Younger Set Are Party Hosts

The tournament is always the occasion for parties among members of the high school set.

Miss Dolores Clement, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norris D. Clement, was hostess for a buffet dinner party Friday night at the home of her parents on East Wilson street for the pleasure of a large group of her friends.

The affair preceded the semi-final games. The St. Patrick motif was used in the decorations with a green and yellow color scheme carried out in the appointments. Individual cakes, decorated with basketballs, were served during the dessert course.

Miss Clement's guests were the Misses Joan Lohead, Marjann Croisan, Joan Randall, Barbara Sundet, Gloria Myers, Pat Agee, Elaine White, Betty Twedt, Lorna Arnold, Mary Reimann, Dolores Hamilton, Suzanne Small, Miriam Shellenberger, Doris Dixon, Dorothy Bergsvik, Harriett Huston, Madeleine Keene, Avis Steimer, Jane Carson, Midge Newton, Gloria and Barbara McClintock, Peggy Sears, Peggy Paxson, Cathy Moran, Patsy Nickens, Barbara Upjohn, Annae Mae England, Deanie Lamb, Betty Causey and Beverly Kenney.

A hundred of the high school set were entertained at a post-game party Thursday night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Kinley K. Adams in Orchard Heights, with their son, George, acting as host.

The affair was held in the play house with dancing enjoyed during the evening. Refreshments were served with Mrs. Adams assisting her son.

Highlighting the post-game activities for Friday and Saturday nights are the annual S club dances in the Salem high school gymnasium.

New Babies Welcomed

News reached Salem of the birth of two babies. To Lt. and Mrs. William Burton Cray go felicitations on the birth of a daughter, Ruth Adele, on February 24 in Hood River.

Mrs. Cray is the former Miriam Jensen. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lühr Jensen of Hood River and Mr. and Mrs. J. Burton Cray of Salem. Lt. Cray, a West Point graduate, is now in the Philippines.

From Portland comes word of the birth of a son to Dr. and Mrs. John Noble Reid (Ann Tartar) on Friday morning, March 15, at the Portland sanatorium and hospital.

The little boy, who weighed eight pounds and seven ounces, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tartar of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Reid of Loma Linda, Calif. The baby has been named for his father, John Noble, Jr. Lt. Reid expects to be released from the navy this month.

Mrs. Ralph R. Burrough, the former Florence Betroth, whose marriage took place on March 9 at St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran church. The bride has been employed here at the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Burrough of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, is with the United States post office in Portland, where the couple will live. (Kennell-Ellis).

MT. ANGEL — During Lent the Catholic Daughters will spend regular meeting time sewing for the bazaar next fall. The next meeting is March 25. All women of the parish, whether or not they are members, are invited. Last Monday the grand regent, Mrs. Al Saalfeld, was elected to represent the court at the state conference at Oregon City May 5 and Mrs. Fred J. Schwab was selected alternate.

The committee for the day was Mrs. Ed Hammer, Mrs. Ed Hoffer, Mrs. Alfred Fisher and Mrs. R. J. Welton.

Miss Gloria Lord Tells Betrothal

Mrs. George E. Stevens of Salem is announcing the engagement of her daughter, Miss Gloria L. Lord, to Mr. Charles W. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Smith, also of Salem.

Both young people are employed at the state capital building. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Lord served with the WAVES and Mr. Smith with the navy.

Ratcliffs Return

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Ratcliffs are being welcomed home from a five months motor trip which took them to the middle east and through the south.

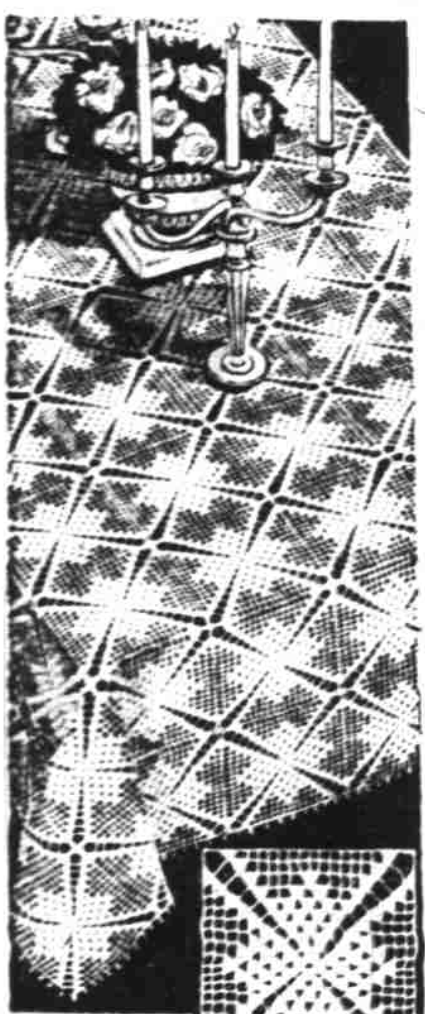

Their first stop was in Iowa, where Mrs. Ratcliff visited her native state. While Mr. Ratcliff visited relatives in Indiana and viewed Lincoln sites in Illinois, Mrs. Ratcliff visited with college friends in Grinnell.

After brief visits in Nebraska and southeastern Kansas, where Mr. Ratcliff spent his early boyhood, the Ratcliffs toured the southwest, seeing the Carlsbad Caverns, White Sands, and Elephant Butte Dam. They drove down into Texas, New Mexico and spent a week in Phoenix.

Their longest sojourn was in Long Beach, Calif., Los Angeles and vicinity. They visited in Mrs. Ratcliff's home town, Modesto, and spent a week in Palo Alto and the San Francisco bay region. They returned home via Sacramento and Medford, completing an eleven thousand mile trip.

Miss Lois Frink and Miss Beverly Beard of McMinnville are the guests of Miss Mariann Croisan at the George Croisan home during the basketball tournament.

Special Program Being Planned

More than 300,000 Camp Fire Girls throughout the world will attend special church services March 17, the first day of Camp Fire week. In Salem, Camp Fire Girls, Blue Birds and Horizon club members will attend a special vesper service at Calvary Baptist church at 4 p.m. The service is being planned for parents and friends of the girls and is being participated in by all three groups, keyed to the theme, "At Home in the World."

The sermon by Dr. Charles Durden is entitled "Music of Hill and Dale." The invocation is by Mr. Don Douris and the benediction by the Rev. Clay Pomeroy. Special assistance in the program preparation has been given by Mrs. C. S. McCollam, guardians' association president, and Mrs. F. C. Bell, vesper service committee chairman. Clergymen, addressing the Camp Fire Girls, will discuss the importance of religion in home life.

Throughout the week Camp Fire Girls have special activities presentations and exhibits of crafts.

The Alpha Tau Omega alumni in Salem and vicinity were entertained at a Founder's day celebration and dinner Friday night at the Walter Kirk cabin at Morningside. Mr. Kirk is president of the alumni group and Mr. Deryl Myers is secretary.
