State Officer Visits Court

Hanna Ross Court, Order of the Amaranth, met Monday with Mrs. Ray Heckinger, royal matron and William Wilson, royal patron, presiding.

Mrs. Emma Henderson, grand royal matron of the state of Oregon, was escorted to the throne and given honors. Also present were Mrs. Frances Hurlburt, past supreme royal matron and present grand secretary, several other grand officers and members from Portland courts.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Lester, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Mudd, Mr. and Mrs. H. Glaisyer and Mrs. Iva Bushey.

Miss Miriam Becke arrived in Salem Wednesday night to spend the remainder of the week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Becke. Miss Becke, a junior at the University of Oregon, spent the spring vacation in Sacramento with Miss Selby Franks.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stockwell of Portland were weekend guests at the home of his mother, Mrs. H. K. Stockwell.

Miss White, Mr. Buick Married

News has come from New Zealand telling of the marriage of Miss Muriel Joy White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert White of Salem, to Mr. Ron F. Buick of Masterton, New Zealand, on Saturday, March 16. The bride sailed from San Francisco on February 23 and was married three days after her arrival. The couple met in Europe in 1938 when they were touring the continent.

The ceremony took place at the Episcopal church in Masterton with the Rev. Archdeacon Kenney officiating.

For her wedding the bride chose a white satin gown fashioned with a train. The shirred bodice was designed with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves with points over the wrists. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion cascaded from a tiara of flowers. She carried a white prayer book marked with white orchids. Mr. Horace Chappel, the groom's cousin, gave the bride in marriage.

Miss Joan Gemmill was the bridesmaid and wore a full skirted pink net frock with pink lace bodice made with long sleeves. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of pastel flowers.

Mr. Sidney Campbell stood with the groom as best man.

After a wedding trip the couple returned to Masterton to make their home on the groom's sheep ranch, "Burnside."

The new Mrs. Buick is a graduate of Salem schools and Willamette university. She has been dean of girls at the West Linn high school for several years. Her husband served with the New Zealand army in the Pacific for three and a half years.
