Buying Boom Hits Industrials In Stock Mart

NEW YORK, Dec. 3-(AP)-A lastminute burst of buying in motors, steels, aviations and assorted industrials, including selling of rails and some pivotals, put the stock market ticker tape a minute late today and raised volume to the best level since last June.

Selected air transports held the play during the greater part of the proceedings, as optimism over future business spurred purchasers and inspired short coverings. Issues of automotive concerns and others faced by strikes and wage controversies came to life when President Truman sent his message to congress recommending settlement proceedings for labor disputes.

Another batch of pleasing yearend dividends, the hopeful earnings outlook and persistent inflation psychology served to bolster

Gains of fractions to better than '5 points predominated at the clos with new highs numerous.

Visible stocks of wheat at Duluth declined, 6,267,000 bushels during the past week, reflecting Stayton Lodge Elects heavy shipments of grain by lake for export.

Heavy Rains Fail To Damage Property

STAYTON-Recent heavy rains in the Kingston district did no damage to farmlands nor overflowed the Kingston-Stayton road as heretofore, residents report. The recently completed revetment project near Stayton island held back the surplus water from the upper North Santiam river.
