Queen's Ball On Saturday

First formal dance on the spring social calendar at Willamette university will be the Queen's ball, sponsored by the Wallulah, student year book, slated for Saturday, April 13, in the campus gymnasium. Highlight of the ball will be the presentation of a Wallulah queen selected from five coeds still in the running. Eileen Lytle of Portland, Paula Smith, Stayton; Joyce Furman, Hall, Mont.; Beverly Briggs, Great Falls, Mont., and Frances Ball, Raymond, Wash.

The five campus beauties were selected this week by ten male judges, who chose five from 19 contestants appearing in a chapel program. Girls were judged on chapel appearance, a full length picture, and a head and shoulders picture. A secret judge will choose the queen from the finalists and she will be announced for the first time at the ball.

Committees for the dance are Jean Carsh on decorations which will carry out the royalty theme; Verna Stocks, orchestra; Virgie Wicks, refreshments, and Marion Reamer, publicity.

Mrs. Fred Stump returned from a two week visit in California. While in LaJolla, she visited with the J. H. Lautermans.
