

Rural Teachers Dinner Guests

MIDDLE GROVE, March 21 (Special) Miss Sadie Roth and Mrs. Ethel Ramus assisted by Mrs. Theodore Kuenzi, Mrs. Emory Goode, Mrs. John Cage and Mrs.

W. H. Scharf, entertained at dinner, at the school house Tuesday for Marion county rural school teachers, who use the teachers' new technique system. About 12 schools were represented. Mrs. Hoeng and Harold Bishop from the county school superintendent's office were present, and at the close of the business meeting two educational films were shown.

Aumsville PTA Has Election

AUMSVILLE, March 20—(Special)—The monthly PTA meeting was held Monday, March 18. Officers elected are Mrs. A. E. Bradley, president; Mrs. Ed Holmquist, vice president; Mrs. A. Watson, secretary, and Roy Hough, treasurer. A talk on pre-school clinics was given and films on vaccination and tuberculosis were shown. Scouts presented two songs. The next meeting will be April 19 in connection with the 4-H achievement program. R. B. Lucas, in the Salem Deaconess hospital, will have to have a second operation.

High Value Set On Women's Pies At Union Hill

UNION HILL—Over $68 was received from the pie social sponsored by the Union Hill woman's club at the grange hall Saturday.

The money will be used for Red Cross and Children's Farm Home donations. Moving pictures by the Edwards-Howe company, singing by Lee Brown of Stayton, violin selections by John Law also of Stayton and a demonstration of how a club meeting should be held made up the program.
