CHILDREN SING CAROLS

The Junior Red Cross of fourth graders at Bush school caroled in the halls at Salem Deaconess hospital and distributed to long-term patients there and at the Cottage home the Christmas cheer boxes (50 of them) they had made in art classes, filled with candy, nuts and dried fruits, together with other fruits and jellies. Mrs. Mildred Wyatt is teacher of the class, which has done this for several years with the exception of Christmas, 1944, when contagious flu was so prevalent the children were asked not to visit the hospital.

COUNTY ROADS CLOSED

An order by the Marion county court Thursday closes all Marion county roads to all log hauling trucks until such time as it appears to the court that such operations will not cause undue damage to the highways. Reason for the order was the recent freeze which has raised the roads to a point where the thawing process leaves them in a softened condition and heavy traffic causes considerable damage to them.

WU YMCA to Reorganize

First steps toward postwar reorganization of Willamette university's campus YMCA group were taken this week with a dinner meeting held at the YMCA Wednesday and an election of officers held on the campus Thursday.

Guest advisers at the meeting in the YMCA were William Genne, northwest YMCA student secretary; C. A. Kells, and Prof. John L. Knight, religious counselor at Willamette. Officers elected by the group on Thursday were Don Ackley, Bend, acting president; Earl Fedje, Salem, vice president, and Guy Jonas, Salem, secretary.

The campus "Y" organization, inactive since 1942, will begin functioning immediately following the holidays, with a regular membership campaign slated as the first order of business.

BOSELL LEAVING OREGON

H. E. Bosell, supervisor of weights and measures work for the state department of agriculture, has resigned his position to become affiliated with a feed concern in Redding, Calif. He will terminate his services with the department Saturday. Bosell has been with the department since July 1941, serving as division of foods and dairies representative in the southern coastal area until early 1944 when he was moved to the Salem headquarters.

Mrs. Carlan Home on Bail

CHELSEA, Mass., Dec. 20 (AP) — Pretty Rose Carlan, described by a district court judge as an "exhibitionist," was home again tonight with her sailor husband and three-year-old son—released on bail on a murder charge in the death of her baby, central figure in a kidnapping hoax.

The red-cheeked, stocky, 23-year-old mother who set off New England's greatest "kidnap hunt" when she reported six-month-old Ronnie Carlan missing on Nov. 24, was released in $2500 bail and returned to her home where the infant's body was found last Friday hidden under a built-in cupboard.
