

WOMEN'S of the Oregon Statesman SECTION

Society * Clubs * Music

Visiting in Salem are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Goode and son, Jonathan, who are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Goode and Mrs. Richard Devine. Mrs. Goode will be remembered as Lois Wilkes. Lt. Goode has been stationed in Washington, D. C., with the navy for the past six months. He served in the South Pacific over two years. The Goodes plan to make their home in Albany where he will resume his law practice. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Tidbits of News . . .

Mrs. Raymond Lamka (Georgina Clark) will leave Tuesday for San Francisco to meet Lieutenant Commander Lamka, who is returning to the states from Okinawa. He has been in the South Pacific for the past 13 months as captain of his ship.

Mrs. Dorothy Miller is leaving by plane today for Los Angeles, where she will remain for an extended stay. Enroute south Mrs. Miller will stop for a few days in San Francisco.

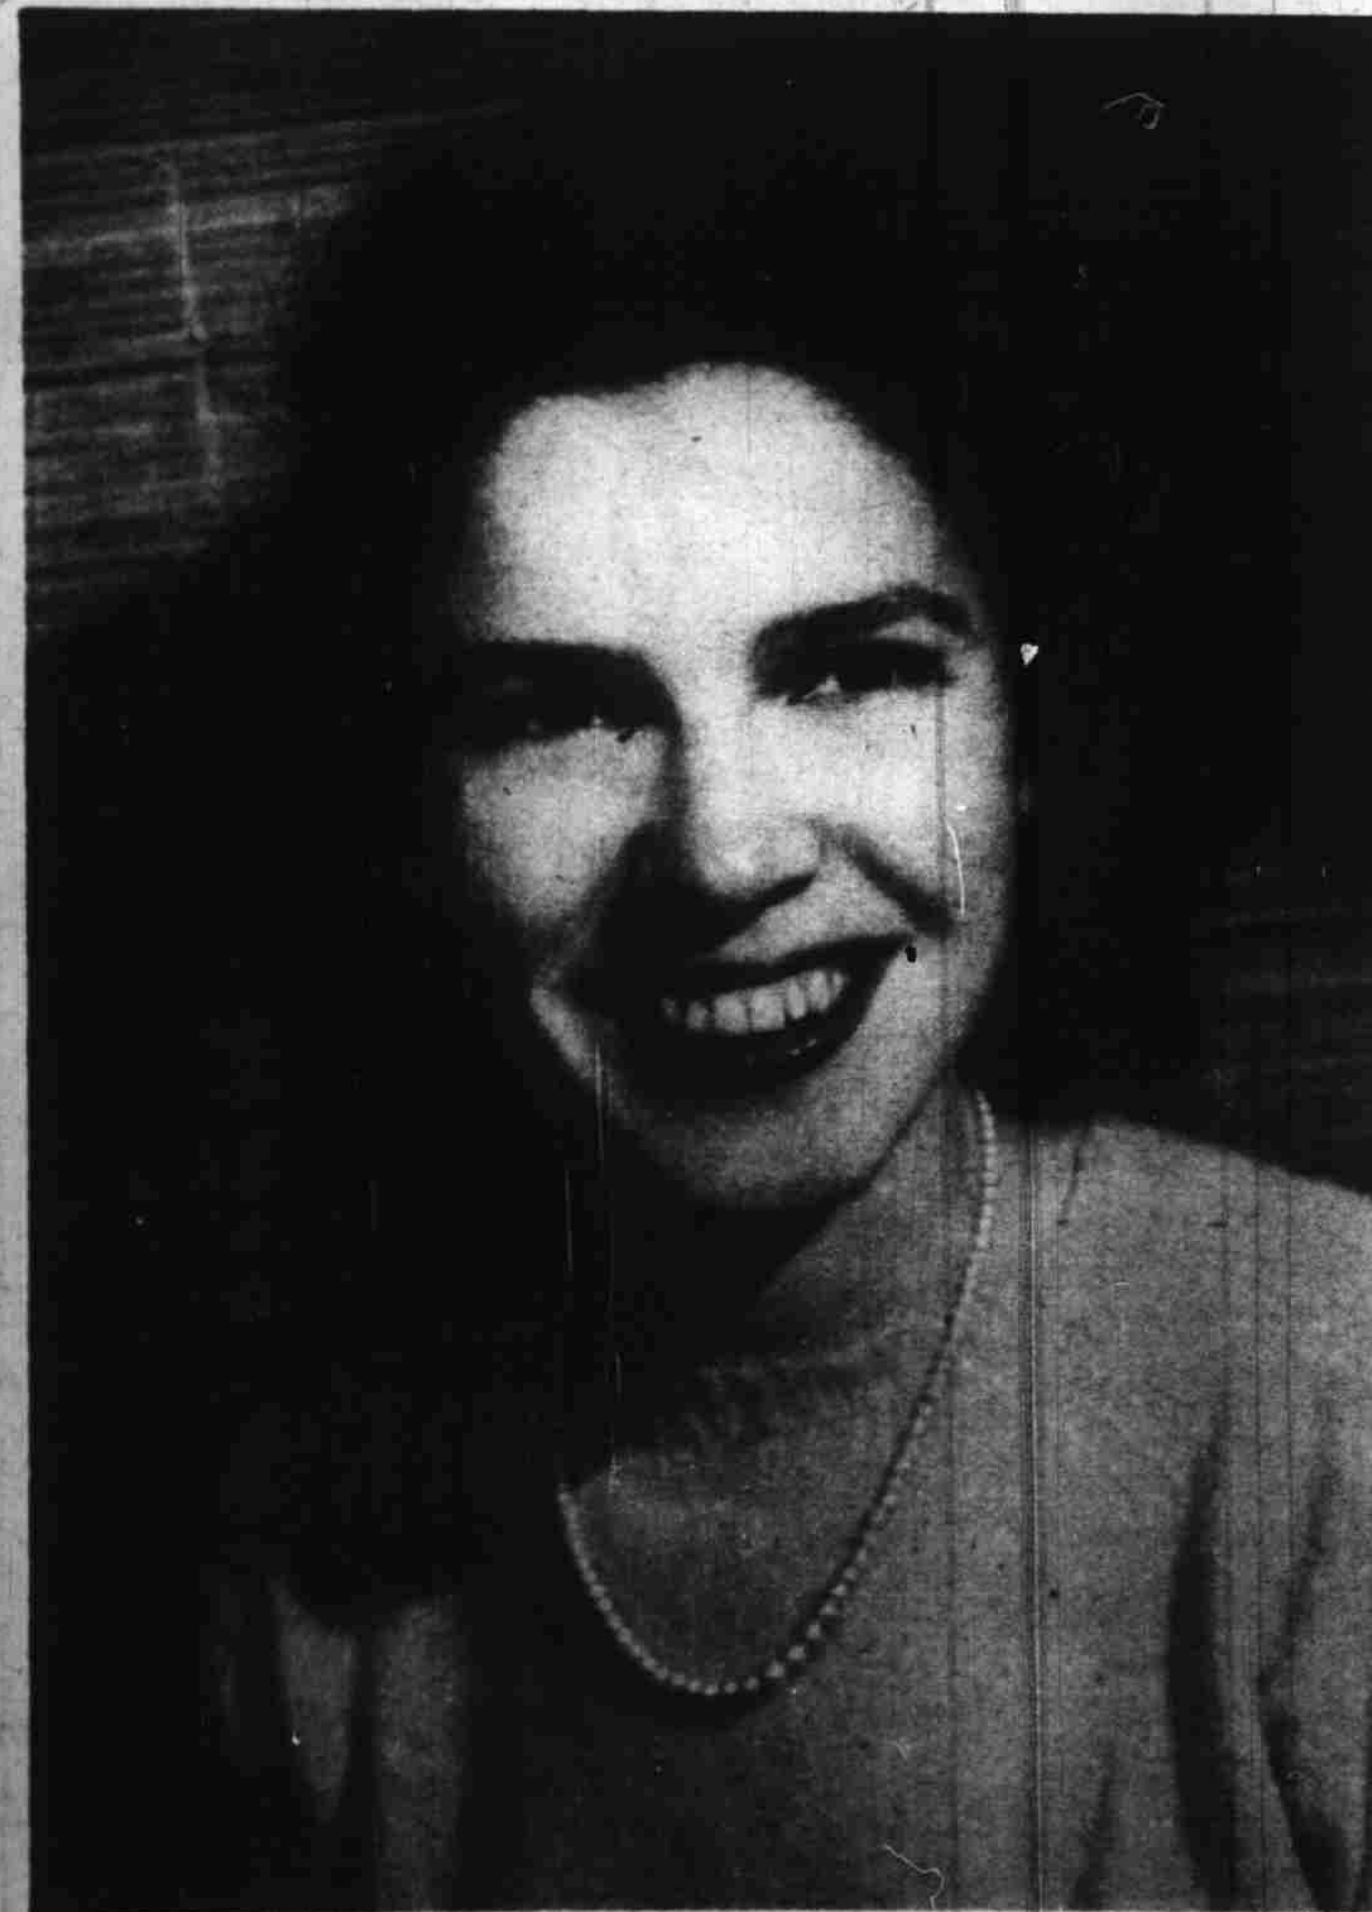

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jackson of Seattle arrived in the capital Saturday to be the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Scellars. The Jacksons formerly made their home here.

Miss Greenbaum to Marry . . .

Tuesday, December 4 has been set as the date for the marriage of Miss Irene Greenbaum, daughter of Mrs. Eva M. Greenbaum, to Mr. Albert Depenbrock of Berkeley, Calif. The quiet ceremony will be performed at the Greenbaum home before members of the immediate family and a few close friends.

After the ceremony the couple will leave for Berkeley where they will make their home. Mr. Depenbrock has arrived in the capital and is a guest at the Greenbaum home.

Miss Greenbaum is a graduate of Salem high school and the University of Oregon. She is a member of Delta Zeta sorority. The past several years she has been teaching in Eugene. Mr. Depenbrock, who was educated in Germany, is a machinist in Berkeley.

Miss Aileen Hutchinson, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Hutchinson, of Seattle, formerly of Salem, whose engagement to Ensign Laban Richard Steeves, USNR, of Salem, was announced this last week at the Seattle home of her parents. No date has been set for the wedding. Both Miss Hutchinson and her fiance attended Willamette university and are members of Beta Chi and Sigma Tau respectively. The bride-to-be is now a senior at the University of Washington and her fiance is stationed in Seattle after a year of sea duty.

Mrs. Neville Challenger and her three year old son, Barry, who recently came to Salem with Dr. Challenger from Canada. Dr. Challenger is a new member of the medical staff at the Oregon State hospital. Dr. and Mrs. Challenger met and were married in London in 1941 when he was a medical officer with the British army and she a cypher officer with the British air raid force. Their son was born just outside of London and spent many nights of his first two years in air raid shelters. The Challengers returned to Canada a year ago. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Homeward Bound .

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

Co-eds attending schools in the south will be arriving in the capital next weekend to spend the holiday with their families. Mills college students will have the longest vacation, starting on December 7 and returning after the New Year.

Miss Margie Cooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley, and Miss Georgia Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Roberts, are leaving Oakland by plane Saturday, arriving in Portland that evening. The girls, freshman at Mills college, will be accompanied by two of their classmates, who will remain for a week.

Mrs. Van Wieder is driving south and will be accompanied home by her daughter, Miss Carmen Campbell, a junior at Mills. Miss Joy Randall, daughter of the L. E. Randalls, will also be home in another week from Mills, where she is a sophomore.

Miss Helen Shepard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Shepard, and Miss Anne Huston, daughter of the Oliver B. Hustons, will arrive in Salem on the 15th of December from Palo Alto, where they are studying at Leland Stanford. Miss Shepard is a freshman and Miss Huston a junior.

Miss Jane Walsh will arrive in mid-December from San Mateo junior college. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walsh. From Pomona college will come Lois Barrick, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Barrick, Nancy Brown, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Earl T. Brown and Rosemary Gaiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Gaiser.

To Wed in South . .

Southward bound are two brides-elect, who will soon be married in California. Miss Dorothy Corey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Corey, is entraining Wednesday night for San Francisco to meet her fiance, Mr. Robert E. Hoyt of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hoyt of Salem.

Mr. Hoyt, a chief engineer in the United States merchant marine, is expected to arrive in the bay city from the South Pacific on December 11. The couple's marriage will take place shortly after his arrival in the states. Miss Corey will be the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Howard Adams and Miss Margaret Corey, until her wedding.

Swan-Larson

Miss Louise Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Larson, has left for Vallejo, Calif., where she will be married on December 7 to Mr. Kenneth D. Swan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Samuel Swan of Vallejo.

The ceremony will take place at the Episcopal church in Vallejo at ten o'clock in the morning. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Liken, brother-in-law and sister of the groom, will attend the couple. Miss Larson is a guest at the Liken home until after her marriage. The bride-elect has been employed by the Oregon state highway commission here. Her fiance was recently discharged after serving overseas with the 41st division.

Welcomed as newcomers in the capital are Mr. and Mrs. George Elmer Emigh, jr. and daughter, Diane, who moved here recently from Portland. Mr. Emigh is the new business manager for the Salem Senators. Mrs. Emigh will be remembered as Dorothy White, daughter of Mrs. George A. White and the late Major General White. The Emighs have taken a house on Chemeketa street. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Housewarming For Lidbecks . . .

A group of Dr. and Mrs. William L. Lidbeck's friends honored them with a surprise housewarming party Saturday night at their new country place on Battle Creek road.

A no-host buffet supper was served by the guests with an informal evening following. The group presented the Lidbecks with a gift for their new home.

Honoring the couple were Dr. and Mrs. A. Terrence King, Dr. and Mrs. George Williamson, Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee, Captain and Mrs. Verden E. Hockett, Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Titus of Portland, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. Willard Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Chesler Olson, Mrs. Howard H. Barlow and Major and Mrs. William Hugh Adams.

Town Club to Resume Dances . .

Members of the young married set are interested in the announcement that the Town club will resume its series of winter dances this month. Since a majority of its members were in the armed forces no dances have been held the last two seasons.

The first formal event for the club will be a dinner dance in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel on Saturday, December 29. Claude Bird's orchestra has been engaged to play for the affair. Officers of the club are making plans for reorganization and cards will be in the mail this week to old and new members. Seventy-five couples will comprise the club's membership.

Miss Miriam Jean Becke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl G. Becke, whose betrothal to Ensign William Robert Shinn, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Shinn, was announced Friday night at the traditional "cookie shine" at the Pi Beta Phi house on the University of Oregon campus. No date has been set for the wedding of the popular young Salem couple. Ensign Shinn, who has been home on leave, left Tuesday for San Francisco to report for duty. (Kennell-Ellis photo, Eugene).