Over-Heated Stove Destroys Old House

LEBANON, Dec. 1 (Special)—The house on the old Fletcher place, southwest of here, was destroyed by fire Friday night. It was an old frame structure in which the Gilbert Chartraw family had recently been living. An overheated stove caused the fire which completely destroyed the house.

AUXILIARY WILL MEET
FOUR CORNERS, Dec. 1.—The Townsend club auxiliary number 2 met Friday at the Just home on East Turner road.

MR. FARMER

One of the most frequent objections we hear from farmers is not the cost of compensation but the detail of monthly reports. We will write either compensation or employer's liability, and you report your payroll once a year. Phone or write our office for a quotation.

The county home extension committee, of which Mrs. Floyd Fox of Silver Cliff is chairman, will serve coffee and the women will bring a sack luncheon.

Miss Chu, Chinese woman taking advanced work at Oregon State college, will be a guest at the meeting. She plans to return to her native country to start extension work there.

Miss Lane will be at Turner Thursday when she will demonstrate the use of sewing machine equipment. The meeting will be at the home of Rose Aherns, starting at 10:30. Miss Chu will be a guest at this meeting, as will also Mr. Chang, the husband of the Chinese woman who visited various Marion county unit meetings last spring. He is also a student at Oregon State college.

Aumsville Has Meeting
The only other Marion county extension meeting during the coming week will be Thursday at Aumsville. Eleanor Trindle will demonstrate sugar conservation at the high school.

Four Corners Women Plan for Christmas Gift Exchange Soon

FOUR CORNERS—The Needle Work club met with Mrs. Roy Hart on East Turner road Wednesday. The time was spent sewing and in conversation. Refreshments were served by the hostess at a late hour. It was decided to have the annual Christmas party with exchange of gifts on December 22 at the home of Mrs. Frank Smith with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Lukins, sharing hostess honors. Gifts will be given by the members "silent sister." Earlier in the year names were chosen secretly, and during the year, these members were remembered with a card or gift on special occasions. One of the members received a corsage, from her "silent sister" the first one she had ever received.

Members at Wednesday's meeting were Mrs. Ross Wood, Mrs. Russell Millette, Mrs. Leo Childs, Mrs. Etta Setter, Mrs. M. Setter, Mrs. Gail Hudson, Mrs. Walter Lukins, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Hannah Evans, Mrs. F. A. Boyington and Mrs. Hart.
