Gaily Decked Baskets Bring Club $84.36

FOUR CORNERS, March 18 (Special)—One of the nice parties given by the Rickey Garden club was the basket social held Friday night at the school. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Meyers and Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Miller planned the program which consisted of skits put on by local talent, a violin solo by Arnold Peterson, accompanied by his daughter, Dorothy; accordion solos by Leslie Hershfeldt, and a song by Loteta Miller, accompanied by her cousin. The baskets brought in $84.36 and Oliver Rickman was the auctioneer and much interest and enthusiasm was shown in the bidding. The baskets were all beautiful but the outstanding ones were a battleship "SS 4 Corners" brought by Mrs. Harvey Meyers; a horn of plenty, by Mrs. Waldo Miller; a cube of butter on the top of Mrs. Jess McIlroy's box brought out a host of bids; Mrs. Floyd Boyington put her surprise in a huge "Uncle Sam" hat; Mrs. Ray Osborn's box was a sewing basket and the lucky buyer, H. I. Warn, was later seen with it hanging on his arm.

In the children's division, a red wagon drawn by a large white horse of cardboard was a double box for Carolyn Meyer and Audrey Miller.

The regular meeting of the Rickey Garden club will be held at the community hall Wednesday night at 8 o'clock with the president, Mrs. Frank South, in charge. Mrs. E. E. Walker and Mrs. L. J. Stewart will demonstrate buffet meals, and anyone in the district who is interested is invited to attend.

Jersey Men Oppose OPA In Resolution

SILVERTON, March 18 (Special) A telegram petitioning Oregon delegates in congress to work toward the exclusion of all dairy products from OPA regulations was authorized by the members of the Marion County Jersey Cattle club at its meeting Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Schwarz.

Members expressed fear the action was too late to have any effect on the decision to be reached on the milk situation on March 25, but hoped it might have some bearing on the bill to come up for discontinuance or extension of OPA within the next three months.

About 50 people attended Sunday. Floyd Bates of Salem is president.

Davis Makes Report

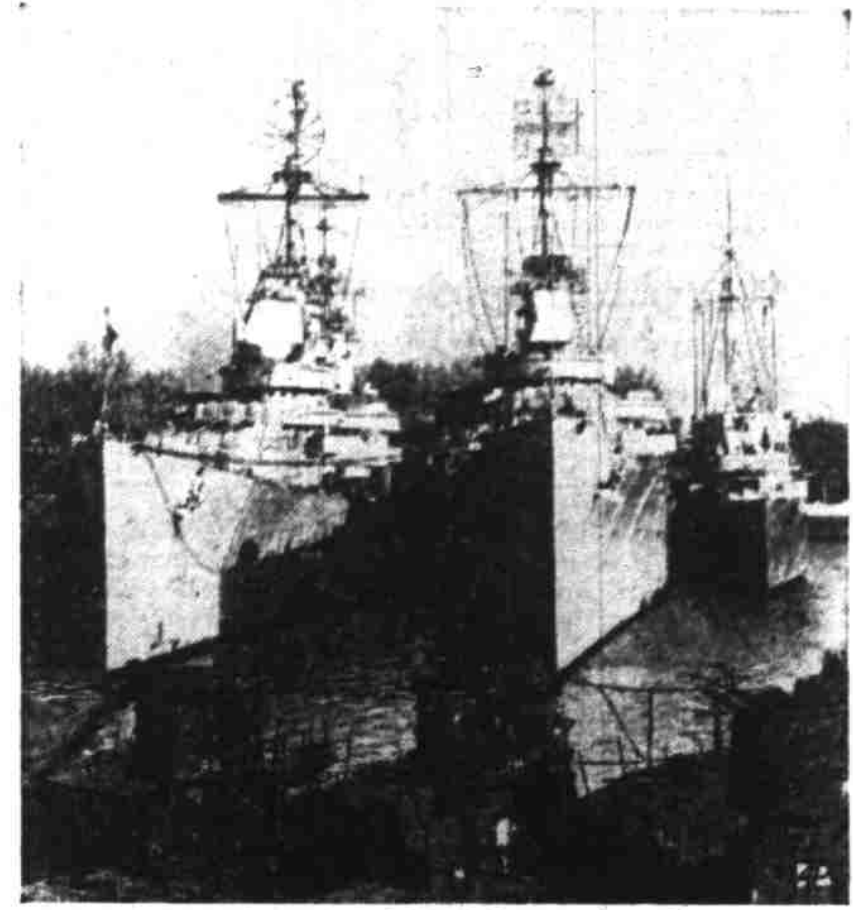

Fred Davis reported on a recent meeting at the Marion county agent's office at which youth movement in agriculture was discussed. Davis urged the addition of an assistant 4-H leader in the county as well as an assistant county agent Ben Newell, he said, was engaged as a horticulturist and has been helping out in the livestock areas but both Newell's time and that of the county agent W. G. Nibler, is more than full as it is. The federal government, Davis explained, pays the salaries of the two additions and the county's expense would be office space, clerical help and mileage, all of which would average around $1500 a piece. The club voted to petition the county court to set aside sufficient funds to enable the additions of these two men.

Committee Named

James Bishop, 4-H club leader was present and suggested the Jersey club could be of great assistance by furnishing a committee to work as an advisory group and encourage both the Future Farmers and the 4-H club members in their work.

The group voted to sponsor such a committee and Bates appointed William Schwarz, Otto Beaty of Salem, Fred Davis of Woodburn, Bob Clark of Aurora, and Stanley Riches of Turner with Albert Klein of Aumsville as assistant to Riches, to serve on this committee.

Bates reported on the recent state Jersey men's directors' meeting. Tentative dates for the spring shows and tours in Oregon have been set as follows: Clackamas county, May 25; Yamhill, May 31; Linn-Benton, June 1; Marion, June 3, and Polk, June 4.
