Pre-Dance Party on Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Coburn L. Grabenhorst were hosts for an informal party Friday night at their Mission street residence preceding the Spinster Charity ball at the Elks Temple.

The holiday motif was carried out in the decorations about the rooms and on the buffet table.

Bidden by the hosts were Mr.

and Mrs. Bill Young of Pullman. Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Bobert Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Ctaybourne Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Romery Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Halvorsen, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Halvorsen, Mr. and Mrs.
Byron Mennis, Mr. and Mrs.
Byron Mennis, Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brownell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brownell, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Devers, jr., Mr. and Mrs.
Robert DeArmond, Lt. Col. and
Mrs. Ira Wintermute, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips, jr., Mr.
and Mrs. George Grabenhorst, jr., Miss Jean Burrell, Mr. Douglas Drager, and Mr. Richard Grabenhorst.

Burlinghams To Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burlingham are celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary on Sunday night at their North 14th street residence. They have invited a group of relatives and old friends to a buffet supper.

Guests have been invited from Seattle, Kelso and Vancouver, Wash., Portland and Forest Grove.

The buffet table will be decorated with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums and silver leaves and silver candles.

Home for the holidays and anniversary celebration are the Burlingham's son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. L. H. Hildebrandt (Marjorie Burlingham) and small daughter, Kathryn Ruth of Oak Ridge, Tenn. Their son, Cadet Midshipman Donald Burlingham, is arriving by plane for Christmas from New York where he is attending the United States Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, N. Y.

Donna Minton A Party Hostess

Miss Donna Minton was hostess for a Christmas party Wednesday night in honor of a group of friends who are employed at the Ladd and Bush branch, United States National bank. The affair was held at the apartment of her parents at The Fisher.

After an exchange of gifts and an informal evening refreshments were served by the hostess.

Guests of Miss Minton were Miss Jane Curtis, Miss Florence Hains, Miss LaVerda Remple, Miss Juanita Seburn, Miss Mary Page, Miss Della Merk, Miss Iris Wall and Mrs. Arthur Pankratz.

Mr. and Mrs. Raiph Mapes are leaving today for Prineville to spend Christmas with her parents.

Today's Menu

This will be a big weekend, with an extra day's menu to be planned for.

TODAY

Pear-cottage cheese salad
Hamburgers
French fries
Frozen broccoll
Mincement cookies

SUNDAY
Vegetable bowl
Breaded veal cutlets
Cream gravy
Whipped potatoes
Baking powder biscuits
Green peas
Pumpkin pie

CHRISTMAS EVE
Cranberry salad
Ham loaf
Baked sweet potatoes
Hot rolls
Apple cobbler
CHRISTMAS DAY
Cranberry, orange salad
Ham or duck
Hot applesauce
Glazed sweet potatoes

It is not necessary to wait

Plum pudding Hard sauce

TYPEWRITER REPAIRED

Salem's Largest Typewriter tepair Shop can pick up your ypewriter or adding machine, epair it and return it within 3

> NEEDHAM'S Book Store

Society Clubs Music The Home

Buren

Maxine Buren Woman's Editor Jeryme English Society Editor

Guests Are Bidden to Dinners Mt. and Mrs. went south early in the home, is arr by plane Christmas w will return

The holiday week end is filled with many Christmas parties. Mr. and Mrs. George Rhoten, Mr. and Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Layport will be hosts for a gala informal party tonight at the former's home on South Church street for the pleasure of a group of their friends.

Eighteen guests have been invited to a buffet supper. Christmas greens and candles will provide the decorative note. During the evening an impromptu orchestra will provide the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker will be hosts for a Christmas dinner party Sunday night at their Rose street home.

Covers will be placed for 12 guests. Cards will be in play after the dinner hour. Holiday decorations and candles will be arranged about the rooms.

Mrs. Malcolm Mitchell and daughter Susan of Portland have been guests here this week of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Earnest. They have left for Raymond, Wash., to spend the holidays.

Mrs. Krebs A Hostess

Mrs. Marion Krebs will entertain a group of her friends at a no-host dinner tonight at the Fairmount Hill home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bywater.

The evening hours will be spent informally. The rooms will be decorated with greens, a tree and candles.

Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. Victor Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Park Keith, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Sullivan, Miss Rosemary Bell, Mrs. Craig Coyner and Mrs. Marion Krebs.

Carla Trick Is Christened

Christening services were held on Sunday, December 16, for Carla Dean Trick, five months old daughter of Captain and Mrs. Carl Trick, at the Leslie Methodist church at 5 o'clock in the afterneon. Her uncle, the Rev. Arnold Trick, read the service before members of the two families.

For her christening Carla wore a dress which had been in the family for 85 years. Her godparents are Miss Veleta Trick and Mr. Wesley McWain. A small reception was held after the ceremony at the home of Mrs. Elsie Trick.

Captain and Mrs. Trick and their daughter are here from Santa Ana., Calif., for the holidays as guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer McWain and Mrs. Elsie Trick.

Miss Betty Childs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo N. Childs, who went south to San Francisco early in the fall to make her home, is arriving in the capital by plane tonight to spend Christmas with her parents. She will return to the bay city by plane on December 26.

A Christmas meeting of the Sunshine Sewing club of Hazel Green was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Albert Fern with Mrs. Julius Slattern and Mrs. E. Howery assisting hostesses. The next meeting will be held on January 9 at the home of Mrs. C. A. Zielinski with Mrs. E. Zielinski assisting.

A Slumber Party

Miss Addyse Lane has invited a group of her friends to a slumber party tonight at the North Liberty street home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Addison Lane.

The decorations will represent the various schools the coeds are attending. The group, which gets together each year, will exchange gifts and breakfast will be served by the hostess.

Miss Lane's guests are Miss June Young, Miss Jane Acton, Miss Connie Cocking, Miss Pat Brown, Miss Betty Zo Allen and Miss Carolyn Carson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Boock entertained at 135 West Washington street on Friday night, with an informal party for Mr. and Mrs. Ben Reimann, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Speerstra, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Reimann, Miss Dorothy Whelan, Mr. Ralph Ransom, Mrs. James Whelan, Mr. Donald Whelan and Mr. and Mrs. William Letterman.

Parties Before Rainbow Dance

Members of the younger set entertained with many informal parties preceding the Rainbow dance Friday night.

Merle Rhoten, daughter of the George Rhotens, was hostess for a dessert supper party at the South Church street home of her parents before the dance. Guests of Miss Rhoten were

Pat Zosel, Donna Stroud, Roma Nelson, Joan Lee, John Reeves, Bob Sharp, Paul Benner, Rodney Beals and Belden Owens. Patricia Powell entertained a group of her friends at a pre-dance party Friday night.

Her guests were Carol Cain,
Sally Smith, Beverly Hutchinson,
Marian Sparks, Margie Scandling, Barbara Bates, Patricia Long, Katie Anderson.

Howard Girod, Bob Klosterman, Dale Cleaver, Gary Keppinger, Tom Bartlett, Ernie Iufer, Bill Estep, Dave Turnbull and Bob Elfstrom.

Mrs. Ross Damrell was hostess to the Book and Thimble club on route one last Thursday, for the annual Christmas party. Mrs. Fred W. Kubin was honored as being the only charter member of the club, formed over thirty years ago.

Rites Read At Church Ceremony

Friday night at 8 o'clock at the Jason Lee Memorial church Miss Betty Lou Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coye Morris of Roseburg, became the bride of Mrs. Earl Croghan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Croghan of Salem. The Rev. S. Raynor Smith performed the ceremony before a large gathering of friends and relatives.

The church was decorated with fir boughs and at the altar were red carnations and white tapers. Lighting the candles were Mrs. C. E. Warren and Miss Betty Ann Brandt, who wore white dresses. Miss Delores Chitwood of Portland sang "At Dawring" and "Till the End of Time." Miss Alice Rose played the organ accompaniments and wedding marches.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, selected a white moire taffets gown for her wedding. The full skirt was floor length and the fitted waist was torso style. The neckline was sweetheart style and tiny pearl buttons embellished the bodice in back. With her gown she wore long white gloves. Her fingertip length tulle veil cascaded from a coronet of tulle and pearls. She carried a Testament marked with white ribbon and silver bells.

Miss Donnie Geddes was the bride's only attendant. She wore a nile green velvet and net gown with matching velvet ribbon in her hair. She also carried a Testament marked with ribbon and silver bells.

Twin Brother Best Man
Mr. Bruce Croghan, USN, of San Diego stood with his twin brother as best man. Ushers were Mr. Donald Davis and Mr.
Lawrence Calloway.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Morris chose a black gown with fuchsia trim and a corsage of white gardenias. Mrs. Croghan also wore a black and fuchsia gown and her flowers were gardenias.

The newlyweds were honored at a reception in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony. The couple's aunts, Mrs. A. H. Davis and Mrs. F. D. Calloway, presided at the coffee urns. Mrs. R. M. Stutte cut the bride's cake. Serving were Mrs. C. E. Warren and Miss Betty Ann Brandt. Miss Pat Kerber passed the dream cakes and Miss Joan Lochead the guest book. Miss Barbara Preston and Miss Esther Abraham were in charge of the gifts.

To Live in Eugene

The couple went to the Oregon coast on their wedding trip.

For travelling the bride wore a pink and brown tweed suit with brown accessories and fur coat.

Mr. and Mrs. Croghan will go to Eugene to make their home while he is attending the University of Oregon. He has been discharged from the navy.

The bride is a graduate of Sheridan high school and attended Willamette university where she pledged Delta Phi sorority. She has been employed at the secretary of state's office. Mr. Croghan is a graduate of Salem schools.

COME IN! / New Hevalutionary
SEE IT!
HEAR IT! \ HEARING POWER

ACOUSTICON McDONALD CO.

905 First National Bank Bldg. Salem, Oregon Phone 635

Women's Women's SLIPPER SLIPPER SALE SALE Today and Monday

Because of Late Shipments -These Slippers Go on Sale.

Values to $3.45. $1.99

Just When You Need Them
HERE'S YOUR CHANCE

Arbuckle-King Co.
BUSTER BROWN SHOE STORE

You can please him with a nationally known the because he knows the quality and pattern are more in line with his tastes. Here you have choice of several very notable brands in all the newest patterns and plain shades! Be sure to see this collection today . . . only $1.00 each!

Korday Bags 2.98 to 16.98

Yes, the genuine KOR-DAY bag is here in new styles in both large and small sizes. Give her a beautiful Korday trimmed with genuine lucite. Black, brown. Plus tax.

FIGURINES 1/2 PRICE

A special group of figurines priced regularly up to $25 will be displayed today at HALF PRICEI Shown on the main floor near elevator. Book ends . . . lamps . . . horses . . . etc.

Special! Women's Robes . . .

7.84 to 14.95

Printed crepe, plain and flowered rayon jersey robes in our downstairs store to-day in an assortment of gay patterns and colors. Sizes up to 44.

DOWNSTARS

HANKIES 65c to 2.98

Swiss hankies in a fine assortment from which to choose for gifts. White with petit point embroidery. Also more of those highly wanted hand-woven wool scaris at $2.98 to $5.00.

Give a Gift Certificate from

Miller's