

Refreshment

Versatile Fresh Fruits Serve Family Well as After Holiday Specialties

By Maxine Buren

There comes a day, when rich foods look far less intriguing than some simple, refreshing fruit tart and taste tempting. So we talk about fruit.

Fresh fruit can be stuck into a menu just about anywhere, and served anytime during the day or night. Start out the day with a half grapefruit or orange, or serve broiled pig sausages and broiled grapefruit halves. Serve a fresh comice pear with sugar and cream for winter breakfasts.

Serve a large salad at noon, being grapefruit segments arranged on a plate of lettuce, and dressed with asparagus stalks, topped with mayonnaise. Or try a combination of orange, grapefruit and avocado. Arrange red colored glazed apple quarters on lettuce and top with tearoom dressing.

Pears combine with cottage cheese, topped with a dab of red jelly.

A fruit mixture, either fresh or raw, makes a refreshing luncheon or dinner salad. Waldorf salad can be made either with apples or grapefruit.

Mid-afternoon or late evening snacks begin with fresh fruit. Serve quartered apples with Liederkrantz or other soft cheese. Serve pears in long finger shaped pieces with ginger cookies.

Fresh fruit sherbet makes a refreshing interlude during a large dinner. Ground cranberries and oranges served alongside a roast or with turkey, give welcome tartness and crispness.

Family dinners end in a flourish when orange shortcake or Ambrosia, (that fine old fashioned combination of orange and coconut) comes onto the table for dessert. Baked apples, colored slightly red if need be, can begin a meal as salad, accompany meat for texture and flavor contrast, or be served as dessert at an informal or more companyified dinner. Top with whipped cream highly spiced, whipped cream mixed with crushed pineapple, or ice cream.

Or just pass a handsome bowlful of crisp, polished fresh fruits and let the company make a selection that suits his taste.

Miss Boyles Engaged

Miss Lois Boyles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Boyles, has announced her engagement to Mr. Henry Pfennig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pfennig. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Boyles is employed at Montgomery Ward and company and her fiancé with Keizer Sand and Gravel company.

Holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Sullivan are per parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Brownell and daughter, Nancy, of Grants Pass. Mr. Brownell is a brother of Mr. Phil Brownell of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Slater Bush who were married on December 1, at Waukegan, Illinois at a morning ceremony at Saint Anastasia rectory. The bride, the former Maxine Arnold, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ryan of Waukegan, and her husband is the son of Mrs. Jessie Bush Mickelson of Salem, who went east for the wedding. Mr. Bush is stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center and plans to be discharged next month. (Steinmonts studio.)

Cloverdale School Has Program for Holiday

CLOVERDALE — The local school gave its Christmas program Wednesday. Two hours of entertainment was presented by both rooms of the school under the direction of the teachers, Mrs. Esther Kleper and Mrs. Lena Callaway.

School closed at noon Friday and will resume again January 2.

Seen and Heard

By Jerome English

PRE-HOLIDAY DANCES highlighted last weekend . . . First we stopped in at the Rainbow Dance, always an anticipated event for members of the younger set, and for many of the teen age group their first dance . . . also the first long party dress for some of the junior high girls . . . "Starlight Symphony" the theme of the dance with a false ceiling in Rainbow colors, which came down immediately after intermission . . . Beverly Davenport, the worthy advisor, lovely in white with long fuchsia gloves and a fuchsia ribbon in her black tresses . . . Jim Phillips escorting Joan Randall, who wore a pretty blue net skirt with white and silver brocade bodice and matching Juliet cap . . . The McClintock twins, Gloria and Barbara, wearing identical black dresses with bodices of red and green striped satin . . . The Hale triplets, Patricia and Doris, pretty in black gowns with penguins and cap sleeves of red and green plaid taffeta and long black gloves.

Cynthia Needham wore a sophisticated model of black net with black velvet bodice, long black gloves and an orchid in her hair . . . George Adams, the student body president, squired Beverly Kenny . . . A few of the college coeds returning for the year popular dance . . . Shirley Lukins, a freshman at Oregon, wore white with gold polka dots and rushing on the shoulder . . . Mary Lou McKay, Kappa pledge of Oregon State, distinctive in black with ruffling around the neckline and straps . . . Margaret Jane Emmons, Jo Ann Tweedle and others . . .

Merle Rhoten and Marion Sparks, both in white . . . Madeleine Keene, her tall brunette beauty, set off by her plaid taffeta gown . . . Mariann Croisan was striking in a black crepe gown with rhinestone belt . . . Gloria Myers attractive in a white satin with full skirt and low decollete and shoulder straps enhanced with sequins . . . Pretty Sally Smith wearing petal pink net with blue bands on the taffeta slip . . . Dolores Hamilton wore black velvet with off the shoulder bodice and her red rose corsage was pinned at the waistline . . . Brunette Jeanne Hoffman wore a yellow marquisette gown with embroidered bodice and Peggy Paxson was in black with blue and black top.

SPINSTER CHARITY BALL the same night with a group of the college and married set attending . . . Noted several returned servicemen and their wives amidst the dancers . . . Lt. Col. and Mrs. Wendell Patch, just home from a stay in Seattle where he docked . . . She was radiant in a brown net gown with gold sequin trim . . . Lt. and Mrs. John W. Hansell Jr., the latter wearing aqua taffeta . . . Lt. Comm. and Mrs. Raymond Lamka . . . she sophisticated in a white moire taffeta gown with bustle in back and her hair done high . . . Lt. and Mrs. Donald Barnick (Sharon Burnett), home from California where they have been since their marriage in September . . . Sharon was lovely in white with ruffled off the shoulder bodice . . . Edith Moxley, a senior at Oregon, wore white net with sequins enhancing the shoulder straps and low neckline . . . in her hair were red flowers . . . Mrs. Richard Cooley wearing a stunning gown of gold metallic with long emerald green gloves . . . Lorraine Taylor in white net and Harriet Hawkins also in white, wore a taffeta dinner gown . . . Blonde Leona Tinglestad in a becoming gown of pink lace with black velvet trim and brunette Mrs. William McElhinny in black net . . . and we wish you all a Merry Christmas.

met at the home of Mrs. Walter Lukins for the annual Christmas party. It was decided to change the name to the Lancaster Drive club. The "Silent Sister" of each member was disclosed and names for next year drawn. The house was decorated in Christmas trimmings and refreshments were served at a late hour. Members present at the party were Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Gail Hudson, Mrs. Roy Hart, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. Ross Wood, Mrs. Hannah Evans, Mrs. Russel Millette, Mrs. Leo Childs, Mrs. Floyd Boyington, Mrs. Magdalena Sutter, Etta Sutter and the hostess.

Today's Needlecraft

by Lena Wheeler

Here's easy stitchery that works magic on plain linens! Sunbonnet girls, garlands add zest and color to towels, cloths, napkins, scarfs.

Embroider these charming motifs for a fresh touch to your linens. Pattern 639 has transfer of 16 motifs 1x1 1/2 to 5x9 inches; stitches.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins for this pattern to The Oregon Statesman, Needlecraft Dept., Salem, Ore. Print plainly PATTERN NUMBER, your NAME and ADDRESS.

Fifteen cents more brings you our newest Needlecraft Catalogue — the 1945 edition — 112 illustrations of designs for crochet, knitting, quilts, embroidery, toys, handicraft — a free pattern for cuddle toys printed right in the catalogue.

Winterproof Your Home Now

Pneumatically installed Rock Wool Insulation and Metal Interlocking Weather Stripping will save up to 40% in your fuel bills. —AND ALSO— make your home up to 15 degrees cooler in summer. 36 MONTHS TO PAY. Free Estimates—No Obligation. Campbell Rock Wool Co. Salem Owned and Salem Represented 1132 Broadway - Ph. 5496

Needlework Club Will Change Name in Future

FOUR CORNERS, Dec. 24—The Four Corners Needlework Club

We wish you the Best of Everything. A merry, merry Christmas and loads of good cheer. Perry's Drug Store 129 S. Commercial Phone 7988. Includes an illustration of a smiling woman's face.

A HAPPY CHEERFUL CHRISTMAS. Holiday greetings to each and everyone of our friends. Commercial Book Store 141 North Commercial. Includes an illustration of a winter scene with a house and trees.

Cloverdale School Has Program for Holiday. CLOVERDALE — The local school gave its Christmas program Wednesday. Two hours of entertainment was presented by both rooms of the school under the direction of the teachers, Mrs. Esther Kleper and Mrs. Lena Callaway. School closed at noon Friday and will resume again January 2.

STARTS WEDNESDAY!

YEAR END SALE. SCHLESINGER & CO. Exclusive Apparel. 409 Court Street Phone 4321. Includes a large circular graphic with the text 'YEAR END SALE' and a star.

Greetings. On this happy day when hearts beat fast with all the joys that come only in this Yuletide season we want to extend our sincere wishes for all good things and express to one and all our sincere thanks for your patronage and kind co-operation in the past—our hope to serve you better than ever in the future. SALEM HARDWARE COMPANY 120 North Commercial. Includes an illustration of a lit candle and a palm tree.