp of Salem council and Pat McCarthy of St. Paul council; State Catholic Activity Chairman S. J. Merten of St. Paul.

Ted Etzel was local membership chairman and much of the success of the class has been attributed to his energetic work.

Sunday, December 2, a new class of members will be initiated at Mt. Angel for that council. The program of the day commences with communion mass at 9:30, followed by breakfast and immediately following, the degrees will commence and will continue throughout the afternoon, closing with a banquet in the evening.

Warren McNeils Hosts At Holiday Party

SUNNYSIDE — Thanksgiving day was observed at the Warren McNeil home with a family dinner. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Thomas and daughter of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Chester McNeil and son of Rose Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phillips and Imogene McNeil of Sunnyside. Guests at the McNeil home Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hanson of the Auburn district.

Five Pound Baby Born To Monmouth Mother

MONMOUTH — A daughter, Angetia, was born Saturday, November 24, to Sgt. and Mrs. Robert Flahive at a Salem hospital. Mrs. Flahive has been residing here since July at the home of Mrs. G. L. Russell. Flahive, formerly stationed at Camp Adair in the medical dispensary, is now at Camp Pickett, Va. Their home is in Charlotte, N. C.

The baby, which weighed five pounds and five ounces, was delivered by Caesarian section was placed at once in an incubator.

Woodburn Noble Grands Club Has Election Officers

WOODBURN — Mrs. Frances Luffman has been elected noble grand of the Home Rebekah lodge. Others named are Mrs. Nettie Johnson, vice grand; Mrs. Addie Doud, secretary; Mrs. Myrtle Hall, treasurer; and Mrs. Joyce Engle, financial secretary.

The usual annual tuberculosis Christmas seals will be purchased. Plans for the annual Christmas tree and program were made. Gordon Luffman will get the Christmas tree, Mrs. Nina Ringo and Mrs. Joyce Engle will take care of the gifts, Mrs. Freda Burt will be in charge of the program, and Mrs. Gertrude Beach and Mrs. Mabel Wright will buy the candy and nuts.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Engle, Mrs. Luffman and Mrs. Wright; Mrs. Wilma Livesay and Mrs. Mona Mulkey served.

Townsend Club Sends Delegates to Meeting

ALBANY — Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McClain, Mrs. L. M. Hurd and Harlan Talbert will represent the Albany Townsend club at the district council meeting to be held in Cottage Grove on December 9. The four were elected delegates to the session at the recent meeting of the club.

Valley Births

SILVERTON—Born at the Silverton hospital, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Howell, November 23; sons to Mr. and Mrs. George Voz of Silverton and Mr. and Mrs. James Willhite of Brooks, November 25; and a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hasser, Mt. Angel, November 25.

BEST-KNOWN home remedy for relieving misery of children's colds. VICKS VAPORUB

Many Building New Houses in Four Corners

FOUR CORNERS — Several new houses are under construction here just now. S. H. Cable is building a five room house, on Elma avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Geisler have started work on a residence on East Turner road, the Floyd Boyingtons are building a small house in back of the apartment house they completed this summer, and the home of the Wesley Shrunks on Mable avenue is nearing completion.

All of the half-acre tracts on Durbin avenue have been sold and the tracts on Smith avenue are being sold. These streets lead off from East Turner road about a half mile from Four Corners. Work on the drainage system at Rickey school was completed over the weekend, and in spite of the heavy rains on Monday there was no water in the basement. The children appreciate a dry place to play these rainy days.

Rickey Pupils Attend Peter Pan Performance

FOUR CORNERS — Most of the children of Rickey school attended the performance of Peter Pan. Mrs. Guilespie was chaperone to the children in the afternoon and Mrs. DeLapp at night. Mrs. Frank South, Mrs. Harvey Phillips, Mrs. Irene Klingler and Mrs. Guilespie supplied transportation for those who attended the matinee, while the Ralph Mercers, E. E. Walkers, R. B. DeLapps and L. J. Stewart furnished it at night. The pupils more than enjoyed the play and appreciated the efforts made to get them and from the high school.

RETURNS HOME

LIBERTY — Mrs. Joseph Pierre has returned home to Olympia after visiting her brother, Clarence Holder.

Mt. Angel 4H Club Leader Tops 21 Years Work With Trip East

MT. ANGEL—Theresa Dehler, principal of St. Mary's school, left Wednesday afternoon to attend the national 4-H congress at Chicago as one of the two Oregon representatives of club leaders. Miss Dehler topped all leaders in the length and extent of service having served as a leader for 21 years.

During that time she organized 84 clubs with a total enrollment of 1167 members, covering 18 different projects. She also served on the state 4-H board and was state corresponding secretary for one year.

She will join Helen Cowgill, assistant state club leader at Salem Wednesday afternoon and the Oregon delegation of leaders and club members will leave Portland that night for Chicago. An interesting and busy fortnight will follow. Reservations have been made at the Stevens hotel, the world's largest hotel, for the entire stay in Chicago. They will return to Portland December 10. Miss Dehler's position at St. Mary's school will be filled during her absence by her sister, Florenz Dehler, who came home last week after receiving an honorable discharge from the WAVES.

Assembly Held On Wednesday

PRINGLE—A general school assembly was held Wednesday afternoon for the following program. It was announced by Gaynell Helstrom. The flag salute led by Jimmy Kottek, singing by the group. A poem was given by the sixth grade followed by a skit by the first grade pupils. The second and third grade presented a play, "America the Beautiful." Sharlene and Donna Nelson and Marilyn Settlemyer did a tap dance.

Jerry Rawlins and Merle Young recited a poem and a vocal duet was given by Shirley Kimble and Barbara Callaway. The fifth grade students offered a poem and song and the seventh and eighth graders put on a skit.

The program ended with a Thanksgiving song by the upper grade rooms.

KNOWN IN SILVERTON

SILVERTON — Relatives here have recognized in illustrations in the December American the picture of Ann Cromer Goplerud, Osage, Iowa. She has many relatives here who came from Osage.

Seattle Teachers Silverton Visitors

SILVERTON — Inga Goplerud and Mrs. Haaken Larsen returned to their schools in the Puget Sound area Sunday night after spending the holiday with their mother, Mrs. J. C. Goplerud and brother, Walter Goplerud. The two young women will return for the Christmas holiday. Goplerud, who was discharged from the army a month ago, plans to spend the winter at the farm home of his mother. Before his induction he too, taught in Washington state. Another son of Mrs. Goplerud, John C. Goplerud, formerly with the state auditing department in Los Angeles and has been unable to come north this fall and will not come for Christmas.

District Superintendent Visits Turner Church

TURNER—The guest speaker of the morning service at the Methodist church Sunday was the Rev. Roy Fedje, district superintendent of the Methodist church. The fourth quarterly conference was held in the afternoon after a no-host dinner at noon.

Crystal Garden

In Person MCA Presents...

EDDIE MILLER and His Orchestra

TONITE

Adm. $1.50 Inc. Tax Dancing 8 to 12

The Albers Family News

How to Help Build Vitality the "Better Breakfast" Way

Now's the time, more than ever, for smart homemakers to be sure of providing A-1 breakfasts—so that everyone can keep in "tip top" condition. Breakfast should include milk or cream, of course, and orange juice or fruit. Yes, and generous bowls of fine whole grain cereals—like Albers Oats or Albers Carnation Quick Wheat. This fine-tasting kind of breakfast provides Vitamins A, B, C and G—strength-building proteins, lots of food-energy—besides important minerals, iron, calcium and phosphorus. My, but it can contribute handsomely to peak vitality! And for variety, never forget Albers Flapjacks and nice, crispy waffles. You'll say Albers "Buckwheats" are heavenly, too.

Martha Hunt

GRAND NEWS in ALBERS OATS...

...THIS BOWL GIVES YOU BOTH!

- All the growth, stamina, energy BENEFITS OF TRUE OATMEAL
- All the extra TASTE APPEAL OF "CONTROLLED-TOASTING"

Albers products: Albers Corn Flakes, Albers Corn Meal, Albers Wheat, Albers Oats, Albers Flapjacks, Albers Peacock.

Get more go—get a "Bowl of Energy" breakfast with 50% MORE VITAMIN B1 than the whole wheat grain from which it is made. Help everyone feel better, work better. Start serving this delicious quick-cooking flaked wheat cereal to everybody!

CARNATION QUICK WHEAT

Famous FLAPJACKS Family Favorite

Because Albers Flapjack Flour is blended with all 8 famous original ingredients... plus genuine buttermilk flavor.

MADE IN THE WEST... TO PLEASE WESTERN TASTES

Midget Market

INSPIRED 440 ORE.S.D.A.

Salem Retail Packing Plant 351 State St.

NO MORE POINTS

Isn't it a Grand and Glorious Feeling to again be able to buy the kind of meat you prefer? Look over our display of varieties and cuts. A plentiful supply of the following.

Young Pork Steak	Round Veal Steak
Dainty Lean Chops	Loin Veal Steak
All-Pork Sausage	Boneless Loin Steak
SMOKED	Boneless Rump Roast
Seasoning Squares	Fresh Pig Liver
Fresh Pure Lard

A Wide Assortment of Tasty Luncheon Meats and Sausages. Also a Limited Supply of Hard-to-Get Items.

We particularly call your attention to our Boneless top sirloin steaks and boneless rump roasts

No bone, no waste. Net weight in your kitchen.

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF. Take the time to visit our market - - compare the values and compare the quality, too. Thrifty shoppers save every day at the MIDGET.