

Mrs. Frank Krupicka (Marjorie Seely) who was married on December 16 at an afternoon ceremony at the First Presbyterian church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Seely and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Anton Krupicka, all of Woodburn. The couple will live in Salem. (Josten-Miller).

Christmas Dinner at Wallace's

An anticipated event for those who are asked each year, is the Christmas day dinner at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace at Wallace Orchards.

The no-host affair is at 5 o'clock and guests are seated at a long table by the fireplace in the living room. The table will be decorated with native pine, red ribbon and candles. The buffet table in the dining room is traditionally decorated with mistletoe and red candles.

Covers will be placed for Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Sally and Margie Smith, Miss Mabel P. Robertson, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Edith Schryver, Mr. David W. Eyre, Mr. William S. Walton, Mrs. Chester M. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Powell, Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mr. R. W. Sprague of Seattle, Mrs. Melvin T. Hurley and daughter, Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Young and son, Donald, Joe Eoff, Miss Edna L. Sterling of Seattle, Miss Nancy and Miss Paulie Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace.

Dinner, Dance Given Saturday

Joan Voves, daughter of Mrs. Ella Voves entertained at a formal dinner at the home of her mother on Saturday night. Later the group danced.

Present were Alice Smith, Pat Sumner, Joan Voves, Dottie Metcalf, Rosemary Majeski, Tommy Johnson, George Smith, George S. Smith, Chuck Coffey, Herbert Bower and Paul Miller.

The Salem Writers' club met Wednesday night with Dr. and Mrs. Morton E. Peck as hosts. Original work was read by Miss Renska Ladd Swart, Mrs. Helen McLeod, Mrs. N. F. Anderson, Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Mrs. Jessie C. Singleton, Robert Rawson, Perry Reigelman and Dr. Morton E. Peck. Other members present were Dr. Mary C. Rowland, Mrs. Blanche Jones and Mrs. Morton E. Peck.

Mrs. Lora Groves was elected president, Mrs. Millie La Vine vice president, Mrs. Hannah Beard secretary-treasurer at a meeting on the Patriarchs militant Thursday.

White Shrine at Holiday Party

Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem held the regular Christmas ceremonial December 17 at 8 p. m. Emma Brown, worthy high priestess, and Wayne T. Henry, watchman of the shepherds presided.

The following were received by initiation, Mildred Allen, Edith Schroeder, Kathrine Todds, Ida Williams, Fern Doolittle and Sarah Vinson, and Rose Evans, Hetty Krickbaum, Etta Hall and Ruth Pearl Reed by affiliation.

Lt. and Mrs. Percy T. Buren and daughter, Janet, arrived in Salem Saturday from Long Beach, Calif. Lt. Buren, who is on terminal leave from the navy, has been stationed at San Pedro. They will make their home in Salem. The Burens will be the holiday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max O. Buren.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dick of The Dalles arrived in the capital Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. Dan Johnson.

Additional Society News on Page 10

Seen and Heard....

By Jeryme English

TRAVEL NOTES . . . Spending the holidays in Mexico City are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hammond Burnett (Helen Purvine), who now resides in Santa Barbara, Calif. . . . The Burnetts left Tuesday by plane and plan to be away two weeks. . . . They will take a number of side trips during their stay.

Spending Christmas together in New York will be Barbara Pierce and Margaret Lovell, both of the marine corps. . . . Barbara, the daughter of the Edgar Pierces, is stationed at Bogue Field, North Carolina and Margaret, sister of Mrs. Karl Becke, and daughter of Mrs. G. L. Lovell, is now at Quantico, Va.

Friends of Bishop and Mrs. Bruce R. Baxter of Portland, formerly of Salem, will be interested to know that they have gone south for the holidays to be with his mother, Mrs. John Baxter, in Hollywood. . . . The Baxters will be missed this year at the annual Christmas gathering at the Paul Wallace home on Christmas night.

News comes from Mrs. Carl E. Grant (Gwen Gallaher McCullough) that she has left Richmond, Calif., for New York to await the arrival of Lt. Col. Grant from Europe. . . . Carl, who has been overseas three years, was to have arrived before Christmas, but it is doubtful now, as his ship was delayed in England for repairs. . . . Meanwhile Gwen is in Buffalo with his parents.

CHRISTMAS MUSICALS on Tuesday when the Salem branch of AAUW entertained with its annual affair at the First Congregational church. . . . The stained glass windows decorated with swags of greens and silver leaves tied with blue bows. . . . Blue tapers in white candelabras at the altar. . . . Mrs. Frank Burlingham, who arranged the musicals, wore a becoming ice blue crepe gown. . . . Mrs. Alfred Keller, who came down from Portland to hear her husband play, wore a good-looking black suit, the three-quarter length coat embellished with tuxedo of fox. . . .

Two fetching feather hats worn by mother and daughter. . . . Mrs. Raymond Wats's of waterfall blue with tiny black crown and Jane's pancake style hat entirely of white feathers. . . . Mrs. Gilbert Wrenn escorted by her handsome husband, Lt. Comdr. Wrenn, who is now on terminal leave. . . . Nice to see Mrs. Theodore Hunley Welch (Elizabeth Boylan) who has come north from San Francisco to spend the holidays with her parents. . . . She looked chic in a winterberry red coat and black hat. . . . Professor and Mrs. James Drury. . . . the former had just arrived from New York for the holidays. . . . This is the first winter Mrs. Drury and their boys have remained in Oregon, during the winter, but they are always here for the summer.

FIRST HOLIDAY TEA of the season a week ago when the Pi Beta Phi alumnae entertained for Mrs. G. Herbert Smith and Mrs. Clare R. Dohler, national officers. . . . A real Christmasy air inside the chapter house. . . . lots of holiday decorations and the fire in the fireplace attracted many as it was a very nippy day outside. . . . Honors to Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry for the effective decorations. . . . On the mantle red tapers and pine and on the wall in the center above the mantle were white cellophane bells tied with red ribbon. . . . The rooms, which are gay and cheerful with their aqua walls and bright chintz curtains in shades of red and rose and slip covered furniture, lend themselves to Christmas decorations. . . .

A few of the guests. . . . Mrs. George A. White, down for a few days from her Clackamas home, wore a striking sailor with green satin crown and tiny black brim. . . . accompanied by her daughter, Dorothy, (Mrs. George English), who has moved back to Salem. . . . she wore a becoming tiny black hat with shell pink feathers at one side. . . . Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, in a gold dress, coming in with another newcomer, Mrs. Arthur W. Cole, who has moved here from Klamath Falls. . . . Liked Mrs. Arch Jerman's tiny brown hat with multicolored velvet trim in shades of rust, gold and green. . . . Pinned to Lelia Johnson's coat was a lovely orchid, given to her by the "Junior Miss" play cast the night before. . . . Mrs. R. H. Vandevort with her daughter, Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead, just home from a plane trip east. . . . Mrs. Robert Brady, sr. wearing a chic black hat with high felt crown of winterberry red. . . . Two smartly dressed in black suits were Mrs. James B. Young and Mrs. Paul R. Hendricks, the latter's high crowned hat enhanced with feathers on one side. . . . Mrs. Bruce Spaulding, in a red suit and black hat atop her high hair do, elated over just hearing that her husband would be the democratic nominee for congress. . . .

A stunning tea table. . . . a silver blue satin cloth, the alternate corners tied with a large bow of heavy red silk cord. . . . and a centerpiece of pine enhanced with tiny Christmas balls and flanked by single red tapers in star shaped crystal holders. . . . Three young matrons who served. . . . Mrs. Dale Shepherd in a sophisticated gown of black crepe with a cascade of the material lined in red down one side. . . . Mrs. John Kelly in black, enhanced with matching sequins and Mrs. James Bennison wearing black velvet, the peplum and neckline outlined in white eyelet embroidery. . . .

WELCOME HOME for Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fisher (Enid Clifford), who have returned here to make their home. . . . The Fishers resided here before he entered the service. . . . He served as a lieutenant in the navy and was in the South Pacific and has returned to his position at the state tax commission. . . . They have taken a place near Turner and are busy remodeling and getting settled.

January Sale!

Save As Much As . . . 50% Now

Largest Collection of Fine FURS Ever Shown in Salem!

- ERMINE!
- SQUIRREL!
- MUSKRAT!
- PERSIAN LAMB!

Many others including Mink, Kolinsky and Ringtail Neck Pieces

Ed Hamilton Furs

2nd Floor

Miller's

Beginning

Monday Morning
At 9:30 o'Clock

Perms - Wash $4.50
Extra for Finger-wave or Hairdress
Open Thurs. Eve.
by Appointment
Phone 3993
Castle Perm. Wavers
300 First National Bank Bldg.

Merry Christmas
and best wishes for the holidays from
MODE O'DAY SHOP
406 State