The guests will gather at the Woodmansee home on South High street preceding the dinner. Covers will be placed for fourteen guests.

Rites Read in Bay City

A simple wedding took place recently in the ivy-covered Swedenborgian church at Washington and Lyon streets, San Francisco, when Mrs. Josephine M. Fisher became the bride of Major Ira K. Ewald of Fort Douglas, Utah.

Mrs. Fisher's 9 year old daughter, Janice, was the bridesmaid at the afternoon ceremony. Mrs. Fisher came to San Francisco from her home in Salem last year to act as secretary to Edward P. Madigan. The couple will make their home at 2335 Sacramento street, San Francisco.

Social Calendar Events Listed

The spring social calendar for Willamette university features a social function for every week-end until the close of the semester. From small group meetings to the formal ball, the week-ends are scheduled for events right up to closed week-end June 21 before final examinations.

Beginning the host of events will be the Independent Women holding an informal party April 12. The Queen's formal ball, sponsored by the yearbook Wal-lulah, is slated for April 13. Saturday, April 27, is scheduled for WRA play day and Lausanne hall, women's dormitory, will give a formal dance on that date. May Weekend will begin May 3 when the May Weekend play will be given. Traditional week-end festivities will take place the following day when the May Queen is crowned and the evening of May 4 there will be an Associated Students of Willamette University semi-formal dance in the gym.

Three classes, the sophomores, seniors and freshmen, have slated May 11 as the date for their class parties. Independent Men and Women have scheduled a formal banquet for May 17. The semi-annual inter-fraternity formal will be held May 18, and a sport dance for Lausanne hall on May 25 concludes the festivities for the month of May.

Independent Men and Women will give a picnic on June 1, with the semi-annual Panhellenic formal sponsored by the four women's Greek letter organizations on the campus also on that date.

June 2 finds the campus fraternities having a beach party and June 15 there will be a picnic given by the women of Lausanne hall. Last ASWU dance of the semester, a formal affair, will be held the evening of June 15. Academic convocation on June 30 ends the semester.

Salem Pi Phis Receive Pins
