

Couple Will Visit Here

Expected in the capital this weekend are Major and Mrs. Claude M. Johns, Jr. (Ruth Ford), who will be guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude M. Johns at their apartment at the Fisher. Major Johns, who was released this week from the service at the Portland army air base, is now on terminal leave. Mrs. Johns was a first lieutenant in the WAC, stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, prior to her discharge. Both Major and Mrs. Johns formerly made their home in Salem.

The couple came west from Oklahoma City where the army officer has been stationed. They have been spending a week in Portland and will go on to Wash-hink lake at Gardner to be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Ford, for Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johns, sr., will also accompany their son and wife to Gardner for the holidays.

The Johns' other son, Lt. Courtney Johns, is now on Guam and his wife is in Santa Barbara, Calif., to be with her parents for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jelders and family have sold their Center street home and have moved to 653 N. 16th st.

Hal Hibbard camp and auxiliary of the United Spanish War Veterans held meetings on Monday and later joined to sing Christmas carols and visit.

Eastern Star to Hold Installation

Chadwick chapter, Order of the Eastern Star met Tuesday night for a special initiation ceremony for the following new members: Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Millet, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rentfro, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Yocom.

The regular meeting followed with Mrs. A. A. Cohen and Fred B. Keeler presiding as worthy matron and worthy patron. The hall was decorated with greens, holly and red candles. Gifts from the retiring officers were presented to the worthy matron by Bertha Bergman and to the worthy patron by E. E. Wiper.

The worthy matron announced a special meeting on Saturday, December 22, for the purpose of initiation at which time Stayton chapter and other neighboring chapters are invited to attend. She also announced the installation ceremony for the new officers to be on Saturday night, December 29, with Monnie Hauser and Milton L. Meyers the installing officers. Bertha Bergman announced her new corps of officers to be as follows: Mrs. S. Rayner Smith, chaplain; Helen Anthony, marshal; Mildred Flagg, organist; Ruth Perkins, warder; Herman Johnston, sentinel; and the star points, Mary Fowler, Thelma Welsler, Gloria Smith, Helen Bush and Mabel Frizzell. Mrs. E. E. Wiper will be hostess.

At the close of the chapter meeting the members exchanged gifts after which they assembled in the dining hall for a social hour and refreshments. The tables were decorated with red candles and holly. The committee in charge of refreshments were: Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Van Wyngarden, Mrs. Hetty Robinson, Mrs. Winifred Herrick, Mrs. Ward Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnston, Mrs. Anna Fitzpatrick and Mr. and Mrs. Verdi Walzer.

A skit was given by members and tableaux depicting the Christmas story were presented. Mrs. Marion Curry was the reader. Santa made his appearance and passed out treats to the kiddies after which refreshments were served.

Puddin' Time Traditional Christmas Dessert Has Gone Modern to Cut Down Calories

By Maxine Baren
It may not be really plum pudding, but it's fun to call it that, whether it be cranberry, fig, prune or "mock."
Traditional as it is for Christmas, we'll offer several recipes, though of course, many old family favorites are going the rounds, each with the explanation by the woman who gives it that "this is the best I've ever tasted."
If you're the kind of person who insists on a real rich pudding you'll find it in this recipe for an English type plum pud-

Lyle Klampe Is Married

Of interest to the groom's friends in the valley is announcement of the marriage of Miss Eleanor Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ellis of Clear Lake, Wash., to Mr. Lyle E. Klampe, chief commissary steward, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Klampe of Brooks, which took place on December 12 at the Clark Lake Community church.

The Rev. Charles Williams, pastor of the West Congregational church of West Seattle, who officiated at the wedding of the bride's parents 26 years ago, performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white marquisette over satin fashioned with a square yoke made of tiny ruffles of lace with long sleeves and train. Her fingertip length tulle veil was held in place with a beaded coronet and she carried a colonial bouquet of Tailsman roses and gardenias.

Mrs. Donald Ruff of Mt. Vernon was the matron of honor. Mr. Orville Klampe of Salem, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Mr. Don Palmer and Mr. Ernie McCrandner. Lighting the candles were Miss Marie Wood of Clear Lake and Miss Arlyce Klampe of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Klampe were unable to be present for their son's marriage as they were in California on a trip.

At the reception Mrs. Orville Klampe of Salem cut the cake. After a wedding trip along the Oregon coast, Mr. Klampe, who is on a thirty day's leave after returning from the South Pacific, will return to Sandpoint to receive his discharge. He has been in the navy for the past four years.

The couple plan to make their home near Salem. For going away the bride wore a blue suit with black accessories. She is a graduate of the Sedro-Woolley high school and has been employed at the Skagit Steel and Iron Works. Mr. Klampe is a graduate of Salem high school.

ENGLISH PLUM PUDDING

- 3/4 cups breadcrumbs
 - 2 1/2 cups milk
 - 1 pound each raisins and currants
 - 1/2 pound citron
 - 1/2 teaspoon each nutmeg, cinnamon, mace, cloves
 - 1 1/4 cups brown sugar
 - 8 eggs
 - 1 1/2 cups flour
 - 1 pound suet
 - 1 1/2 tablespoons salt
- Mix together and steam in 6 medium sized tins for 4 hours
But if you go in for foods a bit easier on the figure, you'll find this an excellent substitute for the richer pudding — and many diners won't know the difference.

MOCK PLUM PUDDING

- 1 cup grated raw carrot
 - 1 cup grated raw potato
 - 1/2 cup butter or substitute, melted
 - 1 cup brown sugar
 - 2 cups raisins
 - 1 cup flour
 - 1 teaspoon each, nutmeg, cinnamon, salt and soda
- Mix all ingredients, dredging the raisins with flour, steam 2 1/2 hours in tins or less if molds are very small. Serve with hard or soft sauce.

Today's Menu

- Here we use a recipe for dinner that's labeled Father's sauerkraut, not to be identified for any particular father.
- Carrot-raisin salad
- Father's sauerkraut
- Frankfurters
- Bran muffins with Honey
- Baked custards

FATHER'S SAUERKRAUT

- 1 can sauerkraut
 - 1 apple diced
 - 2 onions, diced
 - 1/4 cup granulated sugar
 - 1 tablespoon vinegar
 - 1 tablespoon butter
- Cover the sauerkraut with water, add the diced apple, one of the diced onions, sugar and vinegar. Cook about 45 minutes. Then add the remaining onion which has been browned in butter. Serve immediately.
