Sugarless Candy Makes Up for Sugar Filled Cookie Recipe

By Maxine Buren

Christmas cookies and candies are in order. If your cupboard is sugarless as mine, you'll appreciate a few suggestions for Christmas sweets that require no sugar. Molasses people have come to the rescue with several recipes.

MOLASSES MINT TAFFY

2 cups molasses
2 tablespoons vinegar
1 1/2 tablespoons shortening
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
7 drops oil of peppermint

Cook molasses and vinegar, stirring constantly, to 260 degrees or until a little dropped in cold water becomes brittle. Remove from heat; add shortening, salt and baking soda. Stir until mixture ceases to foam. Pour into a greased or oiled platter or shallow pan. When cool enough to handle, drop peppermint on it. Two people grease or oil their hands well and pull the candy between them. After each pull one passes his end of the candy to the other. Continue pulling until candy is light in color and begins to harden. Then pull into two long strips and cut with scissors into 1 inch pieces. Makes 70-80 pieces.

Not sugarless, but mighty wonderful Christmas cakes are these. This recipe is made into one of two varieties, the Spritz cookie that's run through a cookie gun, or Berliner Kranz, formed into long rolls, made into small circles crossed over at the ends (similar to a pretzel) and decorated on the top with crushed cube sugar or colored candies.

RICH SPREZZ

1 cup butter
1/2 cup sugar
3 egg yolks
2 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon almond extract
1/2 teaspoon salt

Cream shortening and sugar, add egg yolks gradually, add extract and work into dough with hands if possible. Make into desired shape and bake 15 minutes at 400. Store in tin.

Delta Zetas at Mrs. Carleton's

The Delta Zeta alumnae club met at the home of Mrs. Edmund Carleton Tuesday night with Miss Maxine Paulsen the assisting hostess. A dessert supper was served with an evening of cards following. An exchange of Christmas gifts was a feature of the party.

Attending were Mrs. O. K. Beals, Mrs. B. L. Bradley, Mrs. M. C. Buchanan, Mrs. Esther Easton, Mrs. Bjarns Erickson, Mrs. Charles Fetka, Mrs. Joseph Griffith, Mrs. Hugh Morrow,

Mary Ellen Dalton Is Married

DALLAS — In a setting of white chrysanthemums and lighter tapers, Miss Mary Ellen Dalton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Dalton, became the bride of Mr. Paul Michael Travis of Berkeley, Calif., at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, December 8, at the Presbyterian church. Dr. Earl Benbow read the double ring service.

Proceeding the service Miss Mildred Eastman sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Miss Doris Holmes, who also played the wedding march. Miss Vivian Richardson attired in a peach taffeta floor length gown and Miss Virginia Holmes in a pink and blue taffeta gown, lighted the tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with lace bodice and a sweetheart neckline and pearls. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of roses, bouvardia and gardenias.

Mrs. Milosh Popovich was matron of honor and wore white taffeta with sweetheart neckline and pearls. She carried a nosegay of narcissi, bouvardia and roses.

Mr. Robert S. Dalton, nephew of the bride, was best man and Mr. Milosh Popovich and Mr. Lenthal Bollman were the ushers.

Mrs. Dalton chose a black and fuchsia crepe suit with black hat and black accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was gardenias.

Following the service a reception for the immediate family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dalton, brother and sister-in-law of the bride. The serving table was centered with white chrysanthemums and a three tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Cleo Muller of San Rafael, Calif., sister of the bride, cut the cake and Mrs. Oscar Holmes, aunt of the bride poured. Miss Virginia Holmes, Miss Doris Holmes and Miss Wanda Holmes, cousins of the bride, and Miss Vivian Richardson and Miss Mildred Eastman served.

The bride is a graduate of the Miss Prudence Paulsen, Mrs. Harry S. Schenk, Mrs. Carleton and Miss Paulsen.

Dallas high school and Oregon State college, where she was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority and also a member of Mortar Board. She served as lieutenant (jg) in the WAVES and received her discharge December 2. Mr. Travis, chief quartermaster, USN, was discharged in September, and is now attending the University of Washington where he is furthering his study of professional economics. Mrs. Travis plans to enter the same university in March to take up the study of interior designing. They will make their home in Seattle.

Catholics Hold Business Session

The local Catholic Daughters of America held their Christmas gathering Wednesday at the Woman's club. Mrs. Gordon B. Coffey was elected grand regent to replace Mrs. Selby Shuntermann. Miss Nila Cluett, Mrs. Frederick J. Brennan and Mrs. A. W. Lovick were named to meet with the K. C. group and plan a carnival.

Father Rodakowski gave a talk on Christmas cards and their meaning.

At the close of the business session an exchange of gifts was made from a decorated Christmas tree. A large number of gifts were assembled for the naval hospital at Corvallis. A committee headed by Mrs. Gentzkow and including Miss Mathilda Gilles, Miss Marguerite Gleason, Mrs. Philippa Krechter, Mrs. Herman Holboke, and Mrs. Jean Gentzkow served.

Christmas Party Well Attended

MT. ANGEL—Over 100 members of the Catholic Daughters of America attended the annual Christmas party at St. Mary's dining hall Monday. Miss Pauline Saeifeld and Miss Eustelle Beaman, accompanied by Miss Hee in Keber sang, and group singing was led by Father Hildebrand. He and Father Damian, pastor
